ALLEGED THIEF CAUGHT

"SECOND-STORY WORKERS" RAIDS MAY BE STOPPED.

Activity of Thieves in Past Few Days Arouses Police to Action and One Man is Arrested. Partial solution of the problem of checking an epidemic of raids by "second-story workers" was found yesterday when Detective Price and West arrested Clarence McKay on a charge of entering the house of Mrs. Ella Grimes, 487 Stark street, and stealing a seal skin coat. The missing property was clearly traced to McKay. Beside the coat, he secured a half dozen silver knives and forks and a bolt of cloth. The value of the articles reached some hundreds of dollars. Mrs. Nellie F. Hunt, 623 Flanders street, reported to the police yesterday that her home was entered by a second-story window while the members of the family were assembled on the first floor, Sunday evening. The burglar got three gold rings, a safety razor and a revolver. The family heard someone moving about and James C. Penton, who lives in the house, went upstairs about 10 o'clock. It is believed that he frightened the thief away. The home of Rev. William Parsons, 548 East Pine street, was entered Sunday night and a number of articles of jewelry were taken. Frightened away before he had an opportunity to gather up all of his

BRIDGE BOND SALE GOOD

CAMPAIGN FOR BROADWAY CROSSWAY GIVEN IMPETUS.

Checking Up Tonight May Prove Almost Half of Needed Amount Purchased. Broadway bridge bonds "moved some" yesterday. The third and last campaign for subscriptions to the block of $250,000, that is desired to sell to start the bridge, was begun and will continue all the week. The result of the day's work by the committee is not known, however, for the sales will not be checked up until tonight. It is said to be encouraging, though, and to forecast the pledging of the entire amount asked. The first thing the committee did was to get an official guaranty from the Mayor that in the event the bonds should be deemed invalid, those who had subscribed should get their money back. "There can be no question, in my opinion as a lawyer," Mayor Simon told the committee, "that those bonds are perfectly valid. Then, too, the city is behind them, and the credit of the city must be preserved. Nobody will lose any money by subscribing to those bonds." The committee also saw four members of the City Council, Messrs. Baker, Wallace, Cellars and Ellis, and those likewise expressed their perfect faith both in the validity of the bonds and in the certainty that the city will stand

REALTY MAN ARRESTED

DAVID B. MACKIE CHARGED WITH LARCENY BY WOMAN.

Dr. Jenny Collin Files Complaint Against Agent, Alleging Non-Authority to Contract. Charged with larceny by bailee in the sum of $600, David B. Mackie, a prominent real estate dealer and politician, was arrested yesterday at the instance of Dr. Jenny Collin, Mrs. Collin, who lives at 231 Twenty-first street, complained to the District Attorney's office that she had paid Mackie $600 on a real estate deal involving property worth $1800, and later learned that he had not authority to enter into contract with her and that he had not turned over to the owner of the property the money he received from her. Dr. Collin exhibited a contract of sale, dated April 13, undertaking, in consideration of the $600 paid and acknowledged, to deliver title to a six-roomed house at 281 Water street, at an agreed value of $1800. The remaining $1200 was to be secured by a mortgage bearing 6 per cent interest and it was set forth in the agreement that the $600 was to be returned if clear title could not be shown. Mackie signed the agreement as agent for D. J. Quimby, owner of the property. The latter, it is alleged, denies having given Mackie authority to act for him and declares that the $600 option money has not been paid. Mackie was arrested by Constable Lon

WAGNER AT HIS OFFICE

PIONEER SCHOOL HOUSE REPLACED.

BUTTEVILLE, Or., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—The worst schoolhouse in Clackamas County is located at West Butteville, Or. T. J. Garry, Superintendent of Schools in Clackamas County, is authority for this statement, and when the proposed new electrical line of the Oregon Electric to Newberg and Minnville is completed, a new schoolhouse will be built. The progressive residents of this district already have the lumber on the ground and the schoolhouse will be ready by the middle of October. The old school was built 25 years ago without studding or plaster.

DALLES COUPLE MARRY

THE DALLES, Or., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Harold Edmunds and Miss Rega Eddon were married at the home of the bride's mother, at 1 o'clock today. Mr. Edmunds has been in the employ of French & Co., bankers, for a number of years. Miss Eddon is a graduate of The Dalles High school and the youngest daughter of Mrs. Maude Eddon, who is school clerk of The Dalles district. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. V. Poling, of the Congregational Church. Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds left on the afternoon train for Seaside.
