

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

REGONIAN TELEPHONES.
COUNTING ROOM Main 7-10 A 6003
MANAGING EDITOR Main 7-10 A 6003
SUNDAY EDITOR Main 7-10 A 6003
COMPOSING ROOM Main 7-10 A 6003
CITY EDITOR Main 7-10 A 6003
PRINTING Main 7-10 A 6003

AMUSEMENTS

OUTRAGE THEATRE (Morrison, between afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
GRAND THEATRE (Park and Washington) tonight at 7:30 and 9.
LITRIC THEATRE (Seventh and Alder) tonight at 7:30 and 9.
STAB THEATRE (Park and Washington) Monday pictures. Continuous from 1:30 to 10:30 P. M.

WORK STARTS ON TAGGART STREET

SEWER WORK has been started on the Taggart street sewer, a branch of the Brooklyn sewer system, including East Tenth, East Ninth and East Eighth streets, south of the city hall. This is the district sewer between Milwaukee street and the Willamette river. The cost will be $10,000. The main sewer is laid so deep in Taggart street that it could not be reached and hence a 16-inch terra cotta sewer is being laid above to connect with the lateral on East Tenth, East Ninth and East Eighth streets. It has been found that it is costing the property owners in the Brooklyn sewer district $5 to $6 per cent more than the original estimate, but this increase is explained by the statement that the curb connections are being made to all lots which are usually made by plumbers in connecting the houses with the sewer, the cost of this connection being thus added to the lateral and subtracted from the plumber's bill.

MAN ARRANGES OWN FUNERAL.—"If you hadn't stopped me so quickly, I would have had my funeral all arranged," said Alfred Zareff, who had arranged for a man to take a revolver away from him and placed him under arrest Saturday night. Malton had been called to Zareff's home, 624 S. Belmont, by neighbors who reported on the phone that the man was beating his wife. The officer found the woman in the basement, weeping over her laundry work. She said that her husband would not work and that he had frightened the family Saturday morning by placing the revolver in his mouth and threatening to kill himself. Malton found Zareff in a saloon at Union avenue and Sacramento street and disarmed him.

EARLY MORNING TO BE PAVED NEXT YEAR.—East Morrison street will be improved with hard-surface pavement between Union avenue and the Morrison bridge approach next year, as soon as the completion of the Hawthorne bridge. The East Side Business Men's Club asked for the improvement of the street this fall, but it was not considered. It is now up to the street until the Hawthorne bridge had been finished and thrown open to the use of the public. The city will keep the plank roadway in order by constant repairs until the permanent pavement can be put down.

LEONARD STREET BEING IMPROVED.—As a result of persuasion by a committee of the University Heights Improvement Association, the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company has started to re-lay its double tracks on Leonard street on the Peninsula, between the Morrison hill and Washington avenue. Concrete sidewalks are being laid and the contractors for the pavement have a large force of men at work. J. W. Pedersen, president of the committee, said yesterday that the outlook for the early completion of the improvement was encouraging.

SANDY GRADE PLANS FESTIVAL.—The Sandy Grade Association has completed arrangements for holding the annual harvest festival Saturday, September 25. A list of prizes has been prepared, a considerable sum of money having been raised in Sandy. General agricultural and horticultural exhibits will be received and preserved for the Graham Orange Fair a week later. The committee was encouraged by the co-operation of the citizens of Sandy and the neighborhood.

EARLY SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES.—E. T. Aichey, president of the East Side Business Men's Club, says that arrangements are being made for a big meeting September 11, which will be a religious meeting of the club for Fall and Winter. Several prominent speakers will be present and deliver addresses. The club has received an invitation to appoint a special day and visit the Graham Orange Fair will accept. Cars will be chartered to carry a big crowd on the day selected.

THE ALLEN PREPARATORY SCHOOL will open Sept. 12. This school fits for all colleges and technical schools. Graduates accredited to all Western and several Eastern institutions. Students of the school passed college entrance examination for the Massachusetts School of Technology, Yale, Princeton and other colleges at the June examination. Strong courses in mathematics, science and languages.

RECTOR SCANDINAVIAN BACK FROM MEMPHIS.—Bishop Charles Scadding of the Episcopal church, returned last Saturday from Memphis. A stone Gothic church is to be built there. A business block is now in process of construction on land owned by the church, the work being in charge of Archdeacon Thomas. The church will cost $20,000.

CHURCH PRINTS PAPER.—The "Spirit of Today" is the name of the new paper printed by the East Side Baptist church. The first issue appeared yesterday. On the first page is a poem, "Our Union for Service," dedicated to the new East Side Baptist church, written by Mrs. Sara Reed Ford Elbert, wife of the pastor.

