STREET IS WIDENED.-The widening of Villa avenue to 80 feet, between East Sixtieth and Meridian streets, through Montavilla, is now an accompliabed fact and a large portion of the prop-erty owners have paid their assess-ments. Some have not paid. On Sep-tember 1, those who have not paid in tember 1, these who have not paid in their assessments for this widening will be declared delinquent and there will be considerable cost added. H. B. Dickerson, who has interested him-self in the matter, has ascertained that many of the property owners are not aware of the situation, and in sev-eral instances where he called their the attention to the advantage of paying now, they have done so. He urges all on the street to see that they pay beon the attent to and save costs. Be-tween East Sixtleth and Laurehurst, the work is nearly completed for mak-ing that portion of the street $0 feet wide to correspond with the rest of Bethe street eastward. In due course of time, Villa will be 80 feet wide from the west side of Laurelhurst to Fairview, a distance of 13 miles. It has taken four years of work to reach the present point in the proceedings. has taken four years of work to reach the present point in the proceedings. BADGES WILL BE SENT.-C. C. Chap-man, manager of the Commercial Club, will have made in the East and sent to Atlantic City badges to be used at the National encampment of the G. A. R., announcing that Portland wants the encampment in 1912. There will be isode badges printed, and the delegation which goes from Oregon will see that they are distributed among the mem-bers. A. C. Edmunds, who is National color-bearer from this state, and Com-mander Beack, who will attend, will see that the badges are distributed and worn by delegates. The badges will be ready for the meeting which opens there will be more women go from Oregon to the Women's Relief Corps convention than men, and their as-sistance also will be secured. M. L. Prait department commander, has been commissioned to start the camaistance also will be secured. At La Prait, department commander, has been commissioned to start the carh-paign with a full description of Port-land, to be published in the National Tribune, the National organ of the G. A. R. setting forth its advantages for holding the encampment in 1912.

HUBRAND AND WIFE FINED.-Malcolm D. Moore, an employe of a North End auction room, was fined $10 in Police $18,000 COST TO CITY auction room, was fined $19 in Police Court yesterday and an equal fine was assessed against Mirs. Moore, as the result of a family row, in which they induiged at Sixth and Washington streets a few days ago. Mirs. Moore is alleged to have used improper lan-guage to her husband and when Pa-trolman Smith arrested her. Moore jumped on his back, but desisted when he found that he was interfering with an officer. Malcolm M. Moore, an em-ploye of the Goodyear Rubber Com-pany, wishes it said that it was not he who was the defendant in the case. Caser's RowINF DISTURNED.-Though

Since time immemorial Casey has appeared at regular five-day intervals, to receive a sentence of five days, returning within a few hours after being released. Somtimes when the judge was disposed to indulge in a little banter by the way, Casey would say impatiently. "Aw, gimme five."

MEN FINID FOR ANNOVING STREET BERATERS—Persecution of women who discuss religious subjects at Second and Burnside streets received another check Thursday night when Patrolman check Thursday night when Patrolman Leavens arrested John Disa and Gus Nelson for annoying the women. As the officer stepped up, he heard one of the women say that she wished a policeman were there. One of the men cursed the police force and said that the quicker they came the better he would be pleased. He was quickly ac-commodated, for Leavens was stand-ing right behind him as he spoke. Each of the prisoners was fined $10 by Judge Gebhardt yesterday morning. Gebhardt yesterday morning.

Balley, who is charged with defrauding an innkeeper of $100, were refused by Acting Governor Bowarman yesterday, on the ground that the offense was too trivial to war-rant the expense of bringing accused back from California, whither he is fleeing, aboard the steamer Rose City. Mrs E. L. Wooderd brought the charge. Mrs. E.L. Woodard brought the charge. Mrs. Woodard alloges that the major occasion for Balley's departure is that, though a married man, he has been

TEAMSTERS' STRIKE CAUSE OF EXPENSE, SAYS AUDITOR.

Emergency Demanded Special Policemen and Their Salaries Will Be Paid, Declare Officials.

The teamsters' strike has cost the city $18,000 for epecial policemen, according to a document filed in the Circuit Court (1) to a document filed in the Circuit Court yesterday. It is the answer of Auditor Barbur and City Treasurer Werlein to the suit of James Maguire, who is at-tempting to hold up the salaries of the special policemen employed by the city to do duty during the strike. The an-swer says that this amount has been ap-propriated by the City Council, and that the appropriation of August 10, calling for $10,000 will be sufficient to pay the July salaries of the officers. 3

The appropriation of August 10, calling for $10,006 will be sufficient to pay the July salaries of the officers. On June 24 and 30, it is asserted. Chief of Police Cox forwarded to the Executive Board lists of persons selected by him upon the order of Mayor Simon to act as special policemen. These are named in the city's answer, there being 100 of them. It is alleged the Mayor and Chief of Police had a right under the charter to appoint special policemen in a time of emergency. It is alleged that an emergency existed on June 16 and has existed ever since on account of mobs and unlawful public demonstrations. Teamsters were set upon by mobs, it is alleged, and intimi-dated, so that their work became haz-ardous. The special policemen are al-leged to have been drawn from the eligi-bia civil service list until it was ex-hausted, when competent residents were selected to do duty. tion of the sacrament, immediately after-ward the fathers will go to the parish hall, where a programme will be ren-dered by the people of the parish.
