Stow Says Aldrich Insisted Tariff Rise Manufacturers Didn't Seek.

MARKET BOOM REASON

Senator Declares Rhode Island Man Drove Through Increase Solely for Benefit of Gamblers — Method Cause.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 25.—In an address here tonight United States Senator J. L. Bristow declared that United States Senator Aldrich forced an increase in the cotton tariff schedules on the cotton manufacturers in this country were not asking it. Senator Bristow charged the increase was to boom the stock market. "It is interesting to know," declared Senator Bristow, "why Senator Aldrich insisted upon increasing cotton duties on the mill-owners and manufacturers testified in the hearings before the committee that they were not asked for it. It is interesting to know that the year 1909 furnishes the reason."
"These increases were not made for protection of any legitimate manufacturing enterprise in the United States, but to boom the stock market.
Last year there were issued $30,000,000 of additional cotton and woolen stocks, 4,000,000 that had been previously authorized but not issued and $26,000,000 of new stocks.

Stocks Find Market.
"How much of this stock represent-actual investment? It is not clear, it under the impression that these increased duties on cotton goods and the maintenance of the excessive duty on woolens would give a temporary impetus to the business, these stocks found a market. So these increases, therefore, driven through by Senator Aldrich, were in the interests of the stock gamblers and speculators and not in the interests of legitimate manufacturing enterprises.
"The duty on cotton goods, valued at more than 7 cents per square yard, was increased on an average of 20 to 25 per cent in the face of the testimony of T. P. Lippitt, representative of the "Cotton Manufacturers Association of New England," before the ways and means committee that the cotton manufacturers did not want any increased schedule.

No Change Desired.
"All they asked was that the duties not be reduced, but remain the same." In testimony Mr. Lippitt said:
"Well, I am not appearing here to ask for an increase in the duties on the cloth clauses of the cotton schedule.
I think that there are important considerations going under them, the importations are not so large that we feel justified in asking that the duties be increased, but we would not like to see them decreased, as we believe that any decrease would certainly result in very much larger importations and a great deal more of our cotton being manufactured abroad and shipped back as finished goods."
Continuing Senator Bristow said:
"This method of tariff legislation is almost as reprehensible as the increase in the duties on lead and rubber."

Figures Are Quoted.
"The woolen schedules, declared indefensible by President Taft in his celebrated Winona speech, carried on the ordinary woolen fabrics of ladies' dress goods, duties ranging from 15 to 15 per cent; on woolen blankets, from 118 to 165 per cent, and on other woolen clothes and fabrics usually every family, duties usually as extravagant. No attempt was made to ascertain the difference in the cost of production on these fabrics at home and abroad and imperative demand was made by Senator Aldrich that the woolen schedule not be touched, declaring it to be the keystone of the protective arch." Fred S. Jackson, Attorney-General of Kansas, and "progressive" candidate for Congress against Congressman J. S. N.
Miller, discussed Mr. Miller's efforts to secure temperance legislation.
Mr. Jackson charged that Miller was a supporter of Speaker Cannon and that Cannon was not in sympathy with the efforts of the temperance people of the country.

Tombs Too Hot for Comfort.

"It was intended to have my client come forward at the proper time," said the attorney, "to take his medicine; but Wider objected to being locked up in the Tombs this hot weather when he might be unable to get bail. That was his only reason for keeping out of of the way."
On the second count Ginsberg spoke with emphasis. "There was a gentleman's agreement that the loss of the securities was not to be made public at this time," he declared.
"The plan was to restore them without loss to the bank in the Fall, but instead of carrying out the agreement the police have been put on the case and I have been dogged by detectives.
"I want to say it was not Inspector Markowski who discovered the loss.
He knew nothing of it, and anyone else in the bank until my client confessed."

Brokers Names Withheld.

It was known yesterday that the stolen bonds had been hypothecated with brokers and that the bank knew where they were. The names of these brokers are still withheld, but today the list of possibilities narrowed down to two well-known houses.
"We shall institute suits to recover from Wall street firms the securities they obtained from Wider," said Inspector Markowski. "They must have known that he did not own them and they ought to have known he stole them."