PUSH CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED.—Citizens of Metzger, on the line of the Oregon Electric Railway, will meet Monday night to organize a push club. The community desires telephone and a lower rate of car fare into the city. All citizens interested are invited to attend this meeting.

GIRL ARRESTED AS VAGRANT.—For appearing on the streets in a way not tolerated by the officers, Edith Earl, who says she is a cashier, was arrested at 9 o'clock last night at Second and Yamhill streets by officers Montgomery and Sawyer. She was jailed on a vagrancy charge.

A TRAIN of 20 cars will leave Fourth and Stark at 1:00 P. M. direct to the fair grounds. Round trip tickets 20 cents. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted to the grounds free today.

Men who have lived in Alaska invited to attend meeting Monday night September 12, 1910, assembly room, Commercial Club bldg., 5 P. M. Purpose of forming club.

OFFICES of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Arnold & Rothwell, general agent, moved to rooms 303-304 Spalding bldg.

ATVOMOBILES and carriages go out Broadway and Sandy Road to Portland fair and races. Perfect going all the way.

POLICE AFTER CAR ROWDIES.—Saturday night rowdies on the street cars are again becoming a problem with the police and the car company. A draft bill compelling some time ago against the hoodlums was effective for a while, but complaints are again growing in number, and another roundup is in contemplation. Patrolman Ben Peterson arrested Joe Volk and William Hill at Eleventh and Lane streets, Sellwood Saturday night, just after they had stepped off a car from the city. The group had become intoxicated and were bolting on the car. Peterson heard them yelling and swearing while they were several blocks away.

REPUBLICANS DISMANTLED.—Populists Go to the Army on Thursday evening, September 5, and hear how Dan J. Marley served the dear people in the Legislature in 1907 for $2 per day and at the same time served the predecessor of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. Learn how he became sanctified by signing Statement No. 1. Learn how Henry E. McGinn served the homes all his life and then became a saint in one day by endorsing Statement No. 1. Go and hear George W. Brinton tell how it was done and how much better a self-seeker for office nominates himself. Learn how much better it is to have the support of the Democrats and outgroups than Republicans. Learn why Democrats have registered as Republicans and what a holy form of perjury that is. Hear Walter Toomey, the silver-tongued orator of Falls City, tell what he knows about so-called Republicans working the Bourne game. Hear when he served the machine and how much better he is now. Hear him tell how Don J. Marley, as attorney for the Grand Central station, where it was located in 1907, served the "dear peepul" and his company at the same time. Hear Chas. T. Moore tell what a sanctified angel "Kerrel" Reber is. Hear the Bowserman quartet sing. Governor Bowerman and all the assembly candidates will be there.

DR. FOLKNER TO SPEAK.—Dr. William H. Faulkner will deliver the address at the meeting of the Portland General Ministers' Association at the Y. M. C. A. at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. His subject will be the "Story of the Great Edinburgh Missionary Conference. The nominating committee will report, giving a list of officers for the ensuing year.

PURCHASER HERE ON YACHT.—Rev. W. W. Youngson, pastor of the leading Methodist Church of East Oregon, N. J., is in Portland visiting at the home of Mrs. B. J. Westover. He will stay in Portland 10 days longer.

WIFE BEATER ARRESTED.—Ole Finseth, of 96 Fourth street, was disciplining his wife in no gentle manner at 120 West 60th day morning, with the aid of neighbors telephoned to the police station and Patrolman Frey hurried to the place. The officer found the woman weeping and the man abusing her. He was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct.

MONTHLY TABOR CLUB MEETS.—The Mount Tabor Improvement Association will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. B. J. Westover, 321 1/2 St. The club will discuss the extension of Belmont street from East Sixtieth street to the end of the street car track. In view of the injunction secured by the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company against the opening of the street, the club will adopt some plan to get the street extended. The club has secured an adjournment with the property owners.

ALBINA AVENUE IMPROVEMENT WANTED.—The North Albina Improvement Association will take up the improvement of Albina avenue south of Killingsworth, at the meeting tonight in the fire hall on Albina avenue. It is desired that the street shall be improved before winter sets in.

HOMEMAKERS' MEETING PLANNED.—Woodstock W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Fannie McCourt, Harold avenue and East 9th street. Each member is asked to bring the food she prepares best, also recipes for same.

LABOR DAY—Men's Sample Suits and Trouser, bearing the Union Label, on sale tomorrow from 8 a. m. until noon. Jimmie Dunn, 212 Oregonian Bldg., will keep your eyes on Wooster's, 108 Wash.

PORTLAND WOMEN'S UNION.—Monthly meeting today at 2:30 o'clock. At 5:15 P. M. members urged to be present.

