Roping and Throwing Cow in West, but Admits He Got Precious Little Milk as Result.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 17.—Theo-dors Roossveit saw no politicians today and talked no politics. He talked of cows and conservation, of tree-chopping, the state of affairs in Africa, and the negro in the South, but there was nothing in his conversation to indicate that he knew the difference between an insurgent and a regular.

Colonel Roosevelt did say, however,
that he had decided definitely to speak
before the Conservation Congress in St.
Paul, September 6. The Colonel was hard at it all the

As he finished chopping, three of the Roosevelt cows ambied placidly down the shady, winding roadway on their way to the barn. They were held by ropes litted to a couple of farm hands. "Do you ever milk the cows?" some-one asked.

"No, I can't milk cows," the Colonel admitted. "The last time "No, I can't milk cows," the Colonel admitted. "The last time I tried was many years ago on a ranch in North Dakota where we had only condensed milk. I chased a cow lickety-split for two miles over everything we came to, roped her, threw her and turned her upside down. But the result was not as good as I expected. I got precious little milk."

For the next week the ex-President hopes to keep away from politics and have a quiet time of it. He expects to have almost no visitors and to put in the time preparing some of the speeches for his Western trip. He said today that his speech in Denver would be on WASHINGTON, July 17.—On the strength of press reports the State Department today telegraphed American Consul Moffat at Bluefleids to ascertain Consul Moffat at Bluefields to assertain whether Dr. Lawrence Burgheim, of Houston, Tex., is held a prisoner by the Madriz forces. The report was that Dr. Burgheim had been compelled to treat the wounded at Bluefields Bluff.

Evidences of the condition of unrest prevalent in Managua were received at the State Department through the translation of multiple portions. lation of public orders issued by the military governor in the month of June. One of these orders prohibited individuals from leaving the city without written permits from the authorities. Persons disobeying this order were classed as revolutionists.

Another order prohibited gatherings in Another houses and in public establish-ments after 9 o'clock in the evening ex-cept by permission of the authorities.

GOTHAM HAS $600,000 FIRE Hudson Riverfront of Manhattan Suffers Heavily.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Fire which for a time threatened to rival in destructiveness the big Hoboken pier conflagration of several years ago, raged on the Hudmon River from of Manhattan this afternoon, destroying pier 14, the main pier of the Metropolitan Steamship Company, badly damaging the steamer Henry F. Dimock of that line and partially destroying more than half a dozen lighters and small craft. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

During the blaze the adjoining piers to the north were several times threatened and pier 15, occupied by the Brunswick Steamship Company, caught fire more than once. Two men on one lighter were hadly burned before they jumped and were rescued from the water by a fire-boat.

My own view of the National associations is that they should be formed in such a time as this, when no one contem-plates any financial conditions which would require the use of their powers. would require the use of their powers. Personally I don't expect that any National currency association will ever, within the life of the law, have to avail itself of its powers with respect to the issue of currency. Indeed, I think that the very formation and existence of these associations would strongly tend, perhaps effectually and finally tend, to prevent the need of the exercise of their powers. I therefore minimize the use of these associations in emergencies and magnify the importance of their influence in preventing emergencies. They are associated ing emergencies. They are associated in my mind with times of financial peace and quiet rather than with times of confusion and convulsion."

HIGHER RATE PROPOSED

PASSENGER FARES ARE TO BE CHARGED ON PULLMAN CARS.

Railroads May Experiment by Discriminating Between Day Coaches and Sleepers.

CHICAGO, July 17.—(Special.)—The managements of the Harriman lines, the San Pedro and the Western Pacific roads San Pedro and the Western Pacific roads are considering trying an experiment of charging a higher passenger rate in Pullman cars than is charged in day coaches. If it is decided to put this new principla into effect, it will be done on all other trains between Salt Lake City and Los Angeles and San Francisco and on all trains between Orden and Los Angeles trains between Ogden and Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The occasion for the change is to be found in the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the Spokane rate case, in which passenger fares be-tween points named were reduced by or-
