

MURDOCK GRILLS SPEAKER CANNON

Insurgent Declares Illinois Statesman Has Always Opposed Progress.

OWN CAUSE IS DEFENDED

Kansas Man Charges Presiding Officer of House With Playing in Dark With Tammany Hall.

Lorimer Held His Friend.

EMPORIA, Kan., July 19.—Congressman Victor Murdock, Kansas insurgent in the House of Representatives, following the wake of Speaker Cannon today, defended the insurgent cause in his first political speech at the campaign and applied to the Speaker's charges made here yesterday.

He declared that Mr. Cannon "for 30 years has been opposed to locomotion in any direction," charged him with affiliations with Tammany Hall, and declared the greatest thing the insurgents accomplished at the last session of Congress was to put the Speaker off the committee on rules.

"I did not intend to get into this campaign," he said, "I have no opposition in my own district and I thought I would keep out of the contest, but when Joseph G. Cannon came into the state to speak against the things nearest my heart, I could not conscientiously keep out of the fight."

Cannon Called "Standstill."

"Speaker Cannon for 30 years has been opposed to locomotion in any direction. For over a quarter of a century he has stood against progress. He is not only a 'standstill,' but a 'standstill' in the progress of the world. He has opposed the Federal inspection of meats, he stood opposed to irrigation, to currency reform, to pure food laws and regulations, to civil service reform and to practically all progressive legislation since the Civil War.

Played in Dark, Charge.

"Now, listen to me, I want to tell you something that Cannon did not mention in his speech yesterday. While posing as a partisan, as an ardent advocate of party fealty, he has played in the dark with Tammany. He did not hesitate to give up his own position, his own honor, his own name, to be elected to the United States Senate by a coalition with the Democrats and the Republicans. He was elected to the Senate by a coalition with the Democrats and the Republicans. He was elected to the Senate by a coalition with the Democrats and the Republicans.

Speaker Rages in House.

"Speaker Cannon was interested in just two things in the tariff bill—the protection of petroleum and its products, and the tariff on sugar. When the insurgents offered an amendment reducing the tariff on petroleum, Cannon left his chair and raged over the floor of the House like a wild man. He said the House could not make the reduction. Then when the insurgents became revolutionists, we appealed from the decision of the majority and we won. A big hand came down out of the blue sky and smashed Cannon, the glove schedule, the petroleum schedule and all, and that hand was William H. Taft's. The greatest thing the insurgents have done," continued the speaker, "has been to put Cannon on the committee on rules. It is no longer necessary for members of the committee to get down on their marrow bones before the chairman or fear of an unfavorable report to the Speaker. The insurgents not only took the power away from Speaker Cannon, but from all future Speakers. The power of the Speaker is now in his hands. We want to take that away from him. It will then be impossible for him either to reward or punish members."

TWO HURT IN AUTO CRASH

They came up behind the buggy containing Mrs. Maude Campbell and the Misses Frances and Vera Smith, daughters of Conductor Jack Smith and though both Phelps and the younger of the Smith girls received painful bruises about the head and shoulders and elbow.

NEWS OF RIGDON TRAGEDY

Some quotations from one of the letters follow:

Woman Thinks Self Gold Brick.

"After hard effort on your part you have finally convinced me that you do not need me, that I am gold brick and the little rags of faith that I have tried to patch together and over hundreds of miles have made me think I was a gold brick."

"And now I am entirely free from faith in you and I could not, if I wanted, struggle with your moods and contempt. I thought in the East my life with you was too trying. There you worried me nearly to death with your uncertain living and reckless gambling. But you educated me up to the higher thoughts that disappointment and hopes did not fit in my life.

"But since my stay West you have been unkind to me. You have put me through paces and over hundreds that would have made drinking idiots out of stronger women than I—and I find now that I am worn out.

"I don't even want to love anyone again, nor do I care whether I get love again. I am just praying for peace and a life where my faults and sins will be unnoticed.

"I love the children and mother but that love is an unselfish love that is not compared with the love I gave you.

"Your contempt and abuse of me are entirely uncalculated. You crucified my soul a thousand times to please whims and moods and cussedness because I was the nearest to hit at and I didn't have nerve enough to call 'enough' because I thought I would win with constancy and love.

"Instead, I won contempt and tolerated abuse of the lowest order, not from ignorance nor pride but because of worse-than-dog devotion. And now I see that I showed a yellow streak.

"Well, I am pretty firm in my decision to never again invite nor tolerate your contempt, and what little bit of love I can't help but feel for you I have made a small package of and wrapped it in bitterness. In the future, I need not be reminded of it every 30-days—I can't stand."

Writer Disgusted With Self.

"I am so discouraged and disgusted with myself now that I hate the daylight and dread the night, and there is still some need of me on this earth and I want to live my few years in my right senses.

"There are still a few people living in this world as rotten as I am, and I need not fear to hurt them by contact, and I shall be careful not to inflict myself so near to those who are decent that I am like a sewer rat among doves, living in mortal terror of having some one step on my neck and soul. No one knows you better than I do."