FOR LIVE STOCK SHOW AND RACES.—Take cars on Washington street between 5th St. and 1st St. Overhead signs, "Race Track."

KINDERGARTEN RE-OPEN.—Miss Marie Clauson, 321 1/2 St. Street, Monday morning, Sept. 12th. Phone 2215.

DR. F. A. REISCHNER.—Returned, 713 Dekum.

CHILDREN under 12 will be admitted free today, at the fair grounds.

PRINTERS DENY AID

Plan to Raise Funds for Murder Defense Not Sanctioned.

APPEAL IS MADE IN EAST

Attorneys for Jesse P. Webb, Who Was Member of Union, Represent That Killing of Johnson Was in Self-Defense.

AMATEUR EDITORS MEET

PACIFIC COAST ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Delegates From Several States Attend Convention in Portland.

Local Club to Be Formed.

With about 20 delegates present, the seventh annual convention of the Pacific Coast Amateur Press Association was held at the Portland Hotel on Saturday afternoon, and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

The amateur writers' club is composed of lawyers, business men and newspaper men affiliated for the purpose of writing articles to be used in newspapers and periodicals throughout the United States.

The members get no remuneration for their efforts in the journalistic line, doing it solely for the love of it and for the criticism received. The Pacific Coast Association is affiliated with the United Amateur Press Association, an organization having branches throughout the United States.

The Pacific Coast Amateur, the official organ of the Pacific Coast branch, is a quarterly publication to which all the members of the association are privileged to contribute manuscripts. It has no paid subscribers and no advertisers. Each member receives a copy free. There are 200 members of the Pacific Coast association in the Western States.

At the convention held here Saturday were two ex-presidents of the United Amateur Press Association and the official editor of the United Amateur, its publication. The ex-presidents were J. F. Roy Erford and S. Parker Rowell, both of Seattle. F. Roy Davidson, also of Seattle, is the official editor of the publication. The directors of the convention from Washington, two from Idaho, and one from California and 14 from Oregon. Steps were taken to organize a Portland Amateur Press Club. Oscar S. Haugen is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

SIX AUTOISTS ARRESTED

Motorcycle Policemen Make Charges of Exceeding Speed Rules.

Six men charged with violation of the speed regulations fell victims to the vigilance of Patrolmen Sims and Evans of the motorcycle squad yesterday afternoon.

According to these officers, Charles Olsen, of 121 Portland boulevard, was going 25 miles when arrested. Elam Shaw, of 686 Going street, was going 25 miles at Grand avenue and Madison street. W. W. Robinson, 411 Good-nough building, succeeded in getting 25 miles out of his machine when he

"BIG BROTHERS" TO MEET

Speakers Will Discuss Plans to Help Boys, at Y. M. C. A.

"Big Brothers" of Portland will hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 6:15 o'clock tomorrow night, several speakers having been arranged for. Among the speakers will be Joseph C. Atredo, of San Francisco, bishop's aid to boys in the diocese of California, and G. Frank Shelby, of New York City, one of the originators of the movement.

Ex-Judge Earl C. Bronaugh will speak on "The Need of Big Brothers in Portland" at Women of Woodcraft Hall, at 3 P. M., September 11. This meeting is one of those to be held by the Pacific Coast International Conference of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The "Big Brothers" of Portland now number 70. The aim of the organization is the moral uplift of wayward youth. It is the belief of Mr. Shelby and others that many boys become delinquent because their home surroundings are not what they should be. The "Big Brothers" movement was started in an effort to give boys the right kind of companionship. Their slogan is "One man for one boy." Each member of the organization becomes responsible for the conduct of one delinquent lad. He visits with him, takes him to the ball games or to other wholesome entertainments, and looks after his welfare. It is thought by those interested in the movement that this will in most instances remove the necessity for Reform School sentences.

AMATEUR EDITORS MEET

PACIFIC COAST ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Delegates From Several States Attend Convention in Portland.

Local Club to Be Formed.

With about 20 delegates present, the seventh annual convention of the Pacific Coast Amateur Press Association was held at the Portland Hotel on Saturday afternoon, and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

The amateur writers' club is composed of lawyers, business men and newspaper men affiliated for the purpose of writing articles to be used in newspapers and periodicals throughout the United States.

The members get no remuneration for their efforts in the journalistic line, doing it solely for the love of it and for the criticism received. The Pacific Coast Association is affiliated with the United Amateur Press Association, an organization having branches throughout the United States.

The Pacific Coast Amateur, the official organ of the Pacific Coast branch, is a quarterly publication to which all the members of the association are privileged to contribute manuscripts. It has no paid subscribers and no advertisers. Each member receives a copy free. There are 200 members of the Pacific Coast association in the Western States.

