A sale of bluestem was reported exterday at 92 cents and there was talk of higher prices being paid. Whatever lamage the growing crup has suffered in the Pacific Northwest seems to be in the he Pacific Northwest seems to be in the cluestern sections, and for this reason the rade looks for an unusually wide spread this year between the price of bluestern and club. One dealer gave it as his opinion that new crop club would open around 80 cents and new bluestern at 92 or there-abouts. Club was quoted yesterday neminal its export value, but it cannot be bought

A letter from Hernhard Bing, of Nuremburg, was as follows:

"The outlook for the growing hop crop is very good. The vine has nearly reached the top of the poles and yards are showing perfectly sound vines, vigorous and free from insects. Even the poor roots, for which we feared some time ago, have entirely recovered. If the weather continues to be as favorable as lattle we favorable as lately we have every right to expect a very good yield both in Bohemia and Bayaria. Though crop prospects on the whole are satisfactory in nearly all produc-

of the New York crop:
While there was some rain on Tuesday night, it was not nearly enough to materially benefit the crops, and even hops are suffering from dry weather. Many of the late yards are already in blow, and that means there will be suffered by the suffered will be suffered will be suffered by the suffered will be suffered by the suffered will be suffered by the suff there will be no more hop-bearing arms or shoots. Notwithstanding a late Spring, hops have gotten their growth about 10 days earlier than usual and consequently a short crop is predicted, and the vines in most of the yards would seem to bear out this prediction. There are still several lots of hops in growers hands in this vicinity and about the best that is offered for them is 20 to 22 conts.

MOVEMENT OF CALIFORNIA FRUIT. Peaches and Grapes Going Forward in Large Quantities.

The movemen of California speaches, pears and grapes is reported by the California Fruit stributors as follows:

and grapes is reported by the California Fruit distributors as follows:

Peaches—Demand for peaches during the past week has been exceptionally good, considering the large quantities of Southern peaches now being received in Eastern markets. Early Crawfords are now practically findshed and a very estifactory crop of late Crawfords. Sisquehannas and Elbertas are now available. In clings we have Tuscans to offer. The bulk of the peach offerings of this state will be made during the next two weeks, after which time supplies will materially decrease. Quality of the fruit is first-class.

Pears—There is a heavy increase in the movement of this fruit since our last report. Pear shipments, however, have now passed their senith and will decline from this time on. Cannens are now in the market taking liberal supplies at good priote, which will certainly interfere with the free movement of this variety for Eastern shipment. The heavy movement from the river will be followed by liberal shipments from Sulsan and Vacaville, which may be expected to continue during the next two or three weeks.

Grapes—Some Fontainbleau from the early sections and a few cars of Thompson Seedless from the Freezo district are boy going forward. Shipment of this variety may be expected to increase from day to day and next week should see a free movement. The fruit is of unismally good quality. Tolays are now coming along in fine shape and promise to be considerably better than usual. There will be no black grapes available until about the 20th,

SHOULD COME TO OREGON

Kansas Hay Being Transshipped to the Philippines-Stocks of Fruit and Vegetables Heavy--Talk of Butter Advance.

SEATTLE. Wash.' July 12.—(Special.)—
The peforrmance in the cais market was little short of sensational. While nominally quoted at $25.50, 200 tons of good oats could not be obtained either here or in the country, today at $22.00 hose local mill has been obliged to close temporarily, owing to its inability to obtain oats at any price. Holders jump prices the moment buyers make an offer. Three hundred tons of red oats were purchased in California, but the price there has jumped so that further orders are considered unlikely.

The Merchants Exchange put barley up to $23. Wheat was unchanged.

Hay has dropped to $21 here. Two thousand tons of Kansas hay has arrived for transshipment to the Phillippines.

The largest cargo of fruit and vegetables ever brought into this port from California, was discharged by the steamer that arrived from the South early this morning. The boat brought over $900 packages of fruit and vegetables, most of which was consigned to Seartle commission men. Six carloads of peaches, apricots and apples arrived from Eastern Washington. The demand was brisk, and while slightly lower, the market did not display marked weakness. California Etherta peaches sold at 75 cepts, and Alexanders at 25 to 46 cents. Apricots sold from 40 to 76 cents. Bartlett pears were in liberal supply, selling from $2 to $2.35. Cantaloupes were lower, ordinary atock not selling above $3.75. Watermelons ranged from 1½ to 1½ cents.

The butter market took a strong turn today, with much talk of an advance. Nothing definite came out of the agitation however. Eggs were jun steady. The demand forced the retail price to 40 cents. Veal receipts were light, owing to the hot weather.

LITTLE ATTENTION IS PAID TO OUTSIDE NEWS.

Canadian Pacific Feels the Effect of the Strike on the Grand Trunk. The Banking Position.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Only listless attention was ald to any news by operators in stocks toway, and no inducement was found for taking steps in the market that made a perceptible effect on prices. The amounts of the dealings were trivial and the range of prices narrow.

The banking outlook, the labor question and crop news were discussed with languid interest, and dealings growing out of these considerations were often reversed in the course of the day's session. An early deciline was followed by a recovery, leaving fractional gains.

Canadian Facific was rather acutely affected by the sympathetic influence of the strike on the Grand Trunk. That occurrence seemed to dominate sentiment over the labor question to the exclusion of the agreement on a basis of settlement between the Pennsylvania and its employes both West and Khat.

Its influence was enhanced by the uneasy feeling existing in England over the dispute over wages on some of its railroad systems, while the French railroads are in the threes of a like contention.

Influences from the side of crop advices were mixed. The movements in the cotton market are accepted as providing phases of a speculative campaign rather than accurately reflective of the state of supply and its promise.

Various factors are combining to build up the strength of the New York banking position, but the effect on sentiment in the stock market is modified by a disposition to look askance at the revived movement for the formation of currency associations such as are provided for in the law for issuance of emergency currency. The declarations of Trensury authorities and such hankers as favor the movement that the time is fitting, owing to absence of any prevent emergency, do not prevent assumptions that preparation is dealerd for a possible resort to emergency instead for the corporation that preparation is dealerd for a possible resort to emergency is dealy for the sub-treasury since the first bank statement of 5a,680,000. Curretcy receipts from the interior and incoming gold shipment Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, 955,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

IMPROVEMENT IS EXPECTED IN THE WOOL MARKET.

Strength Shown at the London Auction Sales Encourages the Eastern Trade.

BOSTON. July 19.—Dullness continues in the wool market, but there are growing signs that improvement will not long be delayed. There is apparently a little better feeling owing to the strength shown at the opening of the London anctions. Lightweight goods have moved better in retail quarters as a result of the hot weather.

Foreign Advices Are Bullish, but Heavy Offerings in This Country

CHICAGO, July 19 -- Premiums for hard would be importing late in the season to make up for the shortage expected. In this connection attention was drawn to the fact that the European visible supply has decreased more than 14,000,000 bushels in a month, and is now only 10,000,000 bushels larger than a year ago. It was on the strength of the foreign news chiefly that the market opened at the highest figure of the day. The close was practically at the lowest point of the assion, and weak at that, September ranged from $1,05½ to $1.05, finishing 2 to 2½c down at $105½. A better outlook for forage crops in North Dakots was an influences in weakening corn. September fluctuated between $0.3.08 if sectioning easy at $00½c. No. 2 yellow closed at 64c.

The September option in oats varied from 25 to 30½c and closed ½ off at 50½c.

Selling of provisions was based on the free run of hogs. At the windup, pork was 11½c to 25c net lower, lard 7½c to 12½.00 and ribs 10 to 12½c.
