MULTNOMAH DIRECTORS DEFER SELLING OF BONDS.

Temporary Quarters Will Be Ready Soon-Building Plans to Be Discussed Tonight.

While they had expected to open bids for the bond sale to raise funds for the erection of a new clubhouse today, the directors of the Multnomah Amathe directors of the Multhoman Ama-teur Athletic Club find that there are several important details yet to be completed before such action can be taken, and the opening of the sale has been postponed until Thursday morning. The directors have been kept busy The directors have been kept busy arranging these details, and the delay has been caused by the additional task of securing available present quarters. Negotiations have been virtually com-pleted for leasing the Macleay prop-erty at Fourteenth and Yamhill streets, and last night President Holt an-nounced that he thought the place would be ready for occupancy within a week or ten days. This will furnish the club members a temporary home where they may assemble in social gatherings. A special meeting of the directors a special meeting of the directors will be held tonight to discuss further the hullding plans, and to confer with the architects who are preparing plans for the proposed new clubhouse, and it is hoped to have all of these details well developed before the bonds are placed on sale, so that no delays will be experienced in getting the new clubbe experienced in getting the new club-house under way. As yet the building plans are somewhat indefinite, for many features have been proposed, and it will require some figuring to har-monize all of the ideas suggested.

With Colors Flying.

In a programme of exciting races yesterday, held on the Willamette River, under the auspices of the Oregon Yacht Club, the Sparrow was easily the best performer of the day and won the Vancouver cup. In the first race six boats were en-tered, being the Fore and Aft, Spar-row, Swallow, Dancing Sal, Terrior and Zephyr, and salled in a five and a half mile course. The Sparrow won out LONDON, July 24. - (Special.) - The most conspicuous honor that can be paid on this side to a living writer is to have an article devoted to criticism of his work in the "Quarterly Review." which has great literary traditions. This distinction has been deservedly won by Henry James. The appraiser of his quality as a writer is Morton Fullerton, who brings to the task a rare faculty for discriminating appre-clation. clattor

This critique is closely reasoned, and the critical apparatus employed is fully attuned to the subtle work Fullerton set out to accomplish. Henry James issues from the ordeal with flying col-

Such characters as Malsie Farange, Nanda Brookenham, Charlotte Stantand Maggie Verver are rightly singled out for praise.
"He has watched," continues the eminent critic, "the shock of America with Europe on all its battlefields—Venice, London, Paris, Rome and Geneva. All are parts of the great poem of the mingling of the races. He produces wondrously chromatic atmosphere. His report of the shifting phenomena within results necessarily in the ordered beauty of those complex renderings of life, his hovels of the iast 10 years." Kalama Team Wins by One Run.

The aliments below are the ones to which I devote my time and atten-tion and I know how to cure them, just as well as you know how to do the work you may follow; I seldom fail to cure any of my patients in less time than I promise, and I have never cured any one who had a return of the trouble for which I treated him.

roughle for which I treated him. Nervous Ailments — I get much praise and thanks from patients I cure of these troubles; from young men who are weak, nervous, dis-treased, embarrassed and worthless because they are not strong and vig-orous as they should be. You have to have such treatment as I give you — It is your fault if you don't let me cure you. Blood Poison, Skin Aliments-I will give you treatment that will in a few days cure every sign and symptom of your trouble. My treat-ment gets the poison out of the sys-tem instead of driving it in like other treatments. I cure blood pois-on and skin aliments so they can-not come back. Varicose Veins Are Cured-My one-treatment cure is what you should have and what you will have to have to be cured right. Only one visit is required. You suffer no pain nor trouble. All signs disap-pear in a few days.

Kidney, Bladder and Kindred All-ments are scientifically cured by me. My methods immediately bene-fit you and the majority of cases I cure come from other specialists who failed.

Ples-I can cure you so quickly and easily that you will be sur-prised. I will give you just the re-suit and cure you are looking for without a surgical operation. Contracted Ailments-My treat-ment stops every symptom and cures in a few days. It is scientific-that's the only sure way to be cured.
