Portland reversed the order of things in the series with the Seals by defeating the visitors in an exciting game yesterday by a score of 5 to 4.

The Beavers won the game in the early innings, though Gregg weakened toward the end and in the ninth the Seals threw a scare into Portland fans by scoring three runs and coming within an ace of tying the score.

Harry Sutor, the Seal southpaw, who recently returned to that club from the Chicago Americans, made his first debut in Portland since he pitched that 20-inning victory here in 1908, and the McCredie boys treated him so unceremoniously that he lasted but two innings.

Eastley Relieves Sutor.

Both teams went through the first inning without negotiating the register, and the Seals were unable to tally in their half of the second. However, in Portland's half of the latter inning, the McCredie braves made things so interesting for Sutor that he was relieved by Eastley.

George Ort was the first Beaver up and he singled to left. Casey bunted in an attempted sacrifice, and Sutor tossed the ball away allowing Ort to take third and Casey second. Billy Speas singled to right, scoring Ort, and Casey took third. Before Murray fouled out to Nick Williams, Speas stole second, and when Vean Gregg singled to right, both Speas and Casey scored.

Eastley was then substituted for Sutor, and the teams battled along until the fourth inning before either club scored again.

Seals Get First in Fourth.

In the fourth the Seals acquired their first run, when Lewis singled, and scored when Tommy Tennant banged one for two bases to left. This was all in the scoring line for the visitors until the last chapter, when the Seals commenced to get busy with the score sheet.

An error by Casey in making a wild throw in an attempt to complete a double play allowed two of the three runs made by San Francisco in the ninth, but Gregg proved strong enough to dispose of the visitors without being able to tie up the score. The two runs made by Portland in the seventh were due to Buddy Ryan's triple off Eastley, and netted the runs necessary to win the game. The score:

The time for the distance was five minutes, 23 seconds, which is 3 2-5 seconds better than the previous world's record held by T. Battersby, of England, and 8 2-5 seconds faster than the American record held by Charles M. Daniels. Beaurepaire is at present competing in the English championships which began last week.

NAT EMERSON GETS BACK INTO FORM

Ex-Western Tennis Champion Defeats Swift Portland Player With Ease.

FAST PLAY ON TAPIS TODAY

Miss Hotchkiss Will Be Seen on Court — Local Young Women Making Hard Fight for Runner Up—Miss Fording to Fore.

That Nathaniel Emerson, of North Yakima, Wash., who in 1906 won the Western championship and who ranged seventh among America's best racqueters that year, will be the winner of the Oregon state tennis tournament, now in progress on the Irvington Club courts under the auspices of the Multnomah Club, was evidenced yesterday when he disposed of F. H. V. Andrews, one of Portland's ranking players, in straight sets.

The first set Andrews made Emerson extend himself, but in the second the local man was entirely outclassed and his opponent won 6-1.

Splendid progress has been made with the tournament, and this afternoon will see the semi-finals played and tomorrow afternoon will decide which of the players is to meet Brandt Wickersham in the challenge round.

Miss Leadbetter Wins.

Miss Lessie Leadbetter, who won the Irvington Club Spring handicap tournament, demonstrated yesterday that her game is improving rapidly when she defeated Miss Lilly Fox, one of the strongest women players in Portland. Though Miss Leadbetter won, she did so only after three hard sets had been played before she was the winner.

That Mrs. Andre Fouilhoux, last year's runnerup, has a splendid chance of again having that honor was shown by her decisive defeat of Miss Weidler, in which the younger woman had no possible chance. Miss Weidler didn't get a game during the two sets.

Miss Pitts, the champion woman player of British Columbia, gave a strong exhibition of tennis during her game with Mrs. W. I. Northrup, in which she won in straight sets. The final match in the women's department of the present tourney probably will result in a contest between Miss Pitts and Mrs. Fouilhoux, with a slight lead in favor of Mrs. Fouilhoux, who has apparently more endurance than the British Columbia girl.

