

CHILDREN FROLIC AT PLAY FESTIVAL

Dancing, Racing and Games Enjoyed at Peninsula Park.

TINY TOTS HAVE GAY DAY

Five Thousands Spectators Witness the Festival Which is Given Under Auspices of Park Board and is to be Annual Event.

With dancing, racing, games, and a rollicking good time generally, Portland's First Annual Play Festival was held yesterday afternoon at Peninsula Park, which fittingly brought to a close the playground season for this year. The day was perfect for the occasion, and the big festival which has been cheerfully looked forward to for some time by many little tots was a success from beginning to end.

The festival was given under the auspices of the Park Board, and was witnessed by fully 5,000 persons. About 100 little girls participated in the dancing numbers, while about the same number of children took part in the races.

The programme was opened at 2 o'clock with playground baseball. The North Park boys won from the Peninsula, both at indoor and outdoor baseball. Scores: indoor, 3 to 1; outdoor, 2 to 1. Peninsula was also beaten by Sellwood. Score: indoor, 5 to 6; outdoor, 8 to 5. The dancing was started at 4 with an exhibition of pretty dances given by children of all the parks, and followed by an imitation of the Norwegian dance given by girls of the City Park playground. The children of the North Park arrayed in maid dresses gave some Scottish dances, including "Comin' Thro' the Rye." A Pop Goes the Weasel character dance was given by the little maids of the Sellwood Park, following which number the Peninsula Park children gave the "Lodina" dance. Another very pretty number which was given by the children of the North Park playground was an English dance entitled "Greeting." This was accompanied by a song which was ably rendered by the clear, childlike voices of the little maids.

What was perhaps the prettiest and most graceful dance was the Swedish app, in which the children of all the parks took part. These girls gave the Cornish May dance which brought the dancing numbers to a close. The little ones, dressed in their best, notwithstanding the fact that the music was furnished by a piano, which did not carry well out in the open. The tie band of children from each park was in charge of an instructor.

The athletic portion of the programme consisted of a 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, high jump, pole vault and 40-yard race. These were enjoyed by boys under five feet two inches in height. For girls there was a 50-yard dash, 200-yard race, three-legged race and 20-yard relay. The balance of the afternoon was spent in the playing of baseball and hand-soccer. The boys, while the girls enjoyed the games, oyster shell, three deep and hand-soccer.

Considerable interest was manifested in the exhibition of hand-soccer done by the children. Embroidery was shown which had been worked by children of North Park, while considerable raffia work was exhibited by children of Columbia, Sellwood and City parks.

Ribbons were awarded as first, second and third prizes for best work. The winners were as follows: Sellwood Park, first, Myrtle Coulton; second, Lona E. Wright; and City Park, third, Margaret Willing; Columbia Park, first, Constance Gilman; second, Dennis Albert Iramstein and Veronice, second, Elanah Wickham; White, Rose Turk and Alma; second, Marian Butterworth and Clara Lewis; Marie Burmeister and Clara Lester; third, Vivian White and Rose.

Winners in the sports were: 40-yard relay, boys, won by the Peninsula; 200-yard relay, girls, won by the Peninsula; hand-soccer, Peninsula; and in the girls' baseball game the Peninsula team won from the North Park.

LOVER TURNS GUN ON GIRL AND SELF

When Faye Slahe, Married, Rejects Him, Antonio Angelos Shoots Her.

BULLET ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Man Follows Woman Into Alder-Street Grill, Where Tragedy Takes Place—Infatuation Grows in Restaurant.

His strange and unrequited love for another man's wife yesterday afternoon caused Antonio Angelos, a waiter, to shoot and seriously wound Mrs. Faye Slahe, a pretty waitress and the wife of Arthur Slahe, and with the same revolver to send a bullet through his own heart causing instant death. The tragedy took place in the Canton Grill, Park and Alder streets, and was the immediate culmination of the woman's refusal to drink with Angelos, who had followed her from her home, 435 Alder street. The man, who was about 35 years of age, had been living at 25 and Lincoln streets in the Italian quarter. Until a short time ago he was employed at the St. Nicholas Cafeteria on Sixth street, where Mrs. Slahe was also employed. It was there that they became acquainted. His persistent attention and declarations of love prompted her to leave. He also left but only to press his suit more ardently. She says that he endeavored to induce her to leave her husband and run away with him. Mrs. Slahe, who is but 19 years of age, spurned his advances. After leaving the restaurant Mrs. Slahe tried to secure employment elsewhere but was unsuccessful. Her sister, an ordered a bottle of beer. When this was served he asked the young woman to take a drink. She refused and attempted to get away. He forced her back into the chair and without a word of warning whipped out his revolver and shot her.

Weapon Covers Heart.

Then he placed the weapon over his heart and pulled the trigger, firing the fatal shot.

For a moment consternation reigned in the restaurant. Chinese and white waiters and waitresses became frightened. A panic ensued.

Passersby, hearing the shots, ran into the place and found the girl attempting to escape. She was terror-stricken.

Dr. George Parrish and Dr. R. J. Marsh quickly arrived and pronounced Angelos dead. Special Deputy Sheriff Freytmann, superintendent of the Medical building across the street from the place, took the girl into custody. He assisted her to the office of Dr. Marie Esqui, who, with Dr. Boyd Richardson, made an examination of the injury. They found that the shot had passed through her left thigh between the knee and hip. The wound was dressed and the girl removed to her home in a carriage.

