

SPALDING RUNNING WORKS CLOSE RACE

Millionaire Has Majority of Counties; Opponent Majority of Votes.

CAUCUS PROBLEM KNOTTY

Works Now Has Lead of 3500 in Count of Ballots, but Full Returns Will Be Necessary to Decide Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Although John D. Works has a lead of about 3500 over A. G. Spalding for the Republican endorsement for United States Senator, it is by no means certain that Works will be the Senator.

Then, too, there is every indication that Spalding has won a majority of the Republican legislative districts, although his total vote is less than that of Works.

If the final official count should give Works a majority of the votes cast, the situation would be a complex one. Works would have the majority vote and Spalding a majority of the House and Senate and be in the race on the basis that he could claim their support after having carried their counties.

It will take the full returns to decide the position of the Senatorial contest. The completion of the Legislative will be in the hands of the majority vote and Spalding received the support of both regulars and insurgents.

DAHLMAN VICTORY ASSURED

Nebraska Democrat Already in Field Making His Campaign.

OMAHA, Aug. 19.—Additional returns from Tuesday's primaries received today and tonight indicate that Mayor James C. Dahlman, of this city, has secured the Democratic nomination for governor over Governor Schallenberger by a safe majority.

Returns from 1128 precincts out of 1642 in the state for Governor give Dahlman 24,949 and Schallenberger 22,652. The remaining precincts unheard from would have to give Schallenberger a 5-to-1 vote to overcome this lead.

Mayor Dahlman has already started on his election campaign through the state. Governor Schallenberger abandoned his watch of the returns yesterday and started to Iowa to make a speech, but this far has declined to admit his defeat.

The official count will probably have to settle the contest in the Sixth Nebraska District for the Congressional nomination on the Democratic ticket.

Available returns give Judge Dean, formerly of the State Supreme Court, 1066, and W. E. Taylor, 1069.

The result in the Fourth District is still in doubt as the Democratic nomination, with the chances seemingly in favor of Benjamin F. Good, of Welton. From returns so far received, it seems certain that the nominations for the state have been made as follows:

First District—William Hayward, Republican; John A. Macomber, Democrat.

Second District—A. L. Sutton, Republican; C. O. Lebeck, Democrat.

Third District—John P. Boyd, Republican; James P. Latta, Democrat.

Fourth District—Charles H. Sloan, Republican; B. F. Good, Democrat.

Fifth District—G. W. Norris, Republican; R. D. Sutherland, Democrat.

Sixth District—M. H. Kinkaid, Republican; W. J. Taylor or J. R. Dean, Democrat.

WORKS' CAMPAIGN IS FRUGAL

Candidate Scous Assertion That Only Millionaire Can Run.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Judge John D. Works, Lincoln-Roosevelt League candidate for United States Senator, who probably received the nomination at this week's primary election, today issued a card in which he says that the assertion that the new law will bar any except millionaires from entering the contest for the Senate, is absurd. He says:

"It has been asserted that a campaign for the United States Senate could not be made for less than $50,000. I have made my campaign for less than $1000 by confining my expenses to legitimate and necessary expenses, thus demonstrating that an American citizen need not be a millionaire to run for the United States Senate in California. I had no organization and no paid workers anywhere in the state. I have neither expected nor received any financial help of any kind, while one of my competitors is himself a millionaire and had powerful support of the political machine backed by the Southern Pacific Railroad. I have not contributed to any campaign fund here from his 15,000-acre plantation, when it was suggested by one of the crew that they have their pictures taken. The picture was a flashlight

This reference of Works is to A. G. Spalding, millionaire manufacturer of sporting goods. Senator Flint gave as the reason for not entering the contest that he could not afford to stand the campaign expenses, which he estimated at $25,000.

Lawyer Testifies to Many Big Retainers Received.

Asked by Representative Miller of Minnesota, whether order work had been done to lead the Indians away from a close relationship with the Government, McMurray said he always had done his utmost to bring the Indians and the Government together.

FEDERAL RULES VIOLATED

Gore Hearing Develops Details of McMurray's Hold on Tribesmen.

Huge Contingent Fees Are Addition to Salary.

SULPHUR, Okla., Aug. 19.—It was brought out today in the testimony of J. F. McMurray before the Congressional committee investigating Indian land affairs that the witness held half a dozen contracts with the Indians for legal services, all covering the same period of time.

McMurray testified that for general service he had two contracts with the Chickasaws, about $5000 a year each, with the Choctaws at $5000 a year, and another contract for special services at a fee of $15,000, only $5000 of which was paid, a yearly expense allowance of $7,700 under one contract and other general expenses amounting to $18,000.

Special Fees Additional.

All of this money was in addition to the $750,000 allowed his law firm as a contingent fee in what are known as the citizenship cases and in addition, also, to the contracts by which he now seeks to obtain 10 per cent or $3,900,000 as a contingent fee on the sale of $20,000,000 worth of asphalt and coal lands.

"How is it that while having so many contracts to represent the Indians generally on regular salaries you got a special contract on a contingent fee basis every time any special case bobbed up?" asked Representative E. W. Saunders, of Virginia, a member of the committee. "Isn't it strange that the Indians had to sign so many contracts in order to get their affairs straightened out when the Government was supposed to look after a great part of that work?"

McMurray replied that he had been identified with the Indians for so many years that they had come to look upon him as their legal adviser.

He said that hardly an act had been passed by their tribal councils without the sanction of his legal firm.

Government in Dark.

Many of the expense allowances, the witness said, had been collected by him without the knowledge of the Department of the Interior. Also, he said, many acts passed by the President and determined by the committee, the President of the United States as it was asserted was required.

