SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—(Special).—It remained for Vean Gregg, the Portland southpaw, to win the only two games the Beavers took this week from the Oaks. During the middle of the week it was Gregg who managed to win from the fast-coming Commuters, and again this afternoon following a morning defeat, Gregg shut out the Oaklanders, 1 to 0, in a game in which the hits were mighty scarce.

Both pitchers were accorded erroneous support, but Gregg's victory can be attributed in large part to his remarkable control, 14 of the Oaks being struck out. It was all in the second inning when a record of the previous game, when he fanned ten of the Commuters.

The attendance at Recreation Park, not so large as on previous occasions, was good, and hopes had to be stretched in center field to keep the crowd back. There were no fielding errors charged, although the Portland run came through a man who was hit by Nelson, a slip that was followed by a long hit. Gregg held the locals to three hits and they were never dangerous after the first inning, when they annexed two hits, but were doubled out.

In the forenoon, although Portland gathered ten hits in all, as against seven for the Oaks, it was the latter team that won. The Oaks bunched four of their hits in one inning—the third—and that proved the undoing of the Beavers, for Maggart drove in two runs with a timely two-bagger. That inning gave the Oaks three runs, and they wound up the game with a 4-to-2 score in their favor.

Most of the action in the afternoon affair was in the first inning. Ryan started hostilities by beating out a bunt that Nelson attempted to field in ungainly style. He was sacrificed to second by Olson, and Rapp was hit by the pitcher. An attempted double steal resulted in Ryan being headed at third base, but Rapp was easily when Casey hit a liner just inside the first-base line.

The Oaks almost did things in the same inning. There was a cheer when Hogan hit into a double, followed by a walk, and a second baseman, who was hit by a line drive, was sacrificed to second by Olson. The Oaks placed two men on the bases in the fourth on a wild pitch and a walk, but there was no action. In the seventh, Maggart pitched a classy work by Warren at short robbed the Beavers of hits, but they closed the ninth in fact form. With one down Olson singled and Rapp doubled to bring in the winning run. Casey was called out for stepping across the plate, and after Sheehan had drawn a pass, he was forced at second.

In the forenoon session, with the bases full, Maggart pitched a Texas leaguer on the left-field chalk line that called for two of the trio. Later, in the eighth, Wolverton's single ended another run. The scores:

TACOMA, Aug. 7.—Tacoma won the first game of the double-header from Vancouver here this afternoon, 5 to 2, and the second game was called in the 11th inning with the score 5 to 5 in order to permit Vancouver to catch a boat.

Three visitors were on bases and none down when time was called. Vancouver outdid and outfielded the Tigers in the first game, but Miller was wild and his bases on balls were converted into runs. Flanagan's hitting was a feature in this game, he getting two clean triples and a double in four times up.

Annis was wild in the second game and Vancouver took a five-run lead. Jensen then went to pieces and in the fourth inning the Tigers scored five times on hard hitting, tying the score. Maston and Erickson, the relief pitchers, had command of the game from the fifth on.

Umpire Hall was badly off on decisions. Vancouver protested the first game on an alleged misinterpretation of the rules by Hall. Scores:

Winterbotham Holds East Side Players to Few Hits in First Event—Meeting Winds Up Season in Tri-City League.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 7.—(Special).—Local pitching enthusiasts are busy preparing for the regatta for the Thomas J. Lipton challenge cup, which will be held under the auspices of the San Diego Yacht Club August 24 to 28. Most of the speediest yachts on the Coast have been entered in the regatta.

Commodore A. J. Mitchell, of the Sunset Yacht Club, Long Beach, has announced that he will sail his fast craft Columbine in the event, and that he expects to make a close race for first honors with the Gahan, of San Diego, who will enter the Trilby, Frank Wyatt the Aeolus and Thomas C. Hammond the Gretchen.

The racing committee of the club has determined to run the races under the old rules of the club regarding regattas, which expired July 1. It is probable that the old regulations will be re-adopted for another term at the next season of the committee.

CHEHALIS WINS TWICE

RAYMOND'S LEAD DIMINISHED IN STATE LEAGUE.

Both Teams Play Big League Ball. Trick of Walking Fielder Jones Proves Costly.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 7.—(Special).—Chehalis put a crimp in the lead Raymond has had in the Washington State League by winning both of today's games, making it three straight. The locals won the morning game, 5 to 2, and the afternoon game, 5 to 2. Both were splendid exhibitions of the National game and there was a large attendance.

Callhan pitched for Chehalis in the morning and struck out 12 men, allowing only five scattered hits. Baker pitched for Raymond and struck out two men and allowed but six hits. Vivian made a money shower for do- ing so. McBride caught both games for Chehalis and Wineholt caught for Raymond. Raymond made six and Chehalis three errors.

Pat Butler, of Seattle, pitched the afternoon game for Chehalis and Walsh pitched for Raymond. Each team made seven hits. Chehalis made three and Raymond two errors. Each team had the bats full more than once but could not score. Vivian, Dyer and Flichtner made three, base hits; Dyer a home run. In the third inning Walsh walked Fielder Jones, apparently purposely, with another runner already on bases. Janus made a clean hit and scored both men. Features were the fielding of Ing so, McBride and Taylor on critical chances. Swindells umpired.

By winning this series Chehalis is one game behind Raymond in the race for the State League pennant and the rest of the games will be closely contested.

MOUNT HOOD ROAD BUSY

Autoists Find Improved Highway Source of Pleasure.

More than 100 automobiles were counted on the Mount Hood road since Friday on their way to the several mountain resorts. Yesterday forenoon and afternoon 50 were counted on the way to Rhododendron Tavern and Government Camp.

Among those who went out Saturday were W. J. Clements, who made the run in three hours; J. A. Stroubridge, with Dr. and Mrs. D. Rafferty, and Miss A. L. Dimick, principal of the Brooklyn School, who will remain till school opens; Colonel Bissel and family, Fred Buchtel and family are taking a vacation there, as well as Assistant Chief Laudenklos, of the Fire Department, who expects to go on a bearhunt today.

A wonderful amount of work has been done on the Mount Hood road in the last few weeks. For some distance this side of Cherryville along the side of a hill the road has been completely rebuilt, great trees having been blasted out of the way. Runs of three and four hours are now considered particularly fast with the present improvements in the road.

Great credit is given Henry Wemme for his work in behalf of the Mount Hood wagon road. He has informed the people along the route that the road will be covered with hard surface. Everybody along the Mount Hood road swears by Mr. Wemme and declares that they are just glad to cooperate with him in the further improvement of the road.
