Banner Acre Homes

Our Banner Acre property will in time be one of the very finest residential districts around Portland, or in Oregon, as it will one day be. This must be the case, for there is no more slightly land around the city in any direction than Banner Acres. It is now reached by the best good roads in the state, has every advantage of a fine home, and those fortunate enough to purchase five or more acres at the present low prices will soon see the day when they can sell what they do not need for a home-site with garden and orchard, and get money enough for this surplus land to more than pay for the original acreage and all improvements. And all the time have a real home in an ideal location. The present prices of $100 to $150 per acre cannot long prevail, for the property is worth far more.