Three Shots Fired.

Those who heard the shooting differ as to the number of shots fired. Most were certain that they heard three shots. Only two could be accounted for by others, but three empty shells were found in the revolver when it was examined by Policeman C. E. Small. Frank Dane, of the Coroner's office, took charge of the body.

In a pocket of the dead man was found a letter addressed to Mrs. Slahe. The letter read:

"My Dear Faye:

"Come and meet me tomorrow morning 10 o'clock. To not forget to come 6th and Alder.

"Your truly lover,

"TONEY ANGELOS."

Detectives Tiebenor and Graves, who are in charge of the case and who took the girl's affidavit of the shooting, are of the opinion that the Italian contemplated meeting the girl tomorrow and that yesterday's meeting was not prearranged.

Mrs. Slahe came here a year ago from The Dalles, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Du Bois, now of Independence, formerly resided. She was married since coming to Portland.

The parents of the girl and her brother spent several days in Portland recently and left for their home in Independence yesterday morning. They have been notified of the shooting.

ses. The party is now in the Yakima Valley, where the two projects were inspected yesterday. Today the Kittitas Valley projects near Ellensburg, Wash., will be visited, whence the party will go to Seattle to remain three days.

From Seattle, Mr. Newell and party will come to Portland, but as yet the time of arrival is uncertain and the itinerary after leaving this place only tentative. It is planned, however, to visit the irrigation works in Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Colorado.

Those in this state, if only the projects that have already been undertaken by the Government are inspected, will include those at Umatilla and Klamath Falls.

The party has been out 30 days and will remain in the field two months longer. In visiting the irrigation projects on the line of the Northern Pacific, the party is accompanied by Thomas Cooper, assistant to the president of the road.

MOTHER'S "NOTIONS"

Good for Young People to Follow.

"My little grandson often comes up to show me how large the muscles of his arms are.

"He was a delicate child, but has developed into a strong, healthy boy, and Postum has been the principal factor.

"I was induced to give him the Postum because of my own experience with it.

"I am sixty years old and have been a victim of nervous dyspepsia for many years. Have tried all sorts of medicines and had treatment from many physicians, but no permanent relief came. I believe nervous dyspepsia suffer more than other sick people, as they are affected mentally as well as physically.

"I used to read the Postum advertisements in our paper. At first I gave but little attention to them, thinking it was a fraud like so many had tried, but finally something in one of the advertisements made me conclude to try it.

"I was very particular to have it prepared strictly according to directions, and used good, rich cream. It was very nice indeed, and about bedtime I said to the members of the family that I believed I felt better. One of them laughed and said, 'That's another of mother's notions,' but the notion has not left me yet.

"I continued to improve right along after leaving off coffee and taking Postum, and now, after three years' use, I feel so well that I am almost young again. I know Postum was the cause of the change in my health and I cannot say too much in its favor. I wish I could persuade all nervous people to use it.

"Read 'The Road to Wellville,' found in pkgs. 'There's a Reason.'

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

PARTICIPANTS IN SHOOTING AFFRAY AT CANTON GRILL AS A RESULT OF UNREQUITED LOVE.

Mrs. Faye Slahe. Antonio Angelos.

Miss Viola Du Bois, who is also a waitress, lives with her and her husband at their Washington-street home. Mrs. Slahe had been secluding herself as much as possible in the hope of avoiding Angelos's unwelcome advances, she says.

Lover Follows Her Into Grill.

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30 Mrs. Slahe says she came down Washington street from her apartments, 435 Alder street, and went into the Canton Grill for her evening meal. Angelos had followed her down the street and also entered the restaurant. Mrs. Slahe entered a box and Angelos followed. Mrs. Slahe placed her order with Soo Moy, a Chinese waiter. The young Ital-

A Plain Talk to Prospective Piano Purchasers

Some firms sell pianos with coupons, guessing contests, puzzles, or on a "get-all-you-can system," but THE WILEY B. ALLEN CO. will always adhere strictly to its well-known policy of selling pianos and player pianos of incontestable worth at "One-Honest-Price-To-All."

In buying a piano there are several points to be taken into consideration: A seemingly low price is not always the true indication of a saving. You must know the firm with which you deal. Your own judgment, while trustworthy in many fields, must fail you when attempting to compare the respective merits of the various makes of instruments.

Shrewd purchasers ask themselves: "If we can't buy right of THE WILEY B. ALLEN CO., from whom in the name of common sense can we buy?"

The Wiley B. Allen Co. sells none but thoroughly reliable instruments of time-tried standard manufacture—pianos and player pianos that have answered splendidly the severest artistic tests as to durability and "staying-in-tune" qualities. We are sure that instruments of equal value cannot be purchased elsewhere at a lower price. Payments arranged to suit the convenience of each individual purchaser.

Confessed Slayer Not Indicted.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Aug. 29.—The grand jury in the circuit court of Curry County failed to find an indictment against J. Curry, who was charged with the murder of Joel Bond some time ago. There was not enough evidence on which to return an indictment. Curry and Bond had a quarrel over the division line between their places. The men met one day when the fence was being moved and Curry asserts that Bond shot at him and that he then killed Bond in self-defense.
