

Death Threatened if He Talked.

"Rawn, according to Ostermann, prom-hod to give to the Ostermann Company the work of making 10,000 doors if he got the sick." testified Reuther. "Did he get the shares?" asked Attor-

Mr. Clendenning's ideas as to the kind of building that will be built are somewhat limited, for he has not seen the plans. The extent of his informa-tion, he says, is that the theater will be a class A building. Judging from the plans of other the-ators that have been built for Klaw & Erianger recently, he says, the front part of the building will be devoted to other purposes, either offices or a hotel. "I asked Ostermann that question sub-

"I assed Ostermann that question sub-sequently and he said he had given them the shares of stock," replied Reuther. Eleginer related a story of an encounter with Ostermann during which he de-clared Ostermann threatened to kill him he told of the transactions between Hilnois Central and the Ostermann to a depth of about is feet. This will mean a structure possibly eight stories high. Then behind this will be the auditorium and the stage at the rear, with an entrance on Yamhill street. Mr. Clendenning agrees thoroughly with the idea expressed before, that the remaining 115 feet of the lot should be desured to a groud batel. This is Company: Beuther stated that he went to Ostermann's office to protest because he had not received dividends upon his

he devoted to a good hotel. This is the only logical structure to put there, he thinks, but he cannot say with au-thority when it will be built. "Ogtermann said no dividends had been paid," teatified Reuther, "and I told him that I had seen a check sent to a man named Tomski. He said it CHARTER CHANGE ASKED was a lie.

Ostermann Hurls Paperweight.

You have done more harm than "You have done more harm than good with this company." Ostermann shouted, and I repited that I had done a whole lot toward organizing the concern, and said: It will all come out how the Illinois Central was robbed." He grew angry, selzed a paperweight and struck me on the head. I fell to the floor and some men carried me out and placed me on my back. Oster-mann said he would kill me if I told about the Illinois Central business. "I got home and had to go to bed. August Diedrich, doreman in the Burn-side shops, called at my home and told side shops, called at my home and told me I should not say anything about what happened. "Don't mix up John M. Tay-lor," Diedrich asked me. Mr. Milligan also called and told me not to may anything about the Outermann affair, but I told m I was going to tell the Illinois Central just as soon as I got out of bed. "I went to see Mr. Burton, master me-chanke of the Burnside shops-be was may bess-and told him about what I have of the stealing in the Illinois Cen-tral and that I was going to squeal. He advised me to keep quict and said that the men who were stealing would get caught anyway.

At the conference of yesterday, which occurred in the Forestry headquarters in the Beck building, were: J. M. Sheridan, chief of the hold zervice of the General Land Office for the United States; W. R. Williams, Jr., chief law officer of the Forest Service for the United States; D. D. Bronson and W. M. Aikin, forest offi-cers from Missoula, Mont.; C. H. Hart-son, chief of the field division of the General Land Office at Bolse, Idabo; Louis L. Sharpe, chief of the field division for Oragon, Washington and Alaska of the General Land Office, and C. S. Chap-man, District Forester at Portland. Mr. Sheridan left for Sentile last night, where he will join Mr. Ballinger, and will later go to San Francesco, Ogden, Denver and Phoeniz, where similar agreements will be reached.

agreements will be reached.

Koenigsburg Speech and Elaborates His Views.

of the interior to the thirds. After the examination of the reports, the field divi-sion officer may confirm the report, or he may order a new grammation if there is anything about the papers which excites his suspicion. Under the policy of the General Land Office since Richard A. Ballinger assumed charge of the Interior Department, it is believed that a distinct advantage has been gained for the homebuilder of the

is suspicion.

West

when their canoe capsized near the Oaks last night, was made by P. A. Layman, clerk at, the Seward Hotel. He swam from Creason's houseboat into the middle of the stream and held up the drowning woman, allowing her escort to hold on to the cance until a rowboat arrived and took them all safely to shore. A party was given at the Creason house-

A party was great and Layman was one of the guests. About 16 o'clock, J. Samuela, who has an adjoining houseboat, and Miss Clara Creason, started out for a canoe ride. They had been gone only a

Long Wheel Base, Ample Room Cushion Tires, No Punctures

that the cost of setting out the plants an acre, but the first year in bearing and preparing the ground is about $500 the marshes pay for themselves.

West. The policy of Ballinger, as announced at his reception at the Commercial Club, is to open the resources of the West to use. The policy of the Forest Service, since the time of Pinchot, has been to lock up or "conserve" the public lands of Ore-gon. Giving the final disposition of the matter to the Demartment of the Interior matter to the Department of the Interior is believed to open the way to more liberal construction of the Inad laws. At the conference of yesterday, which WOMAN AND ESCORT HAVE NAR-ROW ESCAPE IN RIVER.

