

STATE ASSEMBLY CONCLUDES WORK

Non-Partisan Judiciary Plan Gets Blow.

ENTIRE TICKET COMPLETED

Four Recommendations for Supreme Bench Are Made.

GREETING SENT TO TAFT

As Adjournment Is Taken, Delegates Feel Sure That Rehabilitation of Party in Oregon Is Firmly Got Under Way.

State officers recommended yesterday by Republican assembly.

Justices Supreme Court (six-year term)—F. A. Moore, of Columbia (present incumbent), George H. Burnett, of Marion.

Justices Supreme Court (four-year term)—Wallace McCamant, of Multnomah; Thomas A. McBride, Clackamas (present incumbent).

Railroad Commissioner (at large)—Frank J. Miller, of Linn.

State Engineer—John H. Lewis, of Multnomah (present incumbent).

Commissioner of Labor Statistics—O. P. Hoff, of Multnomah (present incumbent).

Delegates to the Republican State Assembly finished their work early yesterday afternoon, after an arduous and disorderly session, and adjourned with three hearty cheers for the party. Harmony prevailed for the most part through the closing hours and the concourse of delegates left the Armory firm in the belief that rehabilitation of party had been got firmly under way.

Completion of the state ticket, ratification of the various district recommendations and consideration of the party program consumed the session. Choice of men for the remaining places was made expeditiously, although balloting was required in most cases.

A firm foot was set by the assembly on the movement for the so-called non-partisan judiciary. The delegates recommended four Republicans for the Supreme Bench. Circuit Judge George H. Burnett, of Marion County, and Supreme Justice F. A. Moore, from Columbia, were named for the six-year terms, the selection being unanimous and by acclamation. Wallace McCamant, of Multnomah, and Supreme Justice Thomas A. McBride, of Clackamas, were recommended for the four-year terms. J. C. Fullerton, of Douglas, was brought before the assembly, but when the ballots began coming in with a strong lead for McCamant and McBride, Fullerton withdrew. The choice, on Mr. Fullerton's recommendation, was made unanimous.

Sentiment Is Divided.

In the selection of a Railroad Commissioner sentiment was fairly well divided between Frank J. Miller, of Linn County, and E. C. Kirkpatrick, of Polk, the first ballot, however, giving the Linn County man a bare majority. The vote was 63 for Miller and 57 for Kirkpatrick.

John H. Lewis, from Multnomah, had things all his own way in the matter of the recommendation of the State Engineer. Attention was called to the fact that Mr. Lewis has held the place with credit ever since its creation. His selection was made by acclamation.

Fenumbra Kelly, of Multnomah, withdrew from the contest for Commissioner of Labor Statistics even while there seemed an excellent chance of his winning over O. P. Hoff, present incumbent. Mr. Kelly, an 11th-hour nominee, had the whole Multnomah delegation behind him, and when the roll call of counties began, he was getting his share when he arose suddenly and withdrew for Mr. Hoff, and in the interest of harmony. It was his view that the place possibly should go to someone outside Multnomah County. At least he regarded such a selection as in the best interests of the party and explained that it was no time to consider personal ambitions.

Greetings Sent to Taft.

While the judicial and water districts were holding separate meetings to determine on recommendations for the Circuit Bench and Water Commissioners, it was decided by the assembly to send its greetings to President Taft. The following telegram was drafted and dispatched to Mr. Taft's Summer home at Beverly, Mass.:

"Hon. William H. Taft, Beverly, Mass.—The Republicans of Oregon in assembly convened send greetings and indorsement of your Administration. With a reunited, rejuvenated Republican organization in this state, we will continue to rally to your standard as our chosen leader. (Signed)

"W. C. BRISTOL, Chairman."

The assembly also paid its respects to Harvey W. Scott, a committee being selected to wait on Mr. Scott at his home, where he is ill, and express the condolence of the assembly upon his ill-health, together with sincere best wishes for his early recovery and appreciation of his endeavors in behalf of the Republican party. W. C. Bristol and S. B. Hugton were named as a committee of two to carry out the will of the assembly in this respect.