Probably the best played and most prolonged fast match of the day was between Kirk Smith and A. D. Wakeman, which went to three long sets before a winner could be decided. Wakeman won the contest by taking the first and third sets. Both men were clever at the net, with the winner having the better of the argument by a slight lead.

Consolations Being Played.

The first round of the consolations was played off yesterday, when 12 matches were decided. The second round will be played this afternoon.

Miss Hotchkiss, National and Oregon woman's champion, and Nat Emerson will be seen in play today. Paired with Ralph Gorrill, a former California player, Miss Hotchkiss will meet Miss Fording, the four-time Irvington Club champion, and James Gilbert at 3 o'clock. This match is expected to prove one of the best of the tourney in the mixed doubles. Emerson will meet F. E. Harrigan, a ranking Portland player, in the men's singles this morning.

Miss Leadbetter and Miss Pitts will meet in the women's singles at 11 o'clock, as will Mrs. Fouilhoux and Miss Fording. One of these four will meet Miss Hotchkiss in the challenge round. Yesterday's scores were as follows:

TENNIS CRACKS ARE LOSERS

National and International Champions Defeated in Matches.

BROOKLINE, Mass., July 20.—A number of surprises marked the matches of the 20th annual Longwood Cricket Club tennis tournament and the Eastern doubles championship today.

In the latter event W. A. Larned, national champion in singles, and G. L. Wrenn, Jr., were defeated in straight sets by Beals C. Wright and Raymond D. Little. Then, as a climax of today, Little, international player and for years up among the leaders of the game in America, was put out of the singles by Dean Mathey, a Princeton schoolboy, in four sets.

Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, had all he could do to remain in the meet, losing the first two of his sets to C. E. Gardner, of New York, the result of his contest being 4-6, 4-6, 10-8, 6-0, 6-2.

OWNER DRIVES AND WINS

F. J. Jones, in Geers' Place, Takes Big Stake at Detroit.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 20.—The second day of the Grand Rapids harness race meet was a day of triumph for F. J. Jones, of Memphis, Tenn, principal owner of the Geers stable. He climbed into the sulky in place of the injured veteran and drove his own entries and The Abbe besides. He won the 2:12 trot for the $10,000 furniture manufacturers' stake with Dudie Archdale, for whom he paid $16,000 last week and also drove The Abbe to victory in the 2:16 pace.

Geers, disobeying the orders of his doctor, drove to the park and saw the horses he had trained come first under the wire. Because of Geers' injury, The Harvester was drawn from the 2:06 class trot. Oro won the race handily.

JOHNSON WINS FIRST ROUND

Court Rules for Negro in Diamond Ring Row With Little.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Jack Johnson, champion pugilist, outpointed George Little, his former manager, here in the first round of a legal encounter over the ownership of a $1200 diamond ring now worn by Johnson.

Municipal Judge Hume ruled at the request of Gustave Beerly, Johnson's attorney, that Little must file a specific statement of his claim.

"We want to know where, when, why and how he got it," said the attorney.

The court granted a continuance until August 20, at the request of Johnson's attorney.

PAVEMENT NOT TO BE CUT

Mayor Vetoes Ordinance to Open Newly Improved Eighth Street.

Mayor Simon again placed himself on record as strongly opposed to the indiscriminate cutting of hard-surface streets for the purpose of laying mains, when he vetoed yesterday an ordinance passed by the Council last week ordering a water pipe in Eighth street, from Gilsan to Hoyt streets.

"I find, upon investigation, that the street in which this water main is proposed to be constructed has recently been improved by laying stone blocks thereon," says the Mayor in his veto message, "and that such improvement was only completed July 10, 1910. I cannot give my assent to tearing up this street so soon after it has been improved."

Until Mayor Simon assumed the duties of office, streets were laid open for every trivial excuse in the calendar, but when he began his work he put a stop to it. His policy is to have all of the pipes laid ahead of the hard-surface streets and the Water Board is working in harmony with this plan.

SHOWERS ARE PREDICTED

Weather Man Promises Cooler Days for Portland Visitors.

