Oakland Walks Into Second Place and Portland Meekly Gives Way.

CROWD PULLS FOR OAKS

Under Clear Sky, Yet Amid Heavy Fog. Krapp Loses Control and Total of 8 Men Are Walked With No Provocation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3 .- (Special.) Oakland in second place!

That's the way the percentage colmn reads after the agonizing game today, in which the Commuters made migh errors to present their adversaries with the contest, and yet camalong before the affair was over and with two walks and a lucky hit won

After apparently going to pieces in After apparently going to pieces in the third inning, when a single and three boots gave the Beavers two runs, the only two they made during the contest, the Caka plugged along atead-ily, and finally, due to the lack of con-trol of Krapp, who walked a total of eight men, got in the necessary tallies to give them a 2-to-2 victory.

Crowd Pulls for Oaks.

It was a cloudless afternoon, with heavy fog rolling in, but it did not keep the crowd away from the park, and with something like three-quarters of those present pulling for the Oaks, there is little wonder that Nelson's support finally pulled itself together for a victory.

for a victory.

The game started in irreproachable style, with not a hit for a couple of innings. The seventh, however, saw the finish of the Beavers. There were two out when the trouble came. Wares singled and Maggart and Cam-wares singled and maggart and can-eron were walked. Wolverton knocked a fly over short that Olson went after and missed. Two runs scored. Speas would have had a good chance of getting the fly had he been left alone. As it was, Olson just tipped it with his hand, but that was not close nough to be of any assistance to him.