Asked by Representative Miller of Minnesota, whether order work had been done to lead the Indians away from a close relationship with the Government, McMurray said he always had done his utmost to bring the Indians and the Government together.

It was also shown that the Indians had employed other attorneys besides McMurray, each tribe paying $5000 a year and one of the tribes $12,000 a year for special counsel.

How much money in the aggregate the Indians have pledged themselves to pay for attorneys has not yet been determined by the committee. McMurray is to be questioned further tomorrow.

WIFE LENT TO FRIEND

DENVER MAN ADOPTS PLAN TO AID IN KIDNAPING.

Posing as Brother and Sister, Kelly and Mrs. Morrell Bring Child of Kelly to Portland.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—John D. Kelly, separated from his wife, desired to obtain possession of his daughter, Mildred, and order work out a scheme to decoy the child, borrowed the wife of his friend, John R. Norrell.

Mrs. Norrell, Kelly and Mildred have been located at Portland, Or., and, armed with an order from Judge Allen, of the District Court, Mrs. Kelly has gone to Portland. She will claim the child and then institute criminal proceedings against the trio of adults, charging them with conspiring to kidnap the little girl.

It was a unique domestic arrangement into which Kelly and Norrell entered, by which Mrs. Norrell was to accompany Kelly to the Northwest, leaving Norrell in Denver to put detectives employed by Mrs. Kelly on the wrong track. Posing as brother and sister and living under the name of Knight, Kelly and Mrs. Norrell were located at Portland. Norrell has joined them there, the police say, after a futile attempt to convince Mrs. Kelly that her husband and little daughter were in Kansas City with a sister of Mrs. Norrell.

Norrell is city salesman for a hardware company. The Kellys formerly lived in Billings, Mont., and from there came to Colorado.

The local police were not asked to locate the Norrells and Kelly in Portland. It is the supposition that they were trailed to this city by the private detectives employed by Mrs. Kelly.

BURGLARS ROB PARSONAGE

Minister's Jewels Stolen While Family Attends Prayer Meeting.

OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The home of Rev. S. A. Hayworth, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was entered last night by burglars, and his family were away from home. Rev. Mr. Hayworth had gone to Portland after dinner, and his wife and child were attending prayer meeting in the church adjoining their home.

Mrs. Hayworth's gold watch, a gold ring, several gold pins and small amount of money were stolen. The burglar drew from his 15,000-acre plantation, when it was suggested by one of the crew that they have their pictures taken. The picture was a flashlight

WIFE-DESERTERS GIVEN UP

Report That Oregon Refuses to Extradite Them Disproved.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The Prosecuting Attorney of Spokane County has written the Attorney-General inquiring if reports are true to the effect that executives of Oregon had refused to honor requisition for fugitives from Washington who are charged with wife desertion. He also asked upon what ground the executive based his authority in that event. No further back than April 15, this year, it is shown extradition was granted for Aaron S. Lebb, wanted in King County for the offense mentioned, and it seems evident the Spokane official has been misinformed.

BURGLAR'S MOTHER ALONE AT FUNERAL

Young Wife of "Pink Domino" Is Absent When Body Is Laid to Rest.

STORY OF LIFE IS TOLD

Casket Not Opened to View of Acquaintances at Lebanon—Photographs Leave No Question of Man's Identity.

LEBANON, Or., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The mother of Ernest A. Frazier, the "pink domino" burglar, of Portland, was virtually the only mourner at the funeral of the young man here today. An uncle from Salem attended and the pallbearers were fellow workmen from the last job on which he was employed here.

Frazier's young wife, whom he married at Albany, December 20 last, was not present, and neither was any member of her family. She was Miss Mona Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hart, and had just passed her 15th birthday at the time of her marriage. It was said that she and her husband had not lived happily after some of the facts regarding his past life had become known to her. She is said to be at the home of her brothers at Westfall.

Mother Will Not Believe.

In the face of all the evidence supporting the identification of her son as the young burglar, Mrs. Frazier professed her faith that there is a sad mistake and her belief that her son was not the man. His real name was Ernest Lane, who was born near Eugene 21 years ago last February. His mother obtained a divorce when he was 4 years old, her husband being Isaac Lane, an old settler of Lane County and now said to be living in Crook County. She moved to Salem and 12 years ago was married to Frazier, with whom she did not live happily, and he is said to have been in the employ of the Salem Street Railway Company.

The boy was sent to the Reform School several years ago. Miss Millard Jones, of this county, who knew him there, met him in Lebanon one day last winter, and called him by the name of Ernest Lane, and he took her to the cemetery and told her that if he ever killed him, Jones kept the information to himself until after the funeral.

Photographs Are Seen.

The Chief of Police here has photographs of Frazier taken at the time of his parole from the penitentiary in 1909. They leave no doubt in the minds of the people of Lebanon who knew him that he is the same person. Frazier worked recently for Zoph Bros., contractors for the building of the Lebanon State Bank, as foreman. He had charge of a gang on the cement walls of the new Methodist Church. One of his employers complained to him on August 1 that he was not getting results and that many of the men were standing idle. He resented by resigning his job. That was the last known of him here until the announcement of his being killed in Sacramento.

here have succeeded admirably in giving the country the impression that they believe he is a bad man to carry on the official rolls.

Bad Politics Played.

The story that they wanted him to resign is taken as the confession that the Administration has been carrying all this time a man whom it should have dropped years ago. As a stroke of political wisdom, this has not appealed to any one a star performer.

Ballinger sticks and President Taft stands by him, while the country believes that the President's friends regard him as a menace. Such situation, created out of a blue sky at a time when there are troubles enough, is believed here to be one of the poorest pieces of politics ever played.
