"No man should make a promise before election that he does not intend to keep after election, and if he does not keep it, hunt him out."

Great Crowd Cheers.

The speech was delivered in a grove on the battlefield today where John Brown fought the Missouri raiders on August 20, 1856. The setting was picturesque. Thousands of people having gathered for the dedication of the battlefield as a state park today. Colonel Roosevelt stood on a table which was placed on the platform, high above the dense throng which surged about him on every

The crowd was so great that only a small part of the people could hear what was being said, but they all cheered. The cheering was so enthusiastic that Colonel Roosevelt was interrupted constantly and had to hold up his hands in protest time after time. The crowd caught up every phrase which it interpreted as an ex-pression of "progressive" sentiment and shouted as long as the Colonel would Hawkers Compete With Cries.

The vendors of wares did not decrease their shouts while the Colonel was speaking and he had to compete for a hearing with whistle of the merry-go-round, the "squawkers," which the children had and the strident voices of the Kansas orators who were urging the people to buy peanute, popcorn, "hot dogs," pink lemonade and potato prefers. Raising las voice to a high pitch and speaking slowly, the Colonel thundered his meseage from his place above the heads of the people and they thundered back ap-

Even the demonstrations which greeted Colonel Roosevelt at Denver and Cheyenne earlier in his present trip were eclipsed by that of today. The country-side was stripped of its inhabitants for miles around and farmers drove over the muddy roads or rode in on their mules to see the fun and hear the Colonel. LAWRENCE, Ken., Aug. 31.—The dedication of a drinking fountain provided by the Humane Society in the center of this town was timed for the center of this town was timed for the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt here to dine with Governor Stubbs. Drawn up in picturesque form were hundreds of little children, all attired in white garments, with big sunflowers prominently displayed. Colonel Roosevelt, speaking from a stand erected for the occasion, talked to the children of the kindness and gentleness that should characterize their treatment of dumb aniterize their treatment of dumb and mals. Cruelty to dumb creatures, he said, was next to cruelty to humanity. Referring to the State University here, he said a glowing tribute to the value of education, especially when providing for the practical affairs of life.

"But after all," he said, "the greatest essential is to have the right kind of character." The Colonel was frequently applauded by the large assemblage of men and "If you have not character," he said, "you cannot have good citizenship. The stronger a man is, and the abler he is, the worse he is if he has not character and does not do his duty to his family

Contrivance Tells Motorman at Distance. How Track Is Ahead--Danger of Accidents Lessened.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 31 - (Special.)-It is gathered from a communication received by the State Railroad Commission today from C. J. Franklin, of Portland, gen-eral superintendent of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's lines that that corporation is considering the instal-lation of an automatic device which will show motormen at a given distance whether a switch point is opened or closed, regardless of what the switch target indicates. It is considered by the Commission that such a device would result in the saving of many lives in the ourse of a few years. The device was recommended by the Commission after that body had made a thorough inspection of the switches and various other facilities of the company's lines within its jurisdiction, the vicinity of Portland. The road in-sisted that such a contrivance could not be constructed, but the Union Switch & Signal Company has furnished the fol-lowing information which may result in a complete installation of the safety de-
