arrer part of the Oregon erop, were suid in Lane County yesterday at 16 cents. The buyers were Hal Bulam, of Salem, for the The purchases were equally diggs. J. M. Hochdamer, Sam Farver, John Gosser, Robert Stroda, John Lee, Dur ham & Hennett and J. C. Kelsey, of Har ham a Bennett and J. C. Kelsey, of Har-lisburg, and Ayres and Stevens, of Eugens. The only crop of fuggles not secured in the was that of Cartwright, about 50 bales. There is also a carload of fuggles unsold in the Silverton section. A report was current pesterday that a 16-bate ton had gone at 16% cents, but this

When the picking of fuggles started about ten days ago dealers offered 15 and 14 cents for them and Thursday last had alsed their hids to 15 cents. Several dealers beside the Horsts were in the market for the crops and it was this competition that put the price up to 16 cents.

Although this is a higher price than it was thought fuggles would bring, it does not follow that late bops will open at a corresponding advance. Most of the dealers be eye that when clusters are on the market they will start at 12% or 12 cents. are only a few fuggles grown, and as they are always wanted for a special trade, they nearly always command a premium over contributing to the high price of these fug-cies, was the exceptionally clean picking. Dealers who saw samples of the crop easy

Export Apple Business.

The New York Fruitman's Guide says of the expert apple market:

The feature in apples this week was the report received here from Liverpool of the sale of the first car of California Gravenstein apples in that market at prices equal to $2.67 per hox for 4-tier fruit he said to have reacted the Liverpool market in good shape and the prices guid are considered good based upon the early shipment and the condition of the general market here. Budson River Fall Pippins sold, according to the same cable advices at $4.25 per harrel ents equivalent there. Some New England Williams Red apples sold at the equivalent of $4.50 to $5.75 per barrel. In this same causection it may be mentioned that Bartlett pears sold at from $5.75 to $6 per barrel in the English markets. The New York Pruitman's Guide says of

SEATTLE MARKET IS BADLY OVERLOADED.

Fancy Stock Sells at Low Prices.

SEATTLE, Waxin, Sept. 2 -- (Special.) age do not remember when such conditions Contrary to general expectations receipts have not fallen off, but were about as heavy today as at any time this week. It was estimated that 25 curloads of peaches were available this morning. The very fanciest Elbertas teday sold as low as 25 cents and 50 cents was the top. Plums and prunes were almost unsaleable. Grapes were also a dreg on the market. Tokays sold as ow as $1.35.

Tomatoes were steady at 50 cents, the top rice. Bananas were rather scarce. The lemand was brisk, however, A fight between sweet potate distributors dealers declare is below cost.

The demand for Springs was brisk today. There were not enough to fill orders in 20,000. California is figured at 87,000 to some quarters. Small hens were in rather 16,000 bales and New York at 20,000 to 35. heavy supply, but the market is well cleaned up tonight, Fresh ranch eggs moved out at 40 cents. Butter was steady at the
