COUNCIL DECIDES TODAY

Local Firm, Representing Eastern Client, Willing to Pay $3.08. City Also to Act on Suburban Annexation Plans.

When the City Council meets in adjourned session at 9:20 o'clock this morning, it is probable that the entire block of $200,000 30-year, 4 per cent Broadway bridge bonds will be sold to the Ladd & Tilton Bank, which submitted a bid for an Eastern client.

Mayor Simon last night gave it as his opinion that the bid of Ladd & Tilton is within the meaning of the charter provision which requires the sale of bonds to go to the highest bidder.

Sale of these bonds by the Council will give the Mayor and the Executive Board the long-sought opportunity to proceed rapidly with the construction of the big, high span across the Willamette River.

Court Action Not Asked

The victory for the Broadway bridge is made all the greater by the fact that the highest bidder do not require action by the courts upon the legality of the issue.

Lents and Fulton Not In

The petitions for Lents and the Fulton districts are unquestionably in full legal form and have the full number of registered voters attached, but there is some question as to the one for St. Johns.
