Angels Take Morning Game but McCredie's Men Come Back in Afternoon.

THIRD NAGEL'S WATERLOO

Locals Fill Bases With Nobody Out in Second Game and Visiting Twirler Has Bad Time, Four Scores Being Net Result.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 4-5, Los Angeles 1-4. Oakland 1-4, Sacramento 0-1. San Francisco 6-2, Vernon 2-2. Standing of the Clubs.

The Beavers wound up their semi-final home stand by getting an even break on the Labor day double-header with Los Angeles yesterday and left for the Southland on the Shasta Limited last night to hook up in a long series with the Oakland club commencing tomorrow.

Each game was quite interesting, though the after-dinner performance was easily the best of the two. Lack of ginger at times marred the morning game, while the untastefulness of Beales was apparent from the start.

Third Nagel's Waterloo.

In the afternoon, Walter Nagel disposed of the Beavers quite handsily for two innings, and was as stingy with hits as a miser with pennies. However, he lost control of the evening of the third inning, and then followed a wild streak with a long play on a bunt, which allowed the Beavers to fill the bases.

A similar situation arose in the morning game when the Angels pulled off a triple play, dashing the hopes of the fans, and the big afternoon crowd pulled for a hit that would not result in disaster. Ivan Olson proved the hero, for he smashed one over Nagel's head, which also sailed safely between Howard and Debus and Oet and Krapp.

Krapp Performs Well.

Menwhiff, Krapp was ambled along, passing an occasional batter, or allowing a hit, but when it came to the pinch, he was stingy. However, in the eighth Krapp was picked for two hits that counted a run for the Angels. Delmus got on with an infield tap that could not be handled by Olson in time to get the batter at first, and the Angels advanced.

Boice Is Unsteady.

In the morning game, Boice, was unsteady from the start, and bunched his together with bases on balls, along with a couple of errors allowed the visitors to score almost at will.
