The fire was subdued by the volunteer The fire was subdued by the volunteer fire department. A large part of Estacada would have been burned but for the prompt response by the firemen to the alarm, which was given by a Chinese, who was rooming in the building. As it happened a dance was in progress and many persons were on the streets, with the result that volunteers were quickly on hand to help fight the flames.

flames.

There has been some objection to the place, which was run by I. M. Foster, of Portland, because of suspicion that liquor was sold there. It is thought by some that an attempt was made to destroy the place for this reason. There has also been opposition to the billiard parlor, and this is thought to have some bearing on the fire.

The fire broke out inside the building, destroying the upper floors. Acing, destroying the upper floors. Acing Company said last night that some insurance was carried on the building, but he did not know how much. The president and secretary were at Estacada investigating the cause of the fire.

COUGAR IMITATES WOMAN

Wild Animal, Affecting Cries of Human Being, Worries Ranchers.

HUSUM, Wash., Aug. 7 .- (Special.)-Initating at times the screams of a frightened woman, and again imitating the cries of a little child, a wandering cougar has been seen and heard in the vicinity of nearby ranches within the past few days.
Miss Luzeta Winterling, while driving a cow home yesterday from the mountain side unexpectedly came aeross the cougar. She discovered the arimal not 10 feet away closely fol-lowing her, when she ran to one side and picked up a large club. The cougar looked at the girl for a few seconds and disappeared in the woods. This is supposed to be the same wild

CHICAGO, Aug. .—Has a fresh water sea cook any right to assert his authority over a plain fry cook on the high seas of Lake Michigan by the use of his fists? United States Commissioner Mark A. Foot has ruled in the negative. Joseph Barrington, who had graduated as a chef on land to the position of head cook on the good ship Illinois, was arrested on the charge of assault and battery on the high seas. Joseph Kates, the "fry cook," was the complainant. Barrington was held to the Federal grand they Kates and asveral others testified.

"Well, you see, a cook has to assert his authority," said Barrington on the stand. "Kates got it in his head I wasn't stand. "Kates got it in his head I wasn't rinnin' the cookin' and he talked back: I had an order for a planked steak and French fried potatoes. I fixed the steak and ordered Kates to fry the potatoes. He falled to obey and said he had plenty of time, for it would take forty-five minutes to get the steak ready. I said that didn't make any difference and he said it did. So I served him a slam in the eye." In the eye."
"Well," said the commissioner, "I can't do more nor less than hold you to the grand jury for that body's judgment of the matter."

VISIT OF LOVETT PARTY IS BE-LIEVED SIGNIFICANT.

After Trip Through Harney Valley, Railroad Officials Start on Way to Prineville.

BURNS, Or., Aug. 7 .- (Special.)-Railroad excitement was aroused to a high pitch here by the arrival late last night of Judge Lovett, president of the Harriman system; W. W. Cotton, general counsel for the O. R. & N.; J. P. O'Brien, general manager; R. B. Miller, general freight agent; Carl Stradley and Mr. Buck, engineers. The party came from Vale in three large automobiles. They started early, ac-companied by Burns men, for a trip around Harney Valley, and tonight a reception was held to talk over local railroad aspirations.

The visit assumes greater importance than ordinarily, from the fact that Manager O'Brien and General Freight Agent Miller were here in lune on a trip of investigation, so that June on a trip of investigation, so that Judge Lovett's coming is halled as an indication of a favorable report by O'Brien and Miller on the advantage of rallroad construction in this part of the state.

The party will start tomorrow along the line of the Harriman survey toward