For the special benefit of the thousands of visitors now in the city, Weather Observer Beals promises for today lower temperature and probably showers. Portland weather yesterday seemed a trifle warm on account of the smoky haze, but it was cool here in comparison with the weather experienced at many other points in the United States.

At Sacramento the maximum temperature was an even 100 degrees, while at Phoenix, Ariz., the mercury at one time reached 112 degrees. The maximum temperature in Portland was 80 degrees at 5 P. M. This mark was 11 degrees cooler than the day previous, but this fact was not very noticeable, because of the greater humidity, which was 42 per cent, as against 26 per cent during the higher temperature Tuesday.

JUDGE GRAHAM IS PORTLAND GUEST

League President Will Look Into Alleged Charge of Attempted Bribery.

LITTLE COMMENT IS MADE

Ball Magnate Is Inclined to Censure Gamblers Rather Than Pitcher Who Is Said to Have Been Approached Sunday.

Thomas F. Graham, president of the Pacific Coast League, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived in Portland yesterday morning. He is registered at the Oregon Hotel. Judge Graham, on this trip, is combining business with pleasure, for he is enjoying a long-delayed vacation into the Northern states, which he says he promised himself several years ago.

This year, as he is the chief executive of the Pacific Coast League, he decided to make Oregon and Washington before he returns south, and the short time he has been in Portland causes him to marvel at the growth of the city, for he has not been here since the Lewis and Clark fair of 1905.

"Portland is a remarkable city, s i Judge Graham. "I have never seen a community that has attained the metropolitan aspect of Portland in such a short time unless it be the reconstructed San Francisco. In addition to being one of the best home towns in the country, and a city we.l able to boast of its beautiful environments, Portland is up-to-date in every respect, and is one of the best baseball cities in the world.

Ball Patronage Pleases.

"I am especially pleased to see the big turnout of fans now patronizing the game here, for it is one of the best boosts for a city that I can imagine. Portland has always been a favorite city with me, and I am pleased to be here to reiterate my opinion of this metropolis of Oregon."

When asked whether or not he had investigated the rumor of attempted bribery in Sunday's game, Judge Graham admitted that he had been advised of the affair, but as far as having learned anything definite about the matter he would not discuss the situation, other than to say that the affair was serious enough to warrant a thorough investigation, and that he would take the matter up on an extended basis with Manager Wolverton as soon as he could do so.

Trip to Be Made to Spokane.

"Baseball cannot stand for any such tactics as have been used by the supposed sports implicated in last Sunday's deal," he said. "I do not believe that Pitcher Willis or any other pitcher in the league would do anything in this line, but this matter will be solved before many days are gone. I am convinced that Willis merely listened to the talk of these cheap sports, for anyone who would bribe a baseball pitcher is a cheap skate, and I am firmly convinced that he would not sell out."

Judge Graham will remain in Portland until Saturday or Sunday and on one of these days he will leave for the north, accompanied by Representative McCredie, the two magnates going to Seattle and Spokane to look over the baseball situation.

A Landscape Architect's Opinion

I have never seen a more unique or exquisite site for a country home, and do not believe it can be matched near Portland. Such a picture of mountain, forest and rushing rivers would be a daily delight. That this bit of wilderness should be discovered within easy auto distance of Portland seems incredible.

W. F. Chase

Mr. Chase is well known in Portland through his work here, and also in connection with the Park System of the Harriman Lines in Oregon.

My property has 40 acres, located at the junction of the Bull Run and Sandy Rivers, the major part a level plateau 300 feet above the rivers. It is 22 miles from the center of Portland, good roads for auto or team, daily stage from Gresham. 2 acres bearing orchard, berries of every kind in profusion, very large garden. Well and spring. 6-room bungalow and 2-room cottage for help. Several acres young Yellow Newtowns—magnificent fruit land.

AS AN INVESTMENT.

Splendid for subdivision into acreage tracts for Summer homes. Mt. Hood Railway grade crosses one corner. 2 beautiful groves of large trees.

PRICE IS $6000—HALF CASH.
