

CAMPAIGN ENTERS VIGOROUS STAGE

Pros and Cons of Assembly Movement to Be Discussed From Many Platforms.

BUSY WEEK IS OUTLINED

Democrats Plan No Orator, But Rely on Silent Work—Indications Are That Meetings Will Not Be Very Tame.

During the next 14 days the voters of Multnomah County will be fairly besieged by political meetings. Assembly and anti-assembly candidates for office enter today upon the home stretch in the pre-primary campaign, and both sides have planned to wage a swift and spirited contest for popular favor.

The anti-assembly campaign in the Democratic ranks will be of the padded slipper variety. Interest centers on the fight for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Friends of Jefferson Myers insist that he will get two votes to every one received by Oswald West. Mr. West has not lost hope, however, and his supporters are working hard for him.

The anti-assembly Republican home-stretch spurt will be led by Henry McGinn, candidate for Circuit Judge in this district. Mr. McGinn will appear on the street on Seventh, between Washington and Stark streets, and in behalf of the anti-assembly element, tell what he thinks about the assembly. Simultaneously another anti-assembly meeting will be held at Baker's Hall, Alberta and East Seventeenth streets. The speakers will be John F. Logan, anti-assembly spell-binder; George W. Joseph, candidate for State Senator; and Seneca Fouts, who aspires to the Legislature.

Assembly Campaign Opens Tuesday.

The assembly speakers will start their moving Tuesday with a mass meeting at Bellwood. The speakers will be C. N. McArthur, C. B. Moore, Walter L. Toose, John E. Coffey, George McMillan and George W. Stapleton. Exploding Mr. Toose, all are candidates for office. It is announced that the slanderous statements of the Democrats and detractors of the assembly will be met and arguments presented in support of the assembly cause.

The assembly speakers will appear Wednesday night at a meeting at the Hawthorne Park tabernacle, and Saturday night at Troutdale. The anti-assembly speakers will appear Thursday night at the same place, and Saturday night at Troutdale.

The anti-assembly meeting of Tuesday night will be at the Hawthorne Park tabernacle, and the speaker will be Dan J. Malarsky, candidate for Joint State Senator. His topic is to be "Statement No. 1, the Assembly and Walter L. Toose's Case of Cold Feet." He announces that he will explain in detail his arduous efforts to induce Mr. Toose to enter into a debate with him in assembly issues, after Mr. Toose had accepted a challenge to debate.

A second anti-assembly meeting will be held Tuesday night at Gresham, at which the speakers will be County Judge F. J. Hiestand, who is a candidate to succeed himself, and Henry E. McGinn. Wednesday night Messrs. Malarsky and Clifton will appear at Clifton, while Messrs. Logan, Fouts and Joseph will hold forth at Fireman's Hall, Killingsworth and Albina avenues. Mr. Malarsky will be the sole performer Thursday night at a meeting in Waverly Hall, East Twenty-sixth and Clinton streets. Friday night A. R. Joy and C. M. Coleman will be the speakers at the meeting at Blair's Hall, Williams avenue and Russell street. Mr. McGinn will be the sole speaker of the Saturday night meeting in the Hawthorne Park tabernacle.

In addition to this programme the anti-assembly campaigners have arranged for a series of meetings to be held on the street opposite the Seventh-street entrance of the Imperial Hotel. At least one speaker will appear there each evening. There is every indication that the meetings will be anything but tame affairs. Charges and counter charges have already been tossed back and forth between the contending elements. It is certain that further unkind things are to be said by this and that candidate against the others.

The reception accorded the assembly speakers in outlying districts will be watched with deep interest, inasmuch as those districts are commonly reported to be anti-assembly strongholds.

TIDE TURNING TO ASSEMBLY

Claude Strahan Finds People Turn to Party Organization. "The tide of public opinion is turning our way," yesterday declared Claude Strahan, assembly candidate for Justice of the Peace in the Portland district, who is making a whirlwind campaign for the primary nomination, and will join the assembly candidates in speaking when the dates of public meetings are announced.