NO "YOUNG" IN PHILADELPHIA

Woman Shot by Rigdon May Not Be From Quaker City.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—No one of the name of Alexander Young is a member of the Philadelphia bar, and it is believed here tonight that the woman shot by Charles W. Rigdon in Chicago, who has been identified as Mrs. Anna Theresa Young, the estranged wife of a Philadelphia lawyer, was not a resident of this city.

COTTON BREAKS SHARPLY

Few Sales Made, but Slump Carries Staple to 15.65 Cents.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The sensational advance in July cotton, culminating at 16.65 cents, followed today by an almost equally sensational break during today's trading. Between the recent urgent buying of contracts and the currency reform, the cotton in this direction from Liverpool and the South, it looked as if the July shorts had secured cover, and when some cotton was sold today the price suffered severely.

After selling at 16.41, early July gradually worked off to 15.95 and broke to 15.65 without a single sale, while only a few thousand bales changed hands during the entire morning. This represented a loss from the closing quotation of yesterday of 24 cents, and a decline of $4.50 a bale from the high point of yesterday.

Other positions were weak also. August sold at a net loss of 29 points and the new crop broke anywhere from 20 to 22 points during the middle of the day, although there was a big demand on the market.

"The pleasure of the President in accepting this compliment and in thus lending his patronage to the congress," said Taft, "is in his election to the office of president of the association of students at the universities of the world. He serves the cause of a better factor in cementing international good understanding between the people of all our countries."

OFFICERS SAVED FROM MARINE CORPS

Strife Which Brought Official Censure Results in Many Changes.

ELLIOTT NOT AFFECTED

Staff Is Scattered to All Parts of Possessions, but Commandant Stays on Job—Biddie May Be Permanent Successor.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—

As a consequence of the report of the court of inquiry that unsatisfactory conditions existed in the Marine Corps, largely as the result of many officers having been in Washington too long, members of the headquarters staff, with only a few exceptions, were today ordered to new posts in different parts of the world.

Colonel Charles L. Lauchheimer, headquarters adjutant and inspector, who requested the appointment of the court of inquiry, was ordered to the Philippines, and Lieutenant-Colonel Henry O. Haines, his assistant, was directed to assume charge of the adjutant's office.

Denny Is Shifted.

Colonel Frank L. Denny, headquarters Quartermaster, one of the candidates for the position of commandant of the corps upon the retirement of General Elliott, in October, was ordered to San Francisco for duty. He will be succeeded here by Lieutenant-Colonel Charles L. McCamley, his second assistant, while his first assistant, Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas C. Prince, was ordered to the Philippines.

Another officer who was censured as a result of the inquiry, Colonel Charles A. Biddie, was detached from duty at the marine barracks at Annapolis and ordered to the Bremerton Navy-yard, in Washington.

Elliott's Part in Doubt.

Just what, if anything, has happened to General Elliott, commandant of the corps, is a matter of uncertainty. The changes ordered today were the result of a letter from Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop to General Elliott. Mr. Winthrop stated that General Elliott was to be relieved of his command and that the changes were to be made as a result of his letter.

Wright, who resigned the pastorate a few weeks ago to accept the position of chaplain of the Washington State Reformatory at Monticello. He served the church for 12 years. His probable successor, Rev. Mr. Davis, was a prominent worker in the San Francisco branch of the Y. M. C. A. after the earthquake. After that he held a similar position with the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Runaway Team Killed.

SALEM, Or., July 19.—A disastrous runaway occurred in this city this morning, resulting in the death of two fine horses, and the demolishing of one of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's cars. The team, which belonged to Frank Luce, a local drayman, became frightened at a passing auto and ran east on State street, but had proceeded but a few blocks when both animals collided head on with the car, which was traveling at a good rate in the opposite direction. One horse was killed outright and the other received injuries which necessitated shooting the animal later.

day, plunged directly into an attack on insurgency. "Whenever," said he, "you hear a man talking about how in Congress he is going to kick out of the party traces; telling about how he is going to be a reformer and straighten out things; when you get a fellow that tells you that he won't work with anybody else; when I hear that kind of talk, I sometimes think that the insane asylums are not large enough.

In the framing of the tariff bill seven Senators—Reid, of the Police, Clapp, Beveridge & Company—and 23 Representatives said: "If you won't let us say how this tariff is framed, we won't play in the camp." Now, who were the czars?"

FRENCH DENIES STORY

PRESIDENT NORTH BANK ROAD HEARS HE HAS RESIGNED.

There is a well-defined rumor in railroad circles that George B. French, president of the Spokane, Portland & Coast route, has resigned his position as president of the North Bank line and has handed in his resignation to James J. Hill.

Mr. French himself characterizes the report as "silly twaddle" and a "brakeman's story," but outside of that there are the reports of which every railroad office in town has full cognizance, that Mr. French has been accorded but partial control of the road.

