Police Make 12 Arrests and Crowd Tries to Wrest Prisoners From Them.

HOT-HEADS URGE VIOLENCE

Hundreds Follow Officers to Station and Chief's Men Hard-Pressed. Trouble Begins as Teamsters' Pass Transfer Office.

Mob spirit broke loose yesterday afternoon when the Labor day parade passed the office of the Baggage and Omnibus Transfer Company, at Seventh and Oak streets, and for a time it seemed that blood would be shed before the disturbance was quieted. "Kill the cops! Mob him! Mob him!" yelled the crowd, as policemen led away some of its members. A screaming, yelling, boisterous mob jammed Oak street from Seventh street to the police station, striking wildly at policemen whenever an opportunity offered.

The long parade was just about to disband and the teamsters' union, out on strike against their employers, had just arrived abreast of the omnibus company's office at Seventh and Oak streets. A big gray crowd at the side door of the place and a few hotheads broke from the ranks on Sixth street and rushed up to H. Willing hands in pitiful numbers were applied to the tall wagon and it was overturned, breaking the tongue and frightening the big team that was attached to it.

Word was immediately telephoned to police headquarters and Captain Baly ordered Patrolmen Henson and Moloney to the place. Then, seeing the disturbance was growing, he supplemented this detail with all the available officers at the station, and a stream of bluecoats poured down the street on the run. Fortunately the day relief was just reporting off duty and the station was full of men.

Crowd is Augmented.

The patrolmen at once attempted to disperse the crowd and for a time experienced no difficulty. Fully 2000 persons crowded the square in front of the transfer company's building and its numbers were being constantly augmented by others, who came flocking from all directions. Still, as rapidly as possible the crowd was endeavoring to obey the orders of the officers, and good nature seemed to prevail, until D. T. Wyman, an elderly elevator attendant, precipitated trouble by refusing to obey Patrolman Burke. The latter put his man under arrest and started to lead him off.

At once a crowd of sympathizers formed around them, yelling, "Mob him! Trip him up!" Sergeant Riley seized one of the ringleaders and placed him under arrest.

Another man, carrying an American flag, thrust it into Riley's face, telling him to "start something" if he liked Riley did so by seizing the man by the coat and leading him away.

Patrolman Has Hard Time.

Frank Bohman, a bottle, refused to move on when ordered by Patrolman Stone, who arrested him. A crowd formed about them and tried to take the prisoner away. Stone was hard pressed, so a change to prisoner until Patrolmen Shafer and Taft arrived and cleared the crowd away. One of its members struck Stone in the face, but did little damage. Bohman also fought his captor, but was led to the jail.

Elias Abdia, a Syrian, not a member of a union, was a bystander, who tried to move when ordered, first by Patrolman Gruber and again by Patrolman Henson. The latter applied his knee to Abdia, who still resisted, and was arrested. The crowd attempted to rescue him, but Henson succeeded in getting his man to the jail.

Crowd Follows Officers.

As the officers led their prisoners down the street the dense crowd followed and surrounded them and the progress was a continual fight, though no blows were struck except as mentioned. The block in front of the station was packed to suffocation and reserves were ordered to clear the street. They succeeded in doing so after a time, aided by the cool-headed leaders of the unions, who, when once aroused to the seriousness of the matter, urged their followers to disperse. Occasionally a recalcitrant was seized and hurried into the station, until 12 in all had been incarcerated. Officers commenced dwindling slowly away, leaving only a fringe of its leaders.

Immediate offers of bail were made, but were refused by Chief of Police Cox until the prisoners had been booked and searched. Not until after 5 o'clock was bail accepted, when the release of the prisoners commenced. Charges of inciting a riot were placed against them, to be reduced later to a charge of refusing to move on in the mob aggravated cases. Bail of from $250 down was fixed, according to the nature of the case.

Twelve Men Arrested.

The men arrested and the charges made against them were:

Brewer Pearson, inneman, by Shafer and Montgomery, inciting riot.

Paul R. Henderson, teamster, by Burke, inciting riot.

Frank Hennick, teamster, by Montgomery, inciting riot. Hennick is accused of urging the crowd to attack Stone and take his prisoner away.

Frank Bohman, bottle, by Stone, inciting riot.

Elias Abdia, a Syrian laborer, refusing to move on.

Roy Ludwig, baker, by Shafer and Montgomery, inciting riot.

Ira R. Chapman, painter, by Sergeant Riley, inciting riot.

D. L. Wyman, elevator operator, by Burke, disorderly conduct.

Louis R. Chapman, painter, by Sergeant Riley, inciting riot.

Mike Murphy, plasterer, by Captain Baly, drunk and disorderly.

