Doubleheaders Are Enjoyed.

Evidentiy the Oakiand followers of the game in connection with a large gathering from San Francisco side of the bay enjoy double-headers, for the stands were well filled before the time the first game started, were filled com-pletely before the second was under way, and but few people left until the Oaks had cinched the second and di-vided honors for the afternoon. Seaton pitched most of the first game for the Beavers, although when the Oaks appeared dangerous toward the close he was hastily removed in favor of Krapp, who finished out with-out further trouble. Krapp was less fortunate, for there was no one to take his place when he showed signs of trouble toward the end of his own game.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Philadel-phia easily defeated Brooklyn today. Previously, when Christian was in danger, he had been replaced by Har-kins, but McCredie evidently thought that Krapp was capable of going into hot water The second game was the one that carried most of the thrills. In the eighth, the Oaks should have won and in the ninth the Beavers had their one grand oppor-tunity, but missed fire. when McCredie's men managed to put across a run in the 11th it looked as if they were to score twice on the Commuters, but Krapp, who has had little luck pitching against the second-place men, went high in the air and gave the game away. CHICAGO, Sept. 3.-It appears as if the Chicago Cub baseball team will be deprived of the services of Pitcher Orval Overall, one of the most dependable men on Marager Chance's staff.

How long Overall will be compelled to remain out is not known. He does not know himself. When he warms up in preliminary practice there does not seem to be any pain, but as soon as he gets into a game and extends himself the ligament in the elbow seems to knot and use him moments of agony. It has been othering him for two weeks now. He ried to pitch yesterday and had to give

Overall himself does not think the injury is serious, but he is unable to dis-cover why it does not getswell. He is treating it continually and now the only thing that may do the arm good is a rest, and it is likely Manager Chance will ad-vise him to lay off for awhile.
