COLWELL IS NAMED

Regulars Win Appointment of United States Marshall.

COMMISSION IS ON WAY

President Impressed With Wisdom of Giving Patronage to Those Supporting Him—Roosevelt Favors Choice.

Elmer B. Colwell, of Portland, has been appointed United States Marshal for Oregon to succeed Charles J. Reed. President Taft signed the commission on last Friday at Beverly, Mass.

Information of the action of the President was contained yesterday in a telegram from Secretary Norton to Dr. Henry Waldo Coe. The inference is that the commission is now in the mails.

The appointment of Mr. Colwell has been assured since the last visit to the President of Dr. Coe, when it was impressed on the President that some of the Oregon patronage should go to the organization which was concerned with his nomination and election, as well as to the followers of Senator Bourne.

Senator Bourne made a hard fight for the appointment of J. Frank Simont.

Henry Fights for Reed.

C. J. Reed, who was appointed to the office at the special solicitation of Francis J. Henry, prosecutor of the Oregon land frauds, was a candidate to the last. Henry "went down the line" for Reed. Colonel Roosevelt was asked to urge the reappointment of Mr. Reed, but the President declined to forward an indorsement for any one of the candidates, although favoring Colwell.

Mr. Reed has been in Washington this summer, and returned to Portland only last week. He has steadfastly declined to be interviewed. He was reported to be at one of the beach resorts yesterday, and could not be reached.

Politicians are wondering what influence the appointment will have on the attitude of Special Prosecutor Henry in handling the J. N. Williamson and Hinger Hermann cases. These are the most important of the land fraud indictments remaining on the court calendar. Mr. Henry is reported to have made the statement that he would not be concerned with the prosecutions unless Reed should be retained as his assistant.

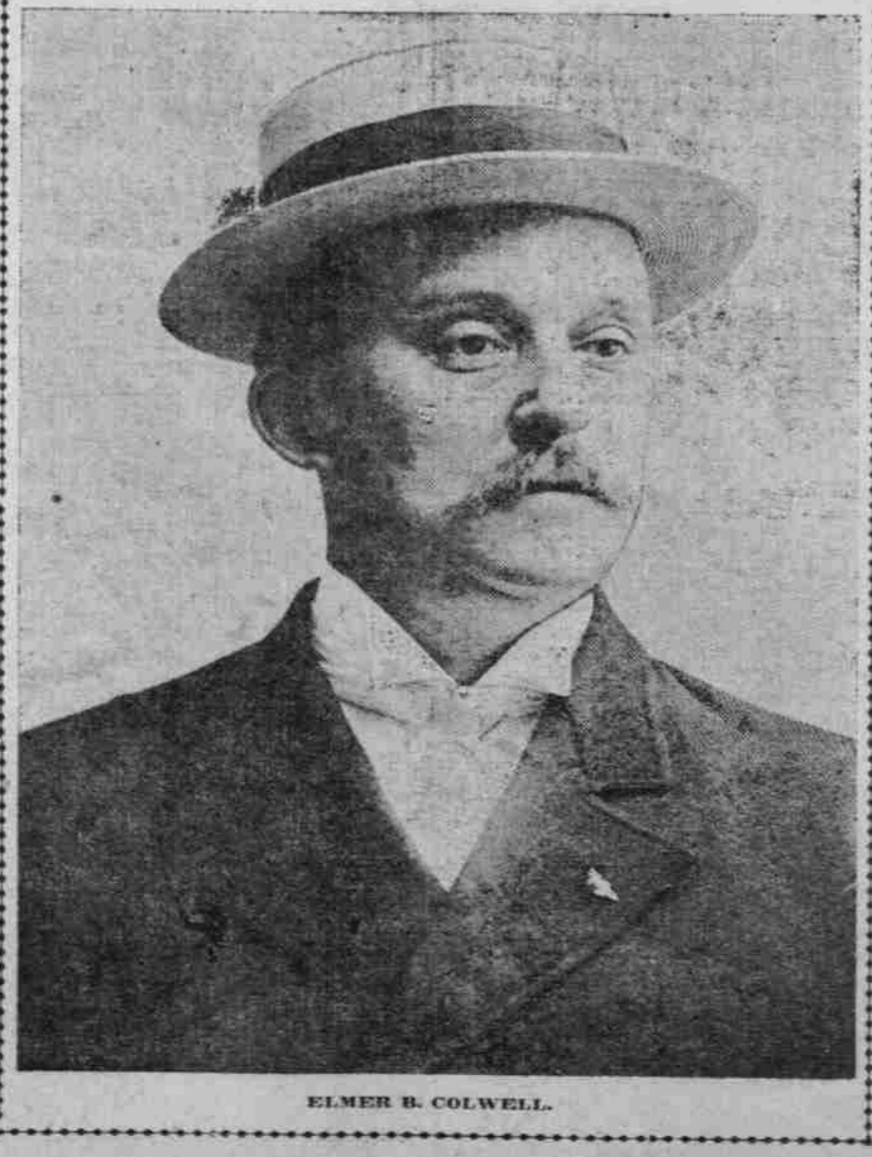

A question was raised last night as to the probability that Senator Bourne would prevent the confirmation of the appointment of Mr. Colwell by the Senate in December. It is believed that if the Senator assumes that attitude, the regulars will be able to force approval will retain the place until a successor qualifies. Mr. Colwell has arranged to have his bond forwarded immediately and will take possession as soon as the commission is received.

Regular Republicans Pleased.

The appointment was received with much satisfaction among regular Republicans of the city last night. It is considered to be in recognition of the earnest support which regular party men gave to the ticket in the last National election. Ralph Williams, member of the National Republican committee for Oregon, has been consistently behind the application

BASEBALL FANS GIVE CASH

Chorus Girls Storm Grandstand Before Game and Secure $112 for Little Comrade Who Lost Her Legs in Railroad Accident.

DONATIONS TO MAHR BENEFIT FUND MAY BE SENT TO OREGONIAN.

Total cash donations Miss Mahr benefit fund, $357.17.

Tickets for the benefit performance at the Lyric Theater to be given on the night of July 26 are on sale at the various theaters in the city.

Donations and the sale of tickets are in charge of the treasurer Miss Mahr benefit fund, care of The Oregonian.

Chorus girls of the Armstrong Musical Comedy Company stormed the grand stand at the baseball park yesterday afternoon, just before the game, selling tickets for the benefit performance to be given for Miss Marjorie Mahr July 26. The boys who sell popcorn, peanuts, ice cream and lemonade were forced to take a back seat while the fair actresses scattered through the crowd to dispose of tickets. They were permitted to conduct the sale till the game was called.

The girls were so eager to know the result of their canvass that they could not wait until the crowd had dispersed to theater to count up. When sales were totaled the amount which the fans had contributed was found to be $112. In high glee the chorus hurried back to the theater to make up, as the matinee had been held off to give the girls a chance to sell tickets.

Miss Mahr is in good spirits, but suffered considerable pain yesterday, as relaxation of the nerves has begun and the numbness from the shock has worn off. She calls the little space hemmed off by a screen her dressing room.

When Mrs. Armstrong called yesterday evening she peeked through a crack of the screen and asked:

"May I come into your dressing room?"

"I haven't finished my make-up yet," jokingly replied Miss Mahr. "I can't get one eye right."

Harry D. Wood, of Hood River, yesterday sent a check to the treasurer of the Miss Mahr benefit fund for $2. It is the second out-of-town donation.
