Offer to Accept Tooze's Challenge to Debate Interrupted by Shouts. Issues of Campaign Defined and Slanders Refuted.

Assembly Republicans opened their campaign in Multnemah County last night before a gathering of 1000 people at the Armory. Campaign issues were defined, assembly principles made clear and the lie was flung in the teeth of detractors who have been misrepresenting the assembly as under corporation do-

Exciting scenes marked the closing mo ments of the meeting when Dan J. Ma-State Senate, attempted to reply to a charge made by Walter L. Tooze, one of the speakers of the evening. Mr. Tooze represented that the anti-assembly man comers in debate.

"If you will debate with me, when will you do it?" demanded Mr. Malarkey.

Julius Silvestone, an anti-assembly Republican, who was standing near Mr. Mainrkey in the gallery, became indig-mant at the affront to Mr. Maiarkey at this stage and shouted incoherent exclamations until M. C. George, who was presiding, arose and called on him to gosist. Silvestone kept on talking. "If there is an order up there, put that man out," ordered Judge George ginally, and Silvestone then subsided.

Herculean Task of Checking Over Petitions and Getting Names of Candidates Ready for Ballot Being Pushed Along.

Although yesterday was the last day for candidates to file their petitions, County Clerk Fields said last night he would accept all petitions which were in the mail and postmarked at midnight last night. Deputy County Clerk Schneider remained at the Court-house ready to receive petitions until midnight last night, but few were brought in after 8 o'clock.

The enormous task of checking over the petitions and getting the names of the various candidates, with their plat-forms, ready for the ballot, is now being pushed as rapidly forward as the clerks can work. It is expected that a few petitions will be discarded and the candidates disfranchised because of insufficient names, or failure to have the signatures properly certified. Charles E. Lockwood, who is running for precinct committeeman in Precinct 23, rushed to the Courthouse late last night, remembering that his name had not been certified to. had his petition put in proper shape before the time expired last night. The list of declarations received by Fields up to late last night is as

VETERINARIANS AIM TO CHECK BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS.

Committee Recommends Contact Between Infected and Healthy Cattle Be Prevented Everywhere.

SAN FRANCISCO. Sept. 8.-The feature of today's session of the American Vet-erinary Medical Association was the reading and adoption of the report of the International Commission on the control of bovine tuberculosis. The Commission consisted of 16 members of international reputation and held its first meeting at Buffalo, N. Y., last December and later continued its work at Detroit, Mich.; Ottawa. Canada, and Madison, Wis. Among the more important suggestions con-tained in the report are the following: As a general policy to be observed, all contact between tuberculosis and healty cattle should be prevented. For the accomplishment of this several specific recommendations are made.

That tuberculin properly used is an accurate and reliable dianostic agent for the detection of active tuberculosis.

That a positive reaction to the tuberculin in any properly conducted test, of-ficial or otherwise, in any herd, should be considered evidence sufficient upon which to declare the herd to be infected. The commission favors The commission favors compulsory notification by owners and veterinarians of the existence of tuberculosis in a herd

"You have a far greater number of Grands and a more beautiful assortment than I have ever seen displayed, even in the largest Eastern plane houses," is the way the traveling representative of a big Eastern plane manufacturer yesterday described the exhibition of Baby Grands at Ellers Music House.

House, "Extraordinary" is really the word to use in describing the collection, for its equal has never before been undertaken anywhere. It indicates, not only the high quality of instruments which Western homes are demanding, but it conveys also the correct impression of the wonderful resources of Ellers Music House as applied to take exhibition. When the exhibition first opened, about a week ago, the big Recital Hall, which was especially cleared for the purpose, was inadequate and it was found necessary to utilize a considerable portion of the Autopiano Rooms as well.

THE MISSION OF THE GRAND.

Every cultured home, every teacher of music, and every music student should have, and will eventually want a Grand Piano. It's the ultimate instrument. Nothing else is so ideal for musical instruction and interpretation. No other type of instrument can rival its breadth and richness of tone—limmarvelously rapid velvety action. It's the plano par excellence for schools, lodges, conservatories, clubs, halls and churches.

All these superb instruments are obtainable under the Ellers well-known reduced-price policy, representing substantial savings on each and every instrument. See a glorious little Baby Grand in mahogany, reduced price $858; an elegant ebonized Steinway, $785; two fine mahogany Webers, reduced $230 and $315; a magnificent quartered oak (mission finish) Kinball Baby Grand, $815, and many others.
