WIFE-SLAYER IN COURT. H. M. LAMBERT EMACIATED BY SELF-INFLICTED WOUND. Preliminary Hearing Is Waived and Prisoner Returns to Hospital. No Bail Is Allowed.

Terrific emaciated by his two-months' fight for the life that he attempted to throw away, and pitifully weak, H. M. Lambert appeared in Police Court yesterday morning to be arraigned on a charge of murdering his wife, Grace Lambert, at Woodlawn, July 2. He was sent in from St. Vincent's Hospital for the purpose and was returned there rather worse for the experience, after the formally was over. Attorney C. M. Idleman appeared for Lambert, waived the reading of the information and refused a preliminary hearing. Lambert was held to the grand jury without bond.

It was thought at first that the woman had been shot in the back, but it was found that she had been shot in the chest. The bullet had entered her chest and had passed through her lungs. She was taken to the hospital in one ambulance, and on the way Lambert made frantic efforts to reach his dying wife and finish his work. It was thought at first that the woman would die, but she recovered and that Lambert would die, but the woman gave up the fight the day after the shooting, while the husband, after lingering for weeks between life and death, began to recover. His improvement was aided by an operation by Dr. Ziegler, with the object of draining the pulmonary cavity, frightfully lacerated by the bullet.

ACCUSED SWINDLER HELD. Detective Plays Victim, Then Places Kratzberg Under Arrest. M. C. Kratzberg, accused of obtaining money by false pretenses, was examined in Municipal Court yesterday and was held to the grand jury. Kratzberg was arrested by Detective Price, who came in contact with the man as a prospective victim of the game which Kratzberg is accused of operating. Price went to Kratzberg's office in the Swetland building representing that he had money to invest, and he was joyfully received by the swindler. Before Price surrendered his $1000 he placed Kratzberg under arrest.
