EFFECT OF ROOSEVELT'S TALK ON STOCK PRICES.

Recovery Follows the Early Decline. Balances of Interior Banks Are Being Replenished.

NEW YORK. Sept 6.—The professional trading element had the stock market almost to itself today. Operations were largely in United States Steel, Reading and Union Patific. The delivery of Colonel Roccavely's address before the Congretation Congress its set. Find and its appearance on the news ticker was followed by a recovery which reduced declines to fractions. The comparisons thus made possible between the views on the same topic of the President and his predicessor brought out sharply the divergent lines of their thought and deepered an integrating the political guillook.

The weekly bank statement, which appeared on Saturday, during the three days recess of the stock exchange, disclosed more rapid depletion of cash systems than had been an infigured from the preliminary estimates. That the interior demand for cash for crop movement purposes is now in full force continues manifest from the further movement reported today. The heavy movement of corn to market test is an infilience in this direction and affected the price of that strain today also.
