Relatives of Martha Metcalf Say Money Is Hers, Felix's Tribesmen Hold She Merely Carried It for -Two Claims In.

dered by Bob Felix, was picked up from a pool of blood by Dr. Clausins, the agency physician, he found a purse containing $150 secreted in her cornet. Now the purse has disappeared with its contents and trouble is expected. The Metcalf woman was shot by Bob Felix, with whom she had been living. Now the members of the tribe to which Bob Felix belonged say that the woman carried Bob's money. Martha's rela-tives, members of another tribe, say the money was Martha's own and de-manded it. The disappearance of the money has put a phase on the situation which is at least disquieting. The only thing known is that the money was stolen from the corpse and the thief, whoever he or she may be, is keeping quiet.

wheever he or she may be, is keeping ould. There was but one witness of the tragedy of Saturday. This was Mrs. John Spencer, the wife of one of the victims. At the inquest Mrs. Spencer told that Felix and Mrs. Metcalf drove over with some baskets. Spencer, who had been paying attentions to Mrs. Metcalf, had been drinking all night, as had Mrs. Spencer. The visitors stayed about half an hour, but the Metcalf woman did not want to return with Felix, having sparently been cap-tivated by the bibulous Spencer. When the gate was reached Spencer took the baskets out of Bob's wagon after Mrs. Metcalf had said she would stay. Felix at once demanded that Spencer put the baskets back in the wagon, but the intoxicated man paid no attention to him, whereupon Felix drew a .38-callber revolver and shot him through the head, killing him instantly. "You kill a man for nothing." whereupon Felix turned his revolver upon her and fired twice, both bullets taking effect, the second piercing her heart. As Felix turned to shoot Mrs. Spencer, she says she pleaded with him, saying: "Don't shoot ms. Bob. I'm your friend." At that, she says, he drove off to his camp a mile away, where he shot himself through the head. Mrs. Spencer quickly staggered to the agency in an intoxicated condition and told of the killing. At first she was not believed, but it was not long before other Indians brought in an account of the tragedy. Coroner Carter soon arrived on the scene and held an

Before May 1, 1907, the ferry rate for foot passengers crossing the Columbia River to Hayden Island on the ferry owned by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company was 5 cents. The County Commissioners, A. A. Quarn-berg, Robert Lowe and J. C. Eddings, at that time reduced the entire traffic sheet, from six-horse teams down to foot passengers. Foot passengers were given a rate of 3 cents one way or 5 cents round trip, on the ferry. Electric Line Refuses Demands of Electricians' Union.

CHICO, Cal., July 31.—(Special.)— The entire system of the Northern Electric Railway will be tied up by a strike, if efforts now on foot succeed. The company has failed to grant a rise in wages to linemen employed by it, and they were ordered out by the elec-trical workers' union. This prevents the completion of the double-track work under way in Sacramento. The company still has not granted the rise and the union's next step will be the ordering out of all men em-ployed in the electric sub-stations, through which power is supplied to the system at various points. This would prevent the running of streetcars in Chico, Marysville and Yuba City and interurban lines between those places and Oroville, Sacramento and Hamil-ton City.