The Russo-Chinese Bank is credited in Wall street with a capital of $15,000,000; but it could not be learned today what assets or capital are credited to the branch in this city.
According to a description of the missing man, which has been sent broadcast, Erwin Wider is about 32 years old, 5 feet 5 inches in height, weighs about 135 pounds, and is of swarthy complexion, with a small, black mustache, curled at the ends. He wears rimless nose glasses, talks with a German accent, and is timid in ad-

It is generally conceded that the platform adopted by tomorrow's convention will pledge the party in the state to the county option idea, but it is understood to be the hope of those in opposition to secure concessions in the wording of the plank.
The indorsing of "insurgency" not only by the election of Congressman of the convention, but also by a strong declaration in the resolutions adopted, is said to be planned by the anti-Cannon partisans.

Beatrice Trumbull Says She Is
"Lucky" Baldwin's Daughter.

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—The initial effort of 16-year-old Beatrice Anita Trumbull, or Beatrice Anita Baldwin, as she prefers to be known, to secure a one-third share of the $30,000,000 estate of "Lucky" Baldwin, began in the Superior Court here today when she filed her petition for appointment of a guardian.
After hearing evidence submitted by the girl and her mother, Mrs. William G.
Trumbull of Brookline, Mass., to the effect that Baldwin was the father of Miss Trumbull, the court appointed Leo J. McGuire and guardian properties, bond at $500. The court stated that, if the Research is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered. Betanaphthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter, and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter per se, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair.
Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerin acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.
Rexall Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of these ingredients, which are compounded in a peculiar form, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair, providing of course there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.
We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Rexall Hair Tonic. If it does not remove dandruff and promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. This guarantee is printed on every package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 93 out of 100 cases where put to a practical test.
Rexall Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from anything else we know of, for the purpose for which it is recommended. We urge you to try it at our entire risk. Certainly we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 50

GARFIELD HAS NO
FIGHT WITH TAFT

Ex-Secretary of Interior Says
Ohio "Progressives" Not Seeking Quarrel.

PLATFORM NOW WORRIES

Arrival of Late President's Son at Columbus Previous to Convention Fails to Reveal Probable Candidate for Governor.

COLUMBUS, O., July 25.—The arrival at the capital tonight of James R.
Garfield, leader of the "progressives" in the Ohio Republican convention, brought no illumination as to the candidate who will be nominated Wednesday to oppose Judson Harmon for Governor.

Mr. Garfield declined to talk about the Governorship at all.
"I am interested in the platform first," he said. "The Governorship comes second."

No Disposition to Quarrel.

He did announce, however, that the fight he will make for the adoption of a platform more radical than the other leaders have suggested does not mean in any sense an assault upon the President. He declared there was no disposition by the wing of the party he represented in Ohio to quarrel with the White House.

In reference to the expected presentation of his own name as a candidate for Governor, he merely commented that there are "some platforms on which a man could not consent to run."

Mr. Garfield will be represented upon the resolutions committee, which will frame the platform tomorrow night.
It is uncertain whether the ex-Secretary of the Interior, who is not a delegate to the convention, will appear before the committee in person.

Sentiment of All Unknown.

Despite numerous efforts the leaders of the "regular" wing of the party have not yet arrived at an agreement on a candidate for Governor, partly because there is no means of learning, they say, the sentiment of the rank and file of the delegates.

With the exception of George S. Cox, of Cincinnati, the leaders, State Chairman Ellis and Chairman Walter Brown, of Toledo delegation, were unanimous in declaring that it was still any man's fight.

Prohibition Opens War.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—Oliver M. Stewart, of Chicago, the only prohibition member of the 43d Assembly of Illinois, will attempt to unite all the churches of Vancouver against the saloon. He will speak in the Christian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock; in the City Park at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and at the Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Baldwin millions was borne out, a much larger bond than the one named would be required later.

The girl testified that she was born in Los Angeles, December 7, 1902, which evidence was corroborated by her mother.
The latter was formerly Lillian Ashley, and the contention of Miss Trumbull is that she was the issue of a marriage between Baldwin and her mother, the marriage afterwards being declared void.

"LAWSON"

perfection of piano making

As in the automobile industry, the last decade has witnessed astonishing revolutions and evolutions in the art of piano-making—yes, in even the last two years wonderful advancements have been made, chief among which has been the achievement of the highest attainment yet in touch, tone and finish—the Lawson Piano.

