FRUIT MARKET HEAVILY STOCKED Large Supply of Poor Grade Tends to Weaken Prices.

There was a good demand yesterday for fruit and vegetables of good quality, but fruit and vegetables of good quality, but the street was overloaded with poor stock and this had a depressing effect on prices of all grades. The best cantaloupes sold at $2,60 per crate, but inferior lots went as low as $1. Watermelons ranged from 60 cents to $1 per hundred pounds. The best Efberta peaches were quoted firm without change in price. A great many small Hales are still coming from the Dalles and Ashland, but the time for this variety is about ended. Tomatoes were lower at 65,675c for two-tokses and 900 $1 for hugs. Choumbers were very pleatiful and offered at 50,660 cents a box. Green corn dragsed at 25 cents a dozen.

Hops, Wool, Hides, Etc. HOPS-1909 crop, Sigl2c; according to uality; elds, nominal; 1910 contracts, 1349 Offerings Are on a Larger Scale and First Prices Are Not Repeated. There was not as much firmness in the country wheat market yesterday as on the iwo preceding days. Several lots of various shae of new crop bluestern were offered to buyers at Walls Walls as 90 cents, but there were no inkers at the price. Desain but there were no inkers at the price. Desain on large lots of new bluestern. It is not likely that the sensational opening prices will be repeated. Furs.