> Canoe Capsizes and Guest at House boat Party Swims to Assistance of Couple.

Among papers found on the body was a receipted bill bearing the name of a hotel at Kingussie. Inquiries show Lady Marjorle arrived at that hotel July 20, but left the following day, requesting the management to keep any letters sent to her there, as she intend-ed motoring past in a few days. That was the last seen of her alive.

SAVES 2 FROM DROWNING

Thrilling rescues of a man and woman from drowning in the Willamette River.

caught anyway. "Then I went to see John M. Taylor and William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery, and told them how the rall-road was being robbed. They said there was no stealing and told me to keep my

MAN WHO KILLED AFEIANCED WIFE CAUGHT HERE.

Italian Confesses to Slashing Throat of Bride-to-Be When She Confesses Love for Another

For the second time within a month a fugilities criminal, whose whereabouts has been cagerly sought by the authorities of other states, has been indirectly captured les Shoriff Stevens. 'The intest capture was made yesterday when Amelio-Carloni, an Italian 24 years of age, was recognized as a fugility from justice and wanted by the Wisconsin au-thorities for the murder of Angela Fre-tion. pretty Italian girl, killed on July diani, a pretty Italian girl, killed on July 5 this year. The apprehension of Carloni was brought about in a peculiar manner about 5 o'clock last evening. With two of his countrymen, who were unable to speak the English language. Carloni entered the Sheriff's office and, approaching Deputy Sheriff Archie Leonard, said: "I wish to speak with Sheriff Stevens: The relo were undered into the Sheriff's

The trio were ushered into the Sheriff's

The trio write indication in the triang as an interpreter, proceeded to inform the lis-teners of the losses by theft from his countrymen. Carloni's suave manner-lams attracted the attention of the officers, In the purposely long-drawn-out con-vernation that followed. Slevens closely separatistised every feature of and gesture displayed by Carloni. Suddenly recalling the receipt of a circular he had received bearing a small photograph of Carloni, the Sheriff lounged back in his chair and, without arousing the suspicions of Car-loni, compared the photograph with his meaner. He was administered a right ioni, compared the photograph with his suppect. He was administered a rigid grueling during a session in the "zweat-box" and eventually, when confronted with the questions and the circular, hearing his pictume as being the much-sought murderer the raven-haired Ital-ian had broke down and wept. Carloni then confessed his guilt. He experimentated the statements made in wibstantiated the statements made in the letters and literature sent broad-cast by the Wisconsin authorities con-cerning him and his crime. According to his statements and ver-

Plans for Portland's proposed audio-rium took tangible shape last night when the "Live Wires" of the Postland Com-mercial Club decided upon the procedure of making the enterprise a purely mu-nicipal proposition, to be passed upon by the people of Portland. In order to ac-complish this end, it has been found nec-GERMAN EMPEROR SAYS HE HAS DIVINE PROTECTION.

complish this end, it has been found hec-cessary to proceed under an amendment of the clty clinitor. The committee in charge of the matter, George W. Kleiser, John F. Carroll and Robert Tucker, reported that the mem-bers of the City Council were unani-mously in favor of passing an ordinance providing for placing a periting for mously in factor of placing a petition for amending the charter to permit the prop-osition to be voted upon at the coming general election.

other purposes, either offices of a hotel, to a depth of about 75 feet. This will

LIVE WIRES WILL PUSH AUDI-TORIUM PROJECT.

City Attorney Tells Committee How

to Proceed to Secure City as Sponsor for New Hall.

Plans for Portland's proposed audito general election. An opinion regarding the procedure of financing the scheme for an auditorium was prepared by City Attorney Frank S. Grant and read at the meting. In his opinion Mr. Grant said, the proposed charter mmendment can be submitted to the voters at the general city election or at a special election authorized by the DANZIG, Aug. 36-Emperor William at a dinner last night in the castle at Marienburg, the old seat of the Knights Marienburg, the old scat of the Knights of Malta, made a speech which was a counterpart of that delivered last week at Koenigsburg. Taking up the re-ligious vein of the Koenigsburg speech, which his majesty evidently regarded as having been misunderstood by the press, he said: a special election authoringd by the Council for the purpose. He favors mitting it at the general election. The adment must be filed with the Au-When I represented myself, like my amendment must be filed with the Au-ditor 69 days before the election is held. "When I represented myself, like my sainted grandfather, as being under the protection of the highest and as work-ing under the highest commission of our Lord and God. I assumed that every honest Christian, wherever he might be, did the same. "Whoever works in this spirit knows well that the cross imposes obligations. "We should hold together in broth-orly love and we should leave to each race its peculiarities. The races and trade organizations should join hands for common work and for meeting the state's necessities. "Let the farmer join hands with the The amendment could be submitted, he maid, to the voters by the Council with-out an initiative petition, by a resolution, or by an initiative petition signed by 15 cent of the voters at the preceding election. He beartily favors the auditorium plan.

