New York Clubman Rushes to London, So Wife May Charge Desertion.

and Beautiful Thora

LONDON, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—All London is eagerly awaiting the arrival here of young "Reggie" Ronalds, former Rough Rider with Colonel Roosevelt, well-known American clubman and father of the famous "Frapped Baby," who will reach Liverpool today aboard the Adriatic, closely guarded, it is said, by his ever-present valet. He will come direct to London, it is believed, to visit his mother.

"Reggie" and his famous heiress-wife have separated and it is believed that "Reggie" has come over here to live long enough to allow the once heautiful Thora Strong to secure a divorce on the grounds of desertion. It is said here that action has been started already on the quiet in New York courts by Mrs. Ronalds, cousin of Mathilde Townsend-Gerry, and who inherited the vast fortune of the late William L. Scott, of Erie, Pa. She was the daughter of Charles H. Strong, the president of the Erie & Pittaburg Railroad, also a millionaire.

Four Years' Wedded Life Enough.

From what has been learned here it seems that four years of married life has been all that the Ronalds family cares to attempt together. They were married in February, 1998, in New York, the wedding being one of the most fashfonable of the day, when all New York's "90" and some of London's society colony of divorcees and others were in attendance.

For several months it is said the Re For several months it is said the Ron-olds have been living in separate estab-lishments in New York. "Reggie" was the first to leave the palatial home at No. 876 Fifth avenue, and to take up his home again with his old cronies at his former bachelor quarters at the Brook Club. For a time, following this action, Mrs. Ronalds still lived in the Fifth avenue mansion, but about May this year she removed to a suite in the Plaze, taking with her the famous Plaza, taking with her the famous "Frapped Saby," now nearly 2 years old. From what could be learned here to-day from friends of "Reggie Ronalds."

who will give him a royal reception on his arrival, it is said that Mrs. Ronalds has come to Erie with her mother to pass the rest of the Summer.

Mother Ronalds Can't Be Found

An attempt today to locate Mrs. Mary Frances Ronalds, mother of "Reggie," who has made her home in the English capital for some years, falled, and it could not be learned how she has taken the news of the separation, if she has been made acquainted with the matter at all. Mrs. Ronalds is known here as the "friend of Kings, Queens and royalty," It was she who arranged for the An attempt today to locate Mrs. Mary alty." It was she who arranged for the presentation of her attractive daughter-in-law to the Court of St. James late in 190, when young "Reggle" and his beautiful bride were enjoying their honeymoon abroad.

The Ronalds' baby is almost as well known now to "society" here and in New York as are its parents. When it first peeped into this world it became known as the "Frapped Baby" because that were used to bring it sarely through the first infantile attack of illness. Later it became belier known to "society" because of the famous critical contented natives. One section, including several in the babe became one of the few really rich children of a more understanding and sympathy with one of the few really rich children of the surface through a big fortune given it by its millionaire grandfather, Charles H. Strong.

ered by non-union teamsters.

This measure must first be accepted by the Individual organizations before it becomes union law. It will be acted upon at the meetings this week.

It was the decided sense of the meeting, which was presided over by Will Daly, that the situation growing out of the teamsters strike did not justify a general walkout of union men at this time. Some among the delegates favored the strike, but their utterances did not receive much consideration from the conservative members.

Resolution's Everges Attitude.

Resolution's Express Attitude.

The resolutions expressed the position of the union men with reference to the strike plan to the employers' association and to the situation as a whole. They read as follows:

tion and to the situation as a whole. They read as follows:

Owing to the industrial strife now being waged by and between the Employers' Association, the Teamaters' and Machinists' Unions, and as all kinds of wild talk about a general strike, and a lot of unnecessary negotiations with a lot of Citizens' Alliance grafters, has resulted in no good being accomplished, and, realizing that some effective and practical system must be adopted by the union men, women and friends in Oregon; be 't therefore Resolved, That, first, we do not favor a general strike, as it would benefit the employers now involved in strikes, etc., only, and would give them the long-looked for chance to shoulder their burden on non-antagonistic and fair employers alike, hoping that they would be forgotten in a general melec, and thereby save themselves from certain ruination now staring them in the face. They a'so consider that in a general strike the state militia would be as available and use as the strike-breaker protectors and corporation tools now furnished the Employers' Association by our worthy Mayor and allies. Secondly, the teamsters' and machinists' strikes were won long ago, which any sane man can eusily ascertain by the slightest investigation. machinists' strikes were won long ago, which any sane man can easily ascertain by the slightest investigation. Third, organized labor and its friends in Oregon are surely not to be led astray by a few open-shop fanatics that have never in their lives earned an honest dollar, nor are they worthy of a workingman's consideration or confidence, and should be eliminated from all negotiations herceforth; be it further

Resolved, That organized labor, to a man, will stand by their fellow union-lists on strike, and will see to it that no union man, woman or child continues one red penny to any unfair or open-shop firm or individuals, and will, at the proper time, advise you of a plan that never fails but will effectually put a quietus to ravings of the inner circles of the Destroyers' Association.

We further wish to say to those interested that, while a few employers, now feeling the effect of their folly, are anxious to see a general strike, the union men of Oregon are too busy to pay any attention to defeated foes that cannot fight in the open. We would recommend all voters register now and that a general strike take place primary election day. September 24, and general election, November 8, lasting just long enough to cast your ballot against every corperation tool that presents himself as a candidate for office. Workingmen, whether organized or unorganized, owe it to themselves, their families and their country to stand by their fellow men, and don't be fooled by the fakers and loud-meuthed agitators of the Destroyers' Association of Oregon. Use your money right and effectively, and in a short while you will be asked to attend the funeral of the said Destroyers' Association of Oregon, And, finsilly, we wish to express our appreciation of the fearless attitude of the Daily News in the present controversy, and call upon all our members to stand by their friends and never overlook a square deal.

"Sane Element" Prevails.

"The sane element among the delegates prevailed," said President Daly after the meeting.
"I feel, and most of the union men feel, that a general strike is not a vehicle that at this time would give the results we are confident of receiving if the situation is met in some other way.

"A general strike is nearly always A general strike is nearly always bound to work in favor of the employers in a difficulty and against the wage-eargers. It removes our chief source of financial support and makes us dependent upon the international bodies. Strike Is Costly.

"The teamsters are standing firm. Only four men have gone back to work. We have assurances that the employers are dissatisfied with the non-union men they are employing. The strike is costing them much money.

"While we have not adopted a plan toward settling the strike, we are pre-toward settling the strike, we are pre-pared to meet any possible situation as it arises.

"One thing was definitely decided. The unions will make no further overtures to the employers seeking a settlement. We stand ready, however, to meet the employers at any time should they de-sire to negotiate with us."

GUBERNATORIAL FIGHT HOT

Five Republicans Seek Highest Office in State, With Anderson and Johnson Standing Greatest Chance of Nomination.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7 .- California enters tomorrow upon the last week of campaigning prior to the first state di rect primary election ever held in the The voters will select their own candidates on August 16 for all state officers, all Assemblymen and half of the ficers, all Assemblymen and half of the State Senators. They will also register an advisory vote for United States Senator and name their nominees for Congress from eight Congressional districts. The pre-primary campaign has been a hot one, particularly with respect to the Republican candidates for Governor. At this distance only one outcome of the election can be viewed as certain—that Theodore Bell, temporary chairman of the last Democratic National convention, will be the Democratic National convention. Well be the Democratic nominee for Governor. Bell has no opposition. For the Republican Gubernatorial nomination there are five contestants. They are there are five contestants.
