dissound into singlers pur excellence, and by the most opportune connection with the offerings of Harry Stewart yesteriay the Beavers made it six straight victories over the San Prancisco club. The final score was 6 to 3.

The final score was a to he sewer the twirlers of start the game. The former continued mrough the matines, but Manager Michelle thought Seaton somewhat untendy in the sixth and replaced Tommy "Big Stx" Steen, who did good work teams negotiated scores in the first chap-ter, and the strangest part of it is that three-base hits counted in both runs registered in the opener.

Shaw Gets Three-Bagger.

Madden opened for the Seals by fan-ning, but Royal Shaw, who played sec-ond because Captain "Kid" Mohler thought he needed a rest, soused one for three cushions. Lewis flew to Cison and Temmy Tennant popped one of the dink-test files imaginable above the plate and Temmy Murray monkeyed around trying-to-get under it long enough to fall to touch it at all and the ball dropped on safe territory, permitting Shaw to score and Tennant to reach first. The Seals then filled the bases on a pass to Mel-chice and Vitta infield tap, but Berry scrambled the situation by a short tap thought he needed a rest, soused one for three cushions. Lewis flew to Oison and Temmy Tennant popped one of the dinktest flew imaginable above the plate and Tammy Murray monkeyed around trying to get under it long enough to fall to topch it at all and the ball dropped on age territory, permitting Shaw to score and Tennant to reach first. The Seals than filled the bases on a pass to Melchier and Vitt's infield tap, but Berry scrambled the situation by a short tap to Seaton, rottring the side.

In Portland's haif, Buddy Ryan, who later in the game distinguished himself most vallantly, went out McArdle to Tennant.

Seals Take Lead.

Oteon followed Shaw's lead as second man up by soaking one for three cushions, and scored when "Roaring" BBI Rapps smashed a two-sacker to right. The Seals took the lead by negotiating in the second on a pass to McArdle, Stewart's sacrifice and Casey's boot of Shaw's grounder.

The game progressed along to the fifth before Portland tied the proceedings once more. Ort walked, but was forced at the track. This is a much-needed improvement.

The game progressed along to the fifth before Portland tied the proceedings once more. Ort walked, but was forced at second by Murray. Seaton fanned, but Buddy Ryan slammed out his first twoagger, scoring Murray, but Buddy was breked at third trying to take three ushless on the shot. In the sixth inning, McCredie gave Seaton the skiddoo signal after two men got on and Steen was substituted. Steen wormed out of difficulty that inning, but in the seventh the Seals took the lead on Shaw's second triple and a double by Tennant. Not to be outdone in the scoring line, the Beavers went after Stewart in their half by scoring two runs and steen half by scoring income and Stewart in their half by scoring income and steen half by scoring income and taking the lead away from Sam Francisco. With Speas stowed away. Ort and Murray singled in succession, and after Steen filed to left. Ryan pasted out his second two-bagger, chasing both Ort and Murray home, but Buildy was come more caught frying to hook a trio of sacks on the hit.

Beavers Get Two in Eighth.

For good measure, the Beavers scored two more in the eighth, and this time time feat was accomplished after two men were down. What promises to be one of the best fights seen in this vicinity will be between Guy Lee, the former Portland amateur welterweight champion, and Jack Dolan, of San Francisco, when they engage in the art of fisticuffs on Labor day at St. Johns. The go will be a tenround affair. Lee formerly fought in the round affair Lee formerly fought in the welterweight class but by hard work has reduced his weight that he might meet boys in the 125-pound class. Dolan is said to be a promising young lightweight who has fought a great deal about San Francisco, where the limited round goes have flourished until recently, when the Governor put the ban on prizefighting of all kinds.

The main go will be preceded by two preliminaries, one between two heavy eights and another between Frankie O'Erien and Kid Exposito, both Portland Youths that have appeared before the fight fares a number of times.

Bundy, who first came into prominence this year by sharing with T. W. Hendrick the honor of winning the Pacific Coast doubles championship, and later defeating the doubles champions of the West, South and Middle West, went into the contest with a vigor that disconcerted the veteran Wright.

Bundy's Victory Another Surprise.

Bundy's Victory Another Surprise.

Bundy's victory furnished the greatest surprise of a tournament that has been repiste with upsets of favorites.

Throughout the tournament the Western player had been distinguishing himself by dashing tennis, but few, if any, picked him to defeat the veteran Wright.

Bundy and Wright had never opposed each other before, and as both use the same style, playing steadily all the time, it seemed that the result hinged on the question of generalishing. The match drew out the largest gallery of the tournament, and nearly all the tennis cracks of the country were and San Francisco clubs, and, as each player's picture was shown, it was met with prolonged applause. Manager Winstock then had a slide inserted bearing the inscription "Boost for the Portland team, champions of 1910," and this slide was cheered to the echo.

With both teams tied for first place and the championship, the winner to get the Honeyman Hardware Company trophy, the Dilworth Derbies and Salem tram of the Tri-City League will meet next Sunday in what is thought will be one of the best games of baseball ever witnessed on the Salem grounds. Much rivairy is prevalent between the members of the two teams and their partisens, many of whom are desirous of placing money on the chances of their respective teams.

Throughout the entire Tri-City League season the fight has been between these two teams and their partisens the top rung of the percentage ladder. Nearly all of the other teams in the league have bad trouble holding their men but Salem and the Derbies have been troubled little in that resepect. In the loopes of winning next Sunday's context and the championehip of the league, Manager Garigus, of the Dilworth team, has signed up Collie Drubot, in the few games which he has worked this season, to do the pitching. Drubot, in the few games which he has been playing with the West Portland team this season, has been victorious, his arm having rounded back into good form. Drubot is a southpaw and formerly pitched for Portland before going, to the St Louis Nationals. ONCE more the Beavers lowered the colors of the frisky Seals, and yesterday's victory gives Portland six straight wine over the San Francisco team, a feat that has not been accom plished against that club in years.

Oakland continues to press us for that top place, for Wolverton's heach trimmed Los Angeles once more, and this time the Oaks beat the Angeles in a Raisomine party. The Angeles will be entertained here next week.

Buddy Ryan was the litting demon in another game, for the stocky outfielder pounded out three lifts, two of which were extra base clouts. Buddy's batting is of great help to the team, and the faha are commencing to wake up to his value.

Billy Speas was also in evidence with his club. He was robbed of two hits earlier in the game but made up for it by an almost home run in the eighth, for he would have been credited with a circuit swat had he touched the plate in sliding in. Ivan Olson was also semething of a singer himself, for he picked a triple and a double on his first two trips to the plate. Claon scored after his triple, and tried to steal home on reaching third after doubling in the third inning. He was caught by a narrow margin.

In addition to batting like a demon, Buddy Ryan pulled off some fielding stunts that kept the bugs on edge. In the fifth inning, Buddy came racing in and hooked Shaw's low liner off his shoet.

Artie Kruger, who formerly cavorted in left and center fields for Oakland in the days when Pete Lohman and Van Haltren were the guiding hands, has been turned over to Portland by the Cleveland American League team.