COAST CITIES GROW BIG

CENSUS BUREAU WITHHOLDS FIGURES TILL VERIFIED.

Remarkable Increase Shown Causes Extra Caution Because Intense Rivalry Exists.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU. Vashington, Aug. 20.-Because leading ities of the Pacific Coast have made clines of the Pacific Coast inter made remarkable gains in population during the past 10 years, the Census Bureau is scrutinizing returns of snumerators from those clifes with unusual care, so as to avoid all mistakes. Bennee of

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Forty em-ployes of the Forest Service are in hos-plitals as a result of injuries received in fighting forest fires in the Northwest. Many are dead and some have been blinded in their endeavors to check the this precaution announcement of the population of Portland and other Coast cities may be delayed some time longer. This explanation was made by Di-rector Durand today, when asked why the population of none of the Coast cities had yet been announced. It has here found necessary, be says to reflames. This information was received by the fatherland."

This information was received by the Forest Service from the deputy forester at Missoula, Mout. He asked whether the Government could pay the hospital ex-penses of the injured men. He was in-formed that this could not be done. Under an order issued by Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture, the for-estry employees are entitled to medical supplies, but it was said specifically that this should not include surgical attend-ance or hospital fees.

cities had yet been announced. It has been found necessary, he says, to re-turn a number of schedules to local enumerators for correction and no an-nouncement will be made until all de-tectable errors have been corrected. Mr. Durand says he wants his an-neuncements to stand, once they are made, and does not want to run the risk of having his figures upset through premature announcements that may be erroneous. Particularly is he anxions to aviod errors on the Coast because of intense rivairy between the Coast citles. DEATH FOUND ON MOOR Daughter of Scottish Earl Loses Way and Perishes. GLASGOW. Aug. 20.-(Special.)-The body of a woman, on which there was a large sum of money in notes and gold.

The population of Opherado is dallast the number of dectors 1.600; this is one in overy 325 inhabitants. There are two medi-nal schemes.

Coast cities.

William Thinks Press Misunderstood

amos ride. They had been gone only a few minutes when the galety of the party was suddenly brought to a stop by the screams of a woman. A light on the deck of the houseboat reflected its rays on the river and far out in the stream, the man and woman could be made out struggling near the capsized cauce. Layman threw off his coat, sprang out of the door and plunged into the water. He is an expert swimmer and his pow-erful strokes soon brought him alongside the drowning pair. Seizing the woman, who was gasping and floundering in the who was gasping and floundering in the water, he lifted her head up so that she could catch her breath, at the same ilme directing Samuels to hold onto the cance. Several men hastily launched a row-boat and followed Layman. Miss Crea-or and the two men were placed in the son and the two men were placed in the boat and taken to shore. Neither of the two who had such a narrow escape from drowning wa was very much the worse for

WINDSOR LOCKS. Conn., Aug. 30. After saving a companion from drowning, Bertram Hollingsworth, of Springfield, Mass. lost his life yesterday. The young man with George F. and Joseph "Let the farmer join hands with the merchant and the latter with the man-ufacturer; let the members of one party join hands with those of a different mind for achieving great things for the Swain, brothers, of Springfield, was in powerboat which was passing a powerboat which was passing through the canal. Joseph Swain was knocked off the boat by an overhead bridge, and Hollingsworth jumped in and rescued him. It is believed that Hollingsworth's heart could not bear the atrain, for suddenly he went down about 12 feet from shore.

New York's Mayor Shows No III Ef- Start The Day Right,

fects From Hoboken Trip.

.ST. JAMES. L. I., Aug. 30.-Mayor Gaynor showed no ill effects yesterday from his trip from Hoboken to his home. Rufus Gaynor said his father passed a comfortable night and was up early yesterday morning. The Mayor was taken for an automo-bile ride yesterday afternoon.

SOLDIERS CLUB RIOTERS Houses Are Entered to Get Refugee circulation

From Streetcar Disorders.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30.—Rioling broke out anew last night in the street-car strike, and police, soldiers and deputy Sheriffs arrested 39 persons. The soldiers with riot clubs, in a mum-ber of cases, struck down men in the streets and they also entered houses in which refugees had taken shelter. No mercy was shown. In no case so far as the police learned were acrious injuries GHI STACY ADAMS SHOES

HOSPITAL FEES DENIED

of Injured Foresters.