

CRIPPEN'S TRAIL FOUND IN FRANCE

Parisian Detectives Pick Up Clew Leading to Spanish Frontier.

THEORIES HELD DIFFER

Belief Is Fugitive May Be Harbored in Tiny Republic Noted as Refuge for Criminals—Bourges Suicide Is Unidentified.

PARIS, July 21.—The police at Vernets-les-Bains, the little French watering place at the foot of the Pyrenees Mountains, are positive that Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, widely sought by the London police, was in their city last Sunday, and a vigorous search is being made for the fugitive.

The procureur at Vernets-les-Bains telegraphed today to the director of the Surete General at Paris confirming the identity of the man who arrived there under the name of Tarbout on Sunday as Dr. Crippen.

The procureur added that he believed Crippen had crossed the French frontier into Spain.

The French detective department in Paris is inclined to accept the procureur's view as to the identity of Crippen, but is in doubt whether he crossed the Spanish frontier at Vernets-les-Bains, as all the positive information in the possession of the police indicates that he left the train before it reached Mont Louis, to which point he is said to have taken passage en route to Spain.

Andorra May Harbor Fugitive.

The suspect, according to the belief of the authorities here, instead of making for Spain, is headed for Andorra, the little and almost forgotten republic of 8000 shepherd inhabitants, nestling in the foothills of the Pyrenees. Once in this country, it is said, extradition would be difficult if not impossible. Andorra, which is under the normal suzerainty of the President of France and the Bishop of Urgel, has sometimes served as refuge for persons who have committed crimes.

M. Sebille, head of the research department of the police, who is directing the search in France for Dr. Crippen and his typist, Ethel Clara Leneve, who is supposed to have left London in his company, opposes the theory that the woman who killed herself at Bourges July 13 was Miss Leneve.

Typist Did Not Speak French.

He points out that the letter left by the suicide was written in French, a language Miss Leneve is said not to understand. Furthermore, the typist's features were those of a person of Slavonic type and M. Sebille believes she was a Nihilist. Photographs of the suicide have not, however, as yet been compared with those of Miss Leneve.

Before shooting herself the young woman had written a note which read as follows:

"I request that my identity be not sought. The cause of my suicide is known to me alone. I ask to be allowed to rest tranquilly in my tomb.

"I am a foreigner. I leave 100 francs to defray my funeral expenses. The note concluded.

"Life to me, alas, appeared to be unsmiling."

Relations Are Severed

NEW YORK, July 21.—President Lovett, of the Union and Southern Pacific Railways, was asked today concerning the report that the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, the Japanese Steamship Company, would sever its relations with the Harriman roads, and he replied:

"I must decline to discuss the matter."

It was further reported that the Toyo Kisen Kaisha would ally itself with the new Western Pacific Railroad.

Missing Papa Wanted

Child Writes to Captain Moore to Send Father to Her.

Because her grandmother was dead, her grandfather lonely and her father missing, little Maude Streeter, living in Spokane, wrote to Captain of Detectives Moore, in this city, with sublime confidence that at a word the officer would find her father and send him back to the disconsolate family. Her letter, which was received yesterday, says:

"Dear Sir: I am going to send you a description of papa. He is 52 inches tall, black hair mixed with gray, dark blue eyes, left eye crossed, three small-pox pits on right side of his nose, wears glasses, dark mustache mixed with gray, 29 years old.

"His name is O. L. Streeter. Grandpa passed out March 21. Grandpa Streeter would like to hear from him. Please let me know if he is in Portland. He was a traveling man.

"His daughter,

"MAUDE M. STREETER."

The child gave her address as 211 South Hogan street.

Captain Moore is deeply interested in the case and will make an effort to find the man, though there is but a remote probability that he is in this city.

ARMENIAN REPULSED WHEN TRYING TO SEE ROOSEVELT.

Rev. George Nathaniel Seeks $5000 Subscription to Church, but Is Hurried Away.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 21.—In response to a telephone message from Sagamore Hill today, Charles Townsend, constable of Oyster Bay, hurried to President Roosevelt's home in an automobile and took in charge Rev. George Nathaniel, an Armenian priest, about 60 years old. When the constable arrived at Sagamore Hill he found Noah Seaman, superintendent of Colonel Roosevelt's estate, and a negro servant, guarding the train. The constable and Seaman brought the man back to Oyster Bay and placed him on a train for New York. Mr. Nathaniel said he lived at 302 Locust street, Philadelphia, and that he was an archdeacon of the Armenian Protestant Church. He wanted Mr. Roosevelt to subscribe $5000 for a hospital in the Holy Land. He tried in vain to see Colonel Roosevelt at the Outlook office last Tuesday and yesterday, came to Oyster Bay. Today he walked all the way to Sagamore Hill and reached Colonel Roosevelt's home without being stopped. He rang the doorbell, but his speech and appearance aroused the suspicion of the butler, who refused to let him see the Colonel.

Mr. Nathaniel said after he was on the train that he would make another effort to see Colonel Roosevelt in New York tomorrow.