GEMS DISAPPEAR IN FLURRY OVER BABE

FAMILY SAYS DIAMONDS WORTH $1400 WERE STOLEN.

Jewels Left in Secret Place When Household Hurries to Daughter, But They Are Gone, Later.

A new-born babe is held indirectly responsible for the mysterious disappearance of $1400 worth of diamonds from the home of Maurice Marx, 746 Kearney street, Thursday afternoon. The jewels were the property of Mrs. Marx and consisted of two diamond rings with the aggregate appraisal of $900 and two earrings valued at $500.

Members of the Marx household contend that the precious stones were stolen during the period of excitement that prevailed about their home following the report that Mrs. S. H. Goldstein, a daughter, had given birth to a bounding baby boy. The police, however, are of the conviction that the diamonds were mislaid.

Since the report of the supposed theft of the jewelry was received early Thursday afternoon, Detective Sergeant Day and Hyde have made a tireless effort to solve the mystery of the disappearance of the jewels. Their investigation has thrown little, if any, light on the case.

The jewels were invariably kept in a small chamois sack secreted in Mrs. Marx's dresser drawer. As was her custom, she deposited the jewels in the sack the last time she had worn them last Tuesday. Thursday afternoon, during the time a chiropodist was paying a professional visit at the Marx home, the news was received that Mrs. Goldstein, a daughter residing in the Beryl Apartments, 695 Lovejoy street, had become the mother of her first-born. The news created unbounded excitement and commotion in the Marx home. It continued to such a degree that the chiropodist was compelled to abandon his treatment of the feet of a younger daughter in the home, who joined Mrs. Marx and another daughter in a visit to the mother and babe. The foot specialist was shown out by a servant, after Mrs. Marx and her daughter had departed.

When Mrs. Marx returned home later, she had occasion to look in the dresser drawer in which she kept the jewels. The small chamois sack and diamonds were missing.

ANGRY STEER CHARGES MAN

Horse Is Killed, but Rider Escapes When Dogs Come to Rescue.

EUGENE, Or., July 22.—(Special.)—Two dogs saved the life of Hugh Hampton, a local cattle buyer, when scenes were enacted here this morning not unlike those in a Mexican bull fight.

Hampton roped a monster steer which had broken from its harness, and before horse and rider could get out of the way the maddened animal charged upon them. One horn of the steer plunged into the heart of the horse and felled Hampton to the ground.

Two cattle dogs then gave their attention to the steer until Hampton could make for a place of safety. Hampton later returned and captured the thoroughly enraged steer.

CUMMINS BLAMES TARIFF REVISERS

Pledge Violated, Says Iowa Senator.

SOCIALISM BECOMES MENACE

Growth Fostered by Cannon and Aldrich, Speaker Says.

ONE REMEDY SUGGESTED

Rule Should Permit Amendment of Single Schedule Without Requiring Opening of Whole Issue, Is Declaration.

COUNCIL GROVE, Kan., July 22.—Senator Cummins, of Iowa, in a speech before a Chautauqua audience here tonight asserted that the pledge of the Republican National platform for a revision of the tariff was not fulfilled, and that Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon and the others who took the lead in framing the tariff bill had "never attempted and never intended to keep the pledge."

Mr. Cummins spoke in the district of one of the Kansas "regular Representatives, James Miller, to give this message. He said that Cannon and Aldrich and other stand-pat leaders were driving the Nation into socialism or co-operative control and away from the individual or competitive theory.

Issue Not Local.

"I am an exponent of the progressive Republican idea," he said. "I believe the Republican party can be made the most progressive party on earth; the one that does things for the good of the whole country. But the special interest man must be eliminated. That is my sermon. That is what I advocate and, if it hurts any of my audience, it does not bother me. For ten years I fought for progress in Iowa and we have won and are winning. This is not a local matter at all, but one covering all this country and affecting other countries.

