Though Bishop Surgess declined to bay what action would be taken, he did admit that he would seek an explanation at once from Dr. Handel.

This little episode, only one of a secre in Heinze's latest maneuvers, was the talk of Wall street today, where Heinze has frequently been seen recently. He is now passing a few days of his honeymoon on board a broker friend's yacht, lent for the "happy" occasion.

This episode is no less the topic of gossip than Mrs. French's suit, filed on the eve of the Heinze wedding. The workings of Mrs. French, alleged in behalf of Standard Oil, has given her the name of the "Titian-headed heauty, who ensuared Heinze."

More and interesting details are developing each day in the French-Heinze wase, as the outcome of a suft for the return of $25,000 worth of copper stock whe alleges she "loaned" him.

According to her complaint it appears that the famous Butte miner and copper imagnate proved an easy victim of the amount sleuth, who was able to furnish ther employers with such valuable information that they were able to break the pool in United Copper and force Heinze.

A prominent Wall street broker, who did not care to divulge his name, in speaking of the matter today, said:

"This red-headed beauty pumped the whole story of the pool out of Heinze in 1907 and took it in hot haste to 26 Broadway, where plans were immediately laid for fixing that 'fresh young fellow from Butte.' When Morse turned tail and threw his United Copper stock on the market, the Standard Oll people knew all about it and helped the work along. They smarked the pool to pleces and made heinze holler for help."

joining the Land Board from leasing tide land accretions to other fishing inter-ests and allowing the company its sosts and disbursements in the proceedings. The stipulation is signed by Attorney-General Crawford and Special Counsel C. W. and G. L. Fuiton, for the state. It is expected a formal order of the court is expected a formal order of the court will be given next Monday.

The land in question is situated in the Columbia River and is known as the Taylor Sanda, lying between the land already belonging to the fishing company and low tide, it being said that the land constitutes valuable fishing ground at high tide. The question has been at issue in the courts for years. M. Troyer and others have been making an effort to gain possession of the tide flats as fishing grounds and it came to an issue in June, 1908, when the State Land Board advertised it for lease and M. Troyer made an application for the lease of a made an application for the lease of a

Dr. H. W. Coe, Selling Agent, Is Absent and Wife Making Efforts to Float New Bonds.

Readjustment of the affairs of the Inland Irrigation Company of Stanfield is under consideration in consequence of a financial crisis in the big Eastern Oregon project. Owing to the immense cost of carrying on the extensive im-provement operations, efforts will be made to get additional funds for operation by floating a new bond issue of $400,000, the finances handled by Dr.

having proved insufficient. Inasmuch as Dr. Coe has been unable, in the face of the extensive expenditures, to set aside 75 per cent of the proceeds from the sale of lands to retire bonds held by W. J. Furnish, in accordance with contract, the company now faces a deficit, although early adjustment of the difficulty is assured by those inade to get additional funds for operathe difficulty is assured by those interested. Dr. Coe's liability to the company is said to approximate $50,000. In the absence of Dr. Coe, who left bree weeks ago for a sea voyage on count of his health, Mrs. Coe is carrying on negotiations for the refinanc-ing of the project. The plan is to se-cure funds to retire the $240,000 bonds held by Mr. Furnish and proceed with the work along new lines. In the past Dr. Coe has had 25 per cent of the pro-ceeds from the sale of lands for comnission and operating expenses, the balance going to the treasury.

In the event Mrs. Coe does not succeed in retiring the Furnish bonds, an effort will be made to arrange a new contract whereby the operations can be continued on an extensive scale. The committee on resolutions will undoubtedly hold one of the most interesting sessions ever held in Saratoga. A short time ago Roosevelt was inclined to let the subject of direct nominations slide. He is now thoroughly determined to fight the battle along that line. One thing that has converted him has been the nomination of Hiram Johnson in California.

Roosevelt will be a member of the committee on resolutions unless he is temporary chairman, and even in that event the ex-President probably will find it difficult to keep out of range of the real preliminary battle. Barnes is going on that committee and will be the field marshal for the regulars. Barnes is a forceful orator, and can be relied upon to say some things that will make Roosevelt's hair curl.

However, since President Taft has made his few re-marks about Sherman, practically ac-cusing him of treachery, this argument has lost much of its force and effect. Since the recent revelations. Sher-man has looked more like Gloomy Gus than he has like Sunny Jim. He re-fuses to see anyone or talk to anyone and is bowed down by trouble. Several of his personal friends have ad-vised him to dodge further sorrow by keeping away from Saratoga, and to sidestep the issue that will be raised by an announcement of illness. It by an announcement of illness, a Sherman has arrived at any decision

The peculiar thing of the present fight is that there is still no talk of candidates. Interest is confined to two questions: Will Roosevelt lick Sher-man? Will the convention declare for direct primaries?

All the agitation for direct primaries is confined to a small organization, headed by friends of Governor Hughes and which does not appear to be mak-ing any effort to gain recruits. The rank and file of the party seem to be thoroughly indifferent about the sub-