At the convention held here Saturday were two ex-presidents of the United Amateur Press Association and the official editor of the United Amateur, its publication. The ex-presidents were J. F. Roy Erford and S. Parker Rowell, both of Seattle. F. Roy Davidson, also of Seattle, is the official editor of the publication. The directors of the convention from Washington, two from Idaho, and one from California and 14 from Oregon. Steps were taken to organize a Portland Amateur Press Club. Oscar S. Haugen is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

SIX AUTOISTS ARRESTED

Motorcycle Policemen Make Charges of Exceeding Speed Rules.

Six men charged with violation of the speed regulations fell victims to the vigilance of Patrolmen Sims and Evans of the motorcycle squad yesterday afternoon.

According to these officers, Charles Olsen, of 121 Portland boulevard, was going 25 miles when arrested. Elam Shaw, of 686 Going street, was going 25 miles at Grand avenue and Madison street. W. W. Robinson, 411 Good-nough building, succeeded in getting 25 miles out of his machine when he

"BIG BROTHERS" TO MEET

Speakers Will Discuss Plans to Help Boys, at Y. M. C. A.

"Big Brothers" of Portland will hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 6:15 o'clock tomorrow night, several speakers having been arranged for. Among the speakers

A CONSERVATIVE CUSTODIAN

HIBERNIA SAVINGS BANK

DOES A General Banking Business

Pays Interest on Savings and Time Deposits

Cor. Second and Washington Sts. Portland, Oregon

The Tull & Gibbs Store

Closed All Day Today in Observance of Labor Day

Visitors to the Portland Livestock Fair are invited to make this store their headquarters. Its many conveniences are yours to make the most of. Welcome!

Tull & Gibbs, Inc.

Morrison at Seventh

AMATEUR EDITORS MEET

PACIFIC COAST ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Delegates From Several States Attend Convention in Portland.

Local Club to Be Formed.

With about 20 delegates present, the seventh annual convention of the Pacific Coast Amateur Press Association was held at the Portland Hotel on Saturday afternoon, and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

The amateur writers' club is composed of lawyers, business men and newspaper men affiliated for the purpose of writing articles to be used in newspapers and periodicals throughout the United States.

The members get no remuneration for their efforts in the journalistic line, doing it solely for the love of it and for the criticism received. The Pacific Coast Association is affiliated with the United Amateur Press Association, an organization having branches throughout the United States.

The Pacific Coast Amateur, the official organ of the Pacific Coast branch, is a quarterly publication to which all the members of the association are privileged to contribute manuscripts. It has no paid subscribers and no advertisers. Each member receives a copy free. There are 200 members of the Pacific Coast association in the Western States.

At the convention held here Saturday were two ex-presidents of the United Amateur Press Association and the official editor of the United Amateur, its publication. The ex-presidents were J. F. Roy Erford and S. Parker Rowell, both of Seattle. F. Roy Davidson, also of Seattle, is the official editor of the publication. The directors of the convention from Washington, two from Idaho, and one from California and 14 from Oregon. Steps were taken to organize a Portland Amateur Press Club. Oscar S. Haugen is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Oscar S. Haugen, Portland, president; W. H. Gekeler, La Grande, vice-president; Miss Frances Moore, Seattle, secretary; Miss Nellie Goodrich, Lebanon, treasurer; Charles Kulin, San Francisco, manuscript manager; E. W. Allen, Seattle, Charles A. Pitt, Joseph, Idaho, and H. B. Rollins, Jr., Los Angeles, directors. C. O. Holdington of Harrington, Wash., was chosen official editor of the Pacific Coast Amateur. The convention place for September, 1911, is in charge of the movement.

The Tull & Gibbs Store

Closed All Day Today in Observance of Labor Day

Visitors to the Portland Livestock Fair are invited to make this store their headquarters. Its many conveniences are yours to make the most of. Welcome!

Tull & Gibbs, Inc.

Morrison at Seventh

F. W. BALTES AND COMPANY PRINTING

WHERE TO DINE. All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant. Fine private apartments for ladies. 305 Wash., near 6th st.

SCHWAB PRINTING CO. SOLICITS YOUR PATRONAGE 247 & STARK STREET

MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK PORTLAND

LETTERS OF CREDIT issued by this bank offer a safe and convenient method of carrying funds for a trip anywhere in this country or abroad. They are, in themselves, a letter of introduction to any banker and give the bearer standing and credit when among strangers.

THE PRINCE-CREST SHOE FOR MEN Made in Brockton, Massachusetts

FOR SALE BY ALL BEST DEALERS