"Our forefathers organized this Government on the broad principle that individual effort was better than the co-operative or collective theory of government; that the work of the individual was of more importance and better for the country than the development of the socialist or monopolistic theory of government and industry.

Competition Is Essential.

"It is the competitive against the socialist theory of government. Competition in the individual or industry is the only safeguard against avarice and greed.

"Speaker Cannon and Senator Aldrich are driving the country into a socialist form of government and industry by promoting the cause of monopolies. They are unwilling to take measures to prevent the rapidly-growing tendency toward monopoly or to disintegrate and destroy the monopolies already in existence, whereby the prices of commodities are fixed, not by the usual laws of trade but by the will of a single man or group of men. Monopoly does not mean a single factory with absolute control of one article, but a combination of factories making the same article whereby the prices are

TWO-EXPOSITION PROJECT BOBS UP

PANAMA FAIR MAY BE HELD IN RIVAL CITIES SAME YEAR.

Idea Is for Summer Show at San Francisco and Winter One in New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(Special.)—The idea persists that the Taft Administration will favor two Panama expositions, as was originally suggested by the President at the California dinner, and it is regarded possible that Congress will extend desired authorization to both San Francisco and New Orleans if they make satisfactory subscription showings.

The objection to attempting to conduct two great fairs at the same time is met with the suggestion that the Pacific metropolises should have its exposition in the Summer and New Orleans in the Winter. Summer being the travel and vacation season, is of course the preferable time to give an exposition. The blistering Southern Mississippi weather of these months would make it impossible, or at least very undesirable, to hold the fair then.

Those favoring a year-round show divided between the two cities urge that better exhibits will be made, and believe that President Taft and Congress would regard it favorably.

GRASSHOPPER PEST IS HEADED NORTH

SWARMS OF BLACK INSECTS ARE DEVOURING CROPS.

From North Dakota They Cross Into Manitoba, Stripping Off All Green Things as They Go.

GRETNA, Man., July 22.—(Special.)—The black grasshopper or black locust, the greatest pest that has ever attacked the crops of Manitoba and the northern states, has arrived in swarms, and the injurious insects are headed north, having come from Dakota, where they have already done great damage to the grain crops and the garden stuff.

The black grasshoppers are to be seen in great numbers and are attacking the crops showing a special fondness for cabbage. Where they do not find succulent garden forage, they attack the standing grain and strip the straw bare in an incredibly short time.

"Tim" O'Brien, the veteran customs collector at Neche, N. D., recalls that in the years 1871 to 1874 the black grasshopper was a terrible pest, stripping the whole country bare and eating the bark off the poplar trees when they had cleaned everything else green off the face of the earth. They came suddenly after a long dry spell in 1871 and at times were in such swarms that their flight obscured the light of the sun.

SLAKES MAROON AUTOIST

Car Breaks Down and Owner Dare Not Get Out to Fix It.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., July 22.—(Special.)—Walter McCallum, of Medford, while returning home across the "desert" in his auto yesterday, was held captive by a bunch of rattlesnakes. About 12 miles north of here, the steering gear went out of commission, and when Mr. McCallum climbed out to investigate, a chorus of rattles made him climb hastily back into the car.

For four hours he perched on the top-most part of the back seat, wondering how he was going to get home. The snakes finally retired, and Mr. McCallum pursued his way, after ascertaining that there were no more rattlers under the car and fixing the steering gear.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 22.—(Special.)—That a real estate dealer has no right to misrepresent property or tell his customer that it is twice as large as it really is, was decided by a jury which today returned a verdict for $1500 for the plaintiff.

John Eckbert brought suit against F. A. Rugg and wife and G. S. Smith for $2500 damages or the difference between the price he paid for certain real estate and the price it was really worth. Eckbert had been misled by the real estate dealer, Smith, that there were 40 acres of land in good cultivation, whereas there were only 19 acres in cultivation.

