ASTORIA Or., Aug. 24.—(Special.)— The course for the speed motorboat me races to be held here during the 15th annual regatta on August 29, 30 and 31 is unique in that it is the first of its kind ever laid out on the Pacific Coast and is the same as adopted for the in-ternational motorboat races on the At-inatic Coast. It is a measured course. par exactly five miles in length, with four turns, none of which is sharper than 45-degree angles. As each heat will be four times around the course, or 20 miles, the fac-ers must pase the grandstand eight times in each contest and both the start and finish will be immediately in front of the grandstand, between it and the jugges boat. ## Pacific Offices Daily.

The interest shown in the home-neekers' movement and the colonist rates to the Northwest and Oregon in particular is just now greater than to have seen in 20 years' experience in nave seen in 20 years work. This statement was made yesterday by L. J. Bricker, general immigration agent of the Northern Pacific, who spent a few hours in the city. "Judging from the lefters we are reelving, continued Mr. Bricker," the attention of a high-class of homeseek-ers is attracted this way. These let-ters include hundreds of inquiries as the rates on household goods and migrant outfits, indicating that the ionists will bring their household mituge, farm implements and probfurniture. ably stock also.

"Such men have more or less means. When one solects a community for his new home he at once opens an account is a hant in a bank, purchases a farm and be-comes an asset of the state. This season is supposed to be the quietest of the year and is the vaca-tion period in my offices. One would think that when the farmers are in the midst of barvest and with the weather depressingly hot they would have neither time nor inclination is write letters but actually we are work-ing nights. Sundays and holidays replying to inquiries about the North-wost. The indications point not only to a great colonist movement during the ion-rate period, which begins Sep-tember 15, but also to a correspond-ingly hig influx of homeseckers to this section next Spring."