The Lawson Piano, by virtue of excellence and many important improvements and without any purchased commendations and publicity, has stepped into fame almost instantaneously. It is the "last word" in piano perfection. The Lawson Piano is the product mainly of that genius, Charles B. Lawson, who has concentrated in its construction the best of a life-long experience in the making of high-grade pianos. Mr. Lawson entered this line of work over a third of a century ago. He soon became a partner and vice-president of the Weber Piano Company, and it was under his practical manufacturing guidance that the pianos of that name attained that high and enviable degree of excellence in tone and general qualities for which they were noted a few years ago.

Mr. Lawson recently resigned from this connection for the purpose of producing under his own name this unquestionably most superior instrument, the Lawson Piano, which has in every way met the most critical and exacting musicianship of the nation.

For its unusually sweet and pure singing quality and volume of tone, its elegance in finish and design, its responsiveness of touch, and its thorough workmanship—the Lawson Piano is the ideal.

In securing the exclusive factory representation of the Lawson Piano for the West, Eilers Music House has added a piano of utmost distinction to their already distinctive line of forty manufacturers, whereby every music lover's desire can here be satisfied with certainty. We exhibit the Lawson Piano in various styles, whose established value is from $500 to $1200, purchasable on convenient terms. We shall be most pleased to have you inspect same.

REPLIES ARE FILED

Negative Arguments Made to Initiative Petitions.

POWER LEAGUE ANSWERED

People's Inspection of Government Would Be Costly, It Is Figured, and There Is No Guarantee as to Efficiency of Inspectors.

SALEM, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—A large number of negative arguments against initiative and referendum petitions piled up in the office of the Secretary of State today. The cost of printing the arguments alone, according to the cash received with the originals, amounts to $4815. This is the last day for filing arguments.

Arguments were received from E. W.
McComas, of Pendleton, and 14 other taxpayers from various parts of the state against two measures submitted by the People's Power League. One of these is against the proposed selection of People's Inspectors of Government and the publication of an Official Gazette. It is argued that such a plan would cost the taxpayers of the state $100,000 a year, that the greater number of the copies of the Gazette would be thrown away and that at the present time a competent censorship is kept on public affairs by the newspapers of the state. It is argued further that under the conditions proposed two of the inspectors would be from the same political party and consequently the appointments would not be non-partisan. It is asserted there is no guarantee that the inspectors would be more honest than the public officials themselves, and objection is made to having the State Grange, State Federation of Labor and the Commercial Clubs of the state name the first set of inspectors, as is provided in the measure.

Argument is submitted by the same men against the measure covering delegates to National conventions. The argument is that it is unfair for the public to pay for junketing trips of representatives of political parties, that the measure recognizes only Republicans and Democrats, and, if approved, it would cause much confusion, as it stipulates that during Presidential election years the time of the primaries should be changed from September to April. It is also stated that there is no certainty the National committees of the parties would seat delegates so selected, as these committees generally make their own rules in regard to the selection of delegations.
The Rogue River Fishermen's Union filed an argument protesting against the measure to prohibit salmon fishing in the Rogue River. The union says salmon in the river are not diminishing, that the laws have been well enforced along the stream and that a revenue of $20,000 annually is taken by the salmon fishers at Grants Pass.

Arguments were filed against the annexation of both Clackamas and Washington counties to Multnomah. In the Washington County protest it is contended that the change would cause great confusion and expense in transferring the records and that no provision is made for such transfer or for the collection of taxes. Annexation would divide the Fifth Judicial district and would put the county line but 4.5 miles from the Courthouse of Washington County in Hillsboro.
In the Clackamas County protest, filed by Tom P. Randall, president of the Oregon City Commercial Club, it is asserted that an expense of $100,000 would be incurred in transcribing official records, most of which would have to be paid by the people of Multnomah County. It is also argued that annexation of Washington and Clackamas counties to Multi-nomah would give Multnomah County sufficient representation in the Legislature to dictate to all other counties of the state.
The People's Power League filed an argument against the calling of a constitutional convention, terming it unwise and dangerous and stating it would require a number of special elections at a large expense. In the latter part of this argument, a number of remarks are made concerning proportional representation and urging that it receive the favor of the people.
