Five Thousand Troops Now Comprise Force at American Lake. First Infantry Marches From Vancouver Barracks.

COSGROVE, Wash., Aug. 8 .- (Special.)-Eleven hundred infantrymen of the Oregon National Guard detrained cial.)—Eleven hundred intantrymen of the Oregon National Guard detrained here this afternoon for participation in the blennial American Lake Army maneuvers. The Oregon soldiers established camp with the sureness and dispatch of regulars. By nightfall the troops had finished with the hundred and one details of camp making and were ready for active field work. Ten days of arduous campaigning is the programme ahead of the Oregon men, as well as the other troops mobilized here.

Real work will be taken up at daylight tomorrow morning, when the 10 company commanders of the two Gregon regiments will march their organizations out for patrol work and minor problems in advance and rear guard maneuvers. The troops of the Regular Army and of the Montana National Guard, which have been here for the past week, will engage in more advanced practice.

But on Wednesday, with but one day in which to get adjusted to field conditions, the Oregon regiments will be thrown into an extensive maneuver in which all the soldiers at the maneuver grounds will take part. There is to be a problem in which the senior officers.

The famous old Fourteenth Infantry is on hand from various Washington garrisons, the Twenty-fifth (colored) is included, the crack Second Infantry is in the field and the remaining force is made up of two batteries of the Second Feld Artillery, four troops of the First Calvary, the Second Montana Infantry, company B, United States Engineers, half of ambulance company B, United States Army, company E, Signal Corps, and the army school of cooks and bakers.

Contrary to the practice of past

Contrary to the practice of past ars, the strictest secrecy is being years, the strictest secrecy is being maintained as to the nature of the maneuvers. Advance information is being given out from headquarters to being given out from headquarters to none. As to the big maneuver of Wednesday, the problems involved are known only to General Marion P. Maus, the commanding general. It is understood that the problem will deal with coast defence, and that the 5000 men here will be divided into two brigades, one representing an invading force and the other a repelling force. Details one representing an invaling force. Details are lacking, however. The Oregon troops will not be assigned to their place in the problem until an hour or so before the action begins.

Thus officers and men will be thrown on their resources and the best pos-sible results will be obtained. The regiments will have to face the same ficers as can be spared from moraing drills. Sanitation Reduced to Science.

Modern methods are apparent throughout in the various camps this year, and as a result of the system of sanitation, sickness is reduced to a of sanitation, sickness is reduced to a minimum. Every equipment needed by a modern army in the field is at hand, excepting dirigible balloons. The regulars have in most cases made long, hard marches to the maneuver field and are in the finest possible condition for the field exercises. The guardsmen will likely suffer more or less from heat and fatigue for the first few days until they have adjusted themselves to the new manner of living.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 8.—(Special.) — Mrs. Sarah McGregor West, mother of Railroad Commissioner West, died here tonight as a result of asthmatic and stomach complications.

as a result of asthmatic and stomach complications.

Mrs. Sarah West was 78 years of age, having been born in Wellington County, near Guelph, Ontario, Canada. She came to Oregin in July, 1877, settling in Roseburg. Later she moved to Salem, where she had resided since, sawe for a short time when she lived in Astoria, with her son. She was the mother of nine children, five of whom survive: Levi, Tacoma; John, Seattle; Albert, Falls City; Oswald, Salem, and Regina, of Salem.

Mrs. West died without the knowledge that her son, Arthur, had preceded her but recently.

Owing to the legal questions involved the case was taken under advisemen until such time as the attorneys car

After the big field problem of Wednesday there will be little of a spectacular nature until August 15; when a field campaign will throw every man in camp out for two days for severe campaigning. The programme for ten days in camp is much as follows:

August 2, problem in patrolling; August 12, combined maneuvers of regular army and National Guard troops; August 11, terrain exercise for company commander and such other of ficers as can be spared from morning drills. this morning.

Parker at once came to Elgin and turned himself over to the authorities, who released him on $10,000 bond. On account of the lateness of the hour, the evidence was not completed and Parker is still to have his freedom until the completion of the hearing, upon the execution of a bond for $25,000. This amount will probably be furnished by his father, who is a wealthy retired rancher.

BIDS FOR ROAD TOO HIGH

Marion County Rejects Figures of $16,000 a Mile for Rock Road.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 8.—Special.)—Deciding that $16,000 a mile is too high for rock road, the Marion County Court this morning rejected the bids that had been submitted for a portion of the Silverton-Marquam road and advertised for another set.

Two bids were originally submitted and each of them were well above the $64,000 mark for four miles and one-third of road to a point where the Silverton-Marquam highway intersects the Mount Angel and Scotts Mills road. This is the thoroughfare which has created considerable litigation for a number of years, the Benedictine Fathers of Mount Angel starting a contest over the Tuttle law which reached the United States Supreme Court, but was finally amicably adjusted.

ELECTION CHANCE SEEN

Chadwick, Non-Partisan Judge, May Enter Race-H. T. Jones, Democrat, Also Mentioned-Split Is Foreseen.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 8.—(Special.)
—Efforts are being made to induce Edwin Chadwick, son of a former Governor of Oregon and now a member of the State Supreme Court, to file his declaration of candidacy as Democratic candidate for United States Senator. Similar efforts are being made with H. T. Jones, Democratic member of the State Board of Control.

The arguments of those beaund these suggestions are that if Poindexter should win Republican preference in the primaries many Republicans will bolt the ticket, in which event Democrats of the wide non-partisan popu-cate of too many isms and theories to which the party is not committed.

Chadwick is the only Democrat on the Supreme bench and was elected in 1998 by more than 1990 more votes than was received by the two elected Republican Judges, who ran on the same non-partisan ticket. Chadwick's home is at Colfax, so he is open to the east side objection. Jones formerly lived in Spokane County, has been a member of the Board of Control under Governors atcBride, Mead, Cosgrove and Hay, and for several years past has been a registered voter in Olympia.

"The depositor should have the privi-lege to invest his own funds in this class of investment. In my opinion a banker has no right to gamble his judgment against the judgment of the depositor and take any profits, if there are such, and cause the depositor to lose, if the stock proves to be an unsatisfactory in-
