

PORTLAND, OREGON, MONDAY, AUGUST 22, 1910.

Oregontan.

today, but eastward it is entirely cut off and it is known that the entire east half of the town, above Seventh street has been burned. West of that a hard fight is being made and with improve ment in the water supply there is more chance that the flames may be driven bauk.

Lives Lost in Wallace.

In Wallace the dead include: John Boyd, planeer of the district and for 16 years general agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad here, suffocated in his home in Pearl street while trying to the family parrot. Two unknown, whose skeletons were found in the ruins of the Michigan House.

Unknown man, burned to death in Coeur d'Alene House.

The configuration in the East End was stayed soon after 11 o'clock today. Backfiring, in which the members of the City Fire Department, a company of the Twenty-fifth Infantry and many volusteers prevented new fires west and south.

City's Loss Close to Million.

The loss to the city is estimated at close to $1,000,000. Some of the principal losses are as follows:

Coeur d'Alene Hardware Company, warehouse and stock, $150,000.

Sumest Brewery, $50,000. Pacific Hotel and Annex, owned by W.

L. James, of Spokane, $20,000. Cosur d'Alene Iron Works, $80,000.

O. R. & N. depot and string of box-Cars. $50.000

Smith & Fisher, $50,000. Times Printing Company, $15,600. Worstell Furniture Company, $50,000. Standard Oil Company, $29,000. About 150 small residences and many other minor business houses.

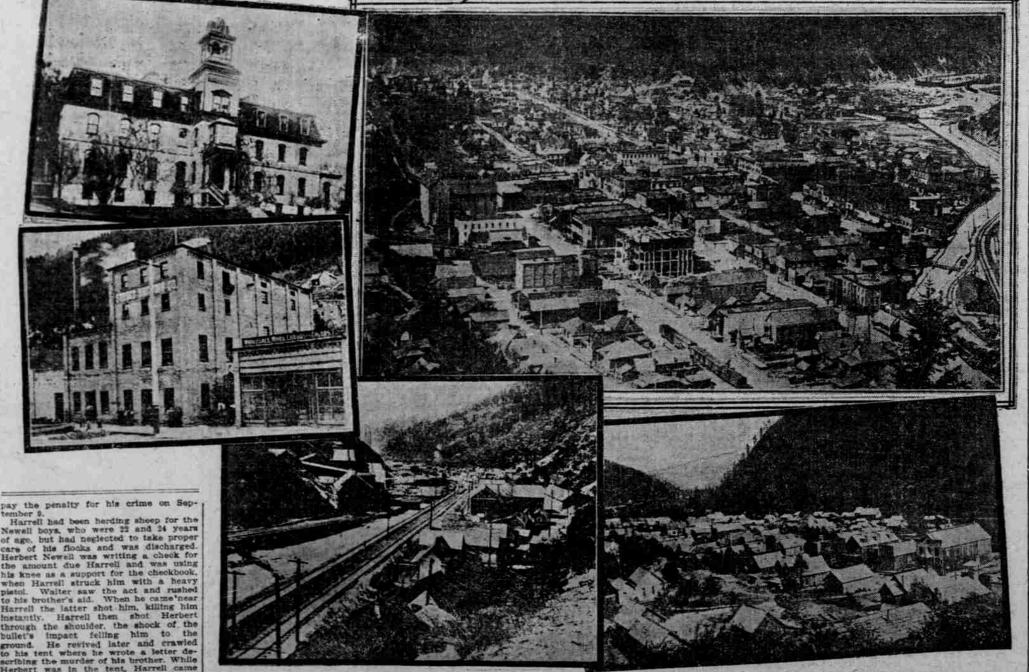

Hospital Is Saved.

vidence Hospital and the big mills of the Federal Mining Company were the only buildings in the East End that were saved.

Forest Supervisor George W. Welgel reports that the region between Wallace and the St. John River is swept practical-parts that the region between Wallace and the St. John River is swept practical-by clean, with enormous loss. Fires between Burke and Mullan threa-ten both towns and many women and children have been sent out. At War Eagle tunnel eix were found dead and two were badly burned. Five they had sought refuge. They lay face and blankets. Some had died from the fire and some from suffocation by smoks. The injured were taken to Providence Haspital in Wallacs. Twelve dead were sneovered at Big Creek. There were three injured and three others were completely bilnded. One fire fighter was found dead near (Consided en Fage 5.)

SCENES AT BURNED CTTY AND CAMPS MENACED IN COEUR D'ALENES.

ABOVE, PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL, WHICH WAS BARELY SAVED WITH ITS INMATES, AND GENERAL VIEW OF EURNED CITY-BELOW, SUN-SET BREWERY, WHICH WAS DESTROYED, AND TOWNS OF GEM AND MURRAY TO SAVE WHICH HEROIC EFFORTS ARE BEING MADE.

E: 104.0

direction. Speaker will not venture to attend the Sherman meetings, though his district adjoins that of Representative McKinley and the trip will be a short one.

A few of the Illinois Representatives, including W. A. Rodenburg, of East St. Louis, will act as guard of honor for the Vice-President. The Clinton and Decatur gatherings will mark the for-, mal opening of Representative McKinley's campaign and he will make brief addresses.

Representative McKinley will be in Chicago Tuesday to attend to his duties as chairman of the Republican Congressional committee. His secretary, John Eversman, is at the Auditorium.

TAFT'S SILENCE BRINGS PEACE

Roosevelt's Advisers, However, Try to Inject Him in Fight.

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 21 .- (Special.)-Friends of both President Taft and Colonel Boosevelt along the North Shore have noticed that the dignified stience of the President, regarding the aspersions which have been cast upon him, beginning with the adverse vote of the New York State Republican committee last Tuesday, has born fruit making temporarily for peace and order. This was further revealed when newspapers today brought denials from Oyster Bay that Colonel Roosevelt had ver said that he was sending Lloyd C. Griscom to Beverly with an ultimatum to the President demanding that he repudlate Vice-President Sherman.

It was obvious that the newspaper correspondents who have been carrying the anonymous stories attacking President Taft would get in trouble sooner or later. Colonel Roosevelt was in a position to repudiate them any time. and now some of them have gone into the Ananias Club, while the prospects for a brief peace are good.

There is a feeling here that no matter what may happen now Mr. Roosevelt will find it impossible to keep out of Presidential politics. His closest advisers, some of whom can be classed as friends of the President, are dreaming of his becoming a candidate for the nomination in 1912. They give him no rest. They are working a regularly organized campaign to make him feel that all Israel is calling for a new Mozes. The robuff of James R. field in Ohio and the defeat of the insurgents in Nebraska together with the waning of the "progressive" cause 12 Minnesota do not fease them. In return they point to Iowa, Kansas and Caliand insist that conditions there are typical of the entire country. Every effort is being made by the

(Concluded on Page 2.)