S. Jacobson, by Sergeant Riley, inciting riot.

Incident is Deplored.

The incident is deplored by the labor leaders, who make no attempt to excuse the conduct of the men responsible for the affair and say that the unfortunate termination of the day's celebration constitutes in some measure the show of strength made in the parade.

One non-union teamster made the mistake of running counter to the parade. Just as the parade was forming at Seventh and Davis streets, he attempted to drive through it and was halted. He at once lost his temper, drew a revolver and dismounted from his wagon, offering to whip the crowd. He was set upon, his revolver was taken away from him and he was severely beaten.

son, Fifth, Taylor, Fourth, Burnside, Third, Jefferson and Sixth streets, disbanding near Fourth and Pine after passing up Sixth.

Those in charge of yesterday's program endeavored to secure for Labor day speakers of National reputation, but as it was impossible to do so, there was no speech-making. Members of the Building Trades Council went to Council Crest after the parade, however, and members of all the unions took part in a ball at Christensen's Hall last night.

Musicians Work Overtime.

Asked why it was impossible to secure more bands for the parade, H. J. Parkinson, of the Portland Labor Press, said the unusual crowds at the theaters called for the employment of extra men, and made it impossible to secure the musicians.

In addition to the great crowd which witnessed the parade, thousands visited the livestock show, Council Crest, the baseball game, the Oaks, Oregon City and Cazadero. About 6000 people were handled to and from the livestock show by the streetcar company, and about 400 by the steam line.

The unions taking part in the parade were as follows:

International Brotherhood of Painters, local No. 10.

Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, local No. 25.

Carpenters' Union, No. 50.

Carpenters' Union, No. 808.

LABOR TEMPLE DEDICATED

Pittsburg Men Have New Home and Striking Miners Celebrate.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 5.—Labor day in Pittsburg was marked by the dedication of the Temple of Labor, a magnificent structure recently purchased by the Iron City Central Trades Council. A speech was made by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, who formally turned the building over to the Pittsburg union men. Following this one parade of organized workmen marched through the downtown streets. A picnic gathering of union men and their families was held at Westview Park. Weather conditions were ideal.

Large demonstrations were held at Greensburg and Latrobe, where the union coal miners have been on a strike for four months in the Greensburg-Irwin coal fields. At these places union men marched in parades and were addressed by prominent labor leaders.

WOMEN FEATURE IN PARADE

San Francisco Has 107 Unions and Many Bands in Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 5.—Forty thousand men marched here today in the first Labor day parade since the recent affiliation of the Labor Council and the Building Trades Council. Grand Marshal John A. Kelley, president of the Board of Supervisors, led the host of union men.

Besides the squads of marchers, a number of floats lent color to the parade. A novel feature of the procession was the attractive divisions composed of women. There were 107 unions with 20 bands and as many drum corps.

The afternoon celebration consisted of various picnics at Shell Mound Park, Oakland, where a number of candidates for state offices at the coming election addressed the unionists.

MITCHELL WANTS NEW LAW

Ex-President of Mineworkers Speaks at Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 5.—John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mineworkers, in a Labor day address today, spoke in favor of better laws for the protection of workmen. "A well-known writer," said Mr. Mitchell, "asserts that 500,000 workmen are killed or maimed annually in the United States."

"That means that more lives are sacrificed and more workmen are injured each year in the peaceful conduct of our industries than were sacrificed in any one year during the Civil War."

MAYOR SEIDL LEADS MARCH

Milwaukee Executive and Friends in Council Walk in Parade.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 5.—The feature of Milwaukee's Labor day parade was the marching at the head of the column of Mayor Emil Seidel, the Mayor's supporters in the Common Council and the Socialist-Democratic members of the County Board.

Five thousand marchers were in line.

Curing Catarrh

Accept Our Advice and Try This Remedy at Our Risk

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe ReCall Mucuo-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with his remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give ReCall Mucuo-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that anyone could make and should at least our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. ### TROOPS HELD IN CHECK

National Guard Ordered to Remain in Camp That Unions May Have No Cause to Complain of Interference With March.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 5.—The National Guard troops brought here for strike duty were practically prisoners in their two camps because of orders that none of them should leave camp during the big Labor day parade unless serious disorder broke out. The military authorities said they were not going to give the labor leaders a chance to declare that the soldiers were used to prevent union workers from celebrating the day.

The 300 troops brought in yesterday are camped on a lot adjacent to the Ohio State University. The other troops are camped at the State Deaf and Dumb Asylum. They will be kept here all week during the state fair.

Twelve thousand men were in the parade, all walking. The striking streetcar men headed the parade with their wives and children, who were in wagons. There was no disorder.
