CITY LIFE TOO MUCH FOR WOMAN.— When Freda Luedberg came out from Sweden last October to marry John Lued-berg, the sudden transition from that northern Arcadia to a bustling American city was too severe a change. From the first she was an acute aufferer from "heimweh" and her longing for her Gothic home increased rather than diminished, until her mind became affected. Thursday night she became violent at Fifteenth and Everett streets and Patrolman Pechin placed her under arrest. She was sent to the County Court for examination.

OFFICER NOT MOVED BY BRIBE.—'I will give you 55 if you will let me go," asid Tony Lardi to Patrolman Martine. "All right," said Martine, "hand it over." Lardi produced the money, which Martine placed in his pocket. Then the prisoner went to the police station with a charge of bribing an officer added to the vagrancy charge the patrolman had intended to make. In court yesterday it was shown that he was mentally irresponsible and the bribery charge was not pressed. He was fined $15 for vagrancy and was ordered out of the city.

POCKETBOOK IS SNATCHED.—Ed Taylor

POCKETBOOK IS SNATCHED.—Ed Taylor bad a fat pocketbook and was just enough stimulated to show it in a saloon at Second and Taylor streets. Walter Cannon was standing at the bar and is alleged to have snatched the wallet, which contained $40. Cannon was caught by De tectives Endicott and Sloan with the money in his possession. He gave three explanations of how he came to have it, and was booked on a charge of vagrancy. He waived preliminary hearing yesterday and was held to the grand jury.

STREET CHARNEL CLEARED.—In an effort to make the vicinity of Third and Burnelde atreets navigable at low tide, Patrolman Burri made two arrests Thursday night under the ordinance forbidding spitting on the sidewalk. Thomas Steelmann and Louis Rushell were taken in the trolman Burri made two arrests Thursday night under the ordinance forbidding spitting on the sidewalk. Thomas Shebhan and Louis Bushell were taken to the station and were fined & each yesterday morning. Miss Macdonaid works until midnight and she requests that the officers watch the place during her absence. REGISTRATION Now 26,317.—The registra-It was at the same time two years ago. Yesterday's registration was 311, as against 39 on the same day in 1905. There were 36 Republicans, 4 Democrats and 15 miscellaneous yesterday. The total registration in Multnoman County this year now stands at 25,317. There are 20,170 Republicans, 3385 Democrats and 2561 miscellaneous. At the same time in 1908 25,556 names were on the rolls.

EMPERANTIST TO MAKE TOUR.—J. C. Cooper, president of the North Pacific Esperanto Society, who has been attending the Esperanto international congress at Washington, D. C., yesterday conveyed information by telegram to the Portland Commercial Club that he would visit various farmers' and educational meetings in New York, Missouri and Oklahoma and would not return to Oregon before the first week in October. the officer observed that their eyes were turned in his direction. Martine arrested them and Trephenope identi-fied one of them, Charles Shepherd, as the man whom he had seen at his C. J. Schnabel reported to the police yes-terday that his house, at 785 Park street, was entered about a week ago and that a child's bank containing $14.30 in dimes was stolen. A similar loss was reported by A. Thompson, 713 Sandy Road, from whose home a bank containing $25 was taken on August 18. The thieves also se-COLLECTOR IS BOUND OVER.— Hyde Gowan, manager of the Pacific States Adjustment Company, was held to the grand jury by Justice Clson yesterday, to answer to a charge of embezziling $60 from Dr. W. F. Hubbard, who charges that an account in that sum was given to Gowan to collect and that he became a farmer, was in trouble in the North End a few days ago and was dismissed by Judge Bennett with a warning. He said that he had not been north of Burnside street since that time. Both of the accused are plainly farmthat an account in that sum was given to Gowan to collect and that he failed to deliver the proceeds.

Warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Mrs. "Jane Doe" Cutoly, on a charge of breaking quarantine. It is alleged that the woman, when suffering from scarlet fever, left St. Vincent's Hosers and Shepherd has none of the ap-pearances of a criminal.