That this was true in the case of President Francis B. Clarke is undoubted, but it was supposed when Mr. French came to take executive control, the situation would be changed.

That John F. Stevens, president of the Hill lines in Oregon, would take the reins of government was at one time a popular belief. Mr. Stevens, however, says it is his intention to build the roads that require building under the Hill system.

Mr. French is reported to be coming as to when Mr. French's reported resignation would be effective, but it is assumed it will stay any arrangement Mr. Hill may make.

"The story is silly twaddle," was what Mr. French said last night. "You may say I declined to discuss it any further than I did. It is what is known as a 'brakeman's story.'"

MILK TRAINS CANCELLED.

Milk trains were also cancelled and a large section of the city is threatened with a milk famine.

When the 1500 employees of the Grand Trunk shops at Point St. Charles reported for work today, they found the shops surrounded by 350 policemen and having posted the shops were closed in consequence of the strike of conductors and trainmen, which started last night. There was no disturbance.

Union officials here declare the object of the Grand Trunk in closing its shops is to force the shop employees, many of whom are old trainmen, to take the strikers' place.

TALKS ON TEETH

By the REX DENTAL CO., DENTISTS

Book About Teeth, Free

Only a few people know why teeth decay, loosen and fall out. It is a subject that deserves close study.

We have written a book which goes into the subject of teeth in general—but the particular object we had in writing this book was to show how the ALVEOLAR method of supplying missing teeth without the aid of plates and bridges.

When we first began to advertise this ALVEOLAR method, people were incredulous. They failed to see how the work could be done. It meant a revolution of existing methods. Dentists said it couldn't be done. But thousands of men and women in this city and throughout the country are glad to testify that it CAN be done, and in their cases HAS BEEN DONE.

They used to say pyorrhea (Riggs' disease) was incurable, but we have been curing it right along and making loose teeth tight and firm in the gum.

Dentists and laymen have had to acknowledge that there was a way behind the returns—THERE WERE TOO MANY PEOPLE READY TO TESTIFY IN FAVOR OF OUR METHOD.

Most of our patients have come to us through reading these books. We want to send them to you if you have such troubles of any kind, and particularly if you are wearing a partial plate or so-called "bridge" work.

The ALVEOLAR teeth do away with plates and bridges work. It is done in either jaw—don't ask that they be firm in the gum—we will fix them. If you cannot call just write to us—the books will be sent to you absolutely free. WHEN YOU READ THESE YOU WILL ARRANGE TO COME TO OUR OFFICE TO HAVE NEW TEETH PUT IN YOUR MOUTH—JUST AS THOUSANDS HAVE DONE AND ARE DOING EVERY MONTH IN THE YEAR.

REPORT ON STRIKE

Canadian Government Submits Offer to Officials and Men of Grand Trunk.

BOTH SIDES CONSIDERING

In Meantime, Great Railroad System Is Seriously Hampered by Walk-out of 16,000 Men—Freight Jams Already Reported.

MONTREAL, July 19.—

Officials of the Grand Trunk Railway and of the unions with which the striking conductors and trainmen are members are considering an offer made this noon by the Dominion Government to arbitrate a settlement of the arbitration to settle the strike which has paralyzed the great railroad system. The offer was submitted to President Hays of the Grand Trunk and the union heads by the Minister of Labor at Ottawa and stipulates that if accepted, both sides must abide by the decision. The government will bear all expenses connected with the arbitration.

While there is no intimation of how they will accept the offer, it is known that atropine pressure is being brought to bear upon both sides to accept. It is thought that from the fact that President Hays has already made an offer to arbitrate the difficulty, the company at least will accede to the proposal.

Advices from all divisional points of the Grand Trunk in Canada and from Port Huron and Detroit, indicate that the company is having greater difficulty in keeping its trains moving than was first apparent. At some points no tickets are being sold, because of the inability of the company to guarantee a complete journey. Thus the train which left Stratford, Ontario for Buffalo at 10:45 this morning, carried no passengers. At Hamilton, a center of trade union interests, trouble is feared as soon as strikers begin to appear, and the police precautions have been redoubled.

Freight Jams Reported.

Freight jams are reported at Toronto, Hamilton and other points, while the yards at Montreal are lined with freight, which the company is unable to move.

The strike order issued last night at 2:30 a. m. and obeyed by fully 3500 conductors and trainmen, whose demands for wage increases had not been met by President Hays of the railroad at the time yesterday, caused paralysis of freight movement throughout the greater part of the system today and few passenger trains were run.

All suburban trains on the Grand Trunk railway running into Montreal were cancelled this morning. Thousands of business men and others were compelled to find other means of reaching the city.

Milk Trains Cancelled.

Milk trains were also cancelled and a large section of the city is threatened with a milk famine.

When the 1500 employees of the Grand Trunk shops at Point St. Charles reported for work today, they found the shops surrounded by 350 policemen and having posted the shops were closed in consequence of the strike of conductors and trainmen, which started last night. There was no disturbance.