HEAD OF SCHOOL PLACED ON TRIAL

Girl Pupil Insists He Tried to Hug Her.

ACCUSER SPEAKS RIGHT OUT

Attempts of Attorneys to Confuse Her Fail.

AUDIENCE WOULD CHEER

Sympathies at Beginning of Hearing Are With Dr. Vanliew, Defendant, Who Is President of Chico Normal School.

CHICO, Cal., July 22.—(Special.)—Without hesitation, showing no sign of weakening and making no contradictory statements, Miss Ada Clark for more than two hours this afternoon withstood a grilling examination at the hands of Attorneys A. M. Seymour and Archibald Yell in the investigation of her charges against Dr. C. Vanliew, president of the Chico Normal School. She told her story of how Dr. Vanliew endeavored to embrace her and how she repelled the attacks.

Story Is Substantiated.

The investigation began at 10 o'clock this morning and at 5 o'clock this afternoon an adjournment was taken, with Elmer Ranker, a former student, on the stand.

Miss Nona Lindley was the first witness this afternoon. Her testimony was only in substantiation of Miss Clark's story concerning the latter's appearance when emerging from Vanliew's office on the afternoon of the attempted hugging.

Professor Likes Liquor.

Elmer Ranker, the last witness, testified that he had seen Dr. Vanliew drink liquor in the Diamond Cafe many times. Asked if Vanliew was intoxicated, he said he did not know how much it required to fill Vanliew, but he had seen the normal president drink five or six glasses of beer.

In endeavoring to break down the prosecution's case, Vanliew's attorneys will tomorrow make an effort to unsettle Edward Hyatt, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. They allege bias and prejudice on the part of Hyatt.

Seymour and Yell made an effort to prove by Miss Clark that her charges were blackmail, but they apparently failed.

Girl Relates Story.

Miss Clark, a sister of Rev. J. Todd Clark, preferred the charges against Dr. Vanliew and was the first witness this morning. Relating the incidents which culminated in the charges against the head of the State Normal School, she said:

"When I came into Vanliew's office he was busy at the telephone. I had been absent on account of the sickness of a friend. I sat down on a window-sofa to wait until Dr. Vanliew was through. After he had signed my excuse he said he wished to speak to me. He said: 'You will be sad now that your friend is gone. I think I can sympathize with you so that you will not be lonely.'"

"Then he placed his arm around me and tried to draw me to him. I jumped up and said: 'I heard before that you were this kind of a man; now I know it.' Dr. Vanliew got real angry and said: 'How can you say that to me? I am president of the State Normal.'"

"Don't Get Angry," Says Vanliew.

"I told him the president of the State Normal is no better than anyone else. He said: 'Don't get angry; you must not blame me; because you are a very attractive young lady.' I told him that I did not think him fit to be president of the Normal, and that I would never attend again as long as he was there. I then went out of the door and met my friend Nona Lindley. She asked me what was the matter. I told her if she came outside I would tell her. We went outside and I told her of the incident, as I tell it now, and as I told it when the charges were preferred."

At the conclusion of the statement of Miss Clark, the committee took a recess until 1 o'clock.

President Vanliew's office was crowded both morning and afternoon with prominent men and women of the city, whose sympathies at least at the beginning of the hearing, were with Vanliew. At one time during the examination, in an effort to disqualify the State Superintendent of Instruction, Attorney Yell exclaimed: "There is no law to prevent you sitting on this board, but I hope to God that justice will yet prevail, you will be repaid for unfairness."

Applause Is Forbidden.

Applause started, but it was promptly subdued by Chairman Coggins, who said that no demonstration would be allowed from spectators.

Attorneys Seymour and Yell for Vanliew filed an affidavit asking that Superintendent Hyatt be disqualified from acting on the committee, alleging he is biased.