YOUTH LIKES TO WALK

So Policeman Jokingly Makes Him Cover Six Miles for Fun.

How would you feel if you had missed your last car some night and had to walk home nearly three miles, and then were stopped within a few blocks of your house by a policeman who asked you to give an account of yourself? And when you told him that you were fond of walking, suppose he should order you to go back the three miles to the police station and tell the captain that he sent you there, would you do it? This is what happened to Charles Zimmerman, of 349 Vancouver avenue, about 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He was walking home after missing his last car, when he was stopped at Larrabee street and Vancouver avenue by Patrolman G. E. Fuller, who asked him where he was going at that time of night. "I'm going home," said Zimmerman. "You must be fond of walking," said the officer. "I am," said Zimmerman. "Then you just walk back to the police station and tell the captain I sent you there," said the patrolman.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF PORTLAND DIES AT AGE OF 68.

James Beal, a pioneer resident of Portland, died at his home at East Twenty-ninth and Harrison streets, yesterday morning, aged 68 years. Mr. Beal was born in Gurnsey County, Ohio, May 6, 1842. At the age of 10 years he emigrated with his parents to Illinois. Later the family removed to Iowa. In 1863 he joined a party of immigrants bound for California, and arrived in Marin County, this state, in the Autumn of the same year. Having no success in the gold fields, he decided to make his home in Oregon. Several years he made his home with Captain Robert McCalla in this city. In 1878 Mr. Beal married Mrs. Elvira Campbell, who survives him.

The funeral will be held from the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be at Riverview cemetery. The pallbearers will be George Robertson, W. N. Gary, Richard Price, O. Mendenhall, George Shearer and William Zigler.

able to get his breath. Even the astonished Zimmerman had to smile then. "Well, I guess I am a fall guy," he said as he stepped on the third time.

KEY TO ACTION FOUND

INDOREMENT OF KING AND SLATER IS EXPLAINED.

Presence of Democrats at State Lawyers' Assembly Turns Tide for Them.

In a checking over of the names of those who attended the recent state assembly at Astoria, it was noted that virtually every Democratic lawyer in the city was present, which is taken as an explanation of the indorsement of W. T. Slater and W. R. King, Chamberlain Supreme Court appointees, to succeed themselves as justices on a so-called non-partisan ticket.

Of the 1500 lawyers of the state there were just 116 present at the state assembly and of that number at least 100 were Democrats. Few lawyers from points outside Multnomah County were present. The majority of those not Democrats were young attorneys of no field political experience who really were for the demonstrations made in behalf of the Democratic supporters of Justice Slater and King.

It was also found that a number of those who attended were not practicing law at all, being clerks or stenographers in the offices of law firms. A number of well known corporation lawyers also took part, joining in the indorsement of the Chamberlain appointees, which serves as a refutation of the grand stand assembly charge that the corporation are mainly wrapped up in the assembly. Among the corporation lawyers noted were Alex Sawek, who organized and for long time represented the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank; D. E. Johnston, attorney for DuBois Lumber Company; R. Dunaway, attorney for Pacific Mills Company; L. J. Thomas G. Greene, attorney for the Portland Brewing Company; Martin L. Papes, attorney for the Olympia Brewing Company; P. P. Dabney, attorney for the Title & Trust Company; Wirt Minor and A. B. Winfree, attorneys for Miller & Lux, a big California corporation; also attorneys for many large interests locally; Alex Bernstein and D. Solis Cohen, attorneys for the Olympia Bottling Works; J. A. Beckwith, attorney for the Oregon Art Tile Company; Oscar Hayter, of Dallas, counsel for the Falls City & Western Railway Company and local counsel for the Southern Pacific Company; J. H. and A. M. Smith, attorneys for North Pacific Brewing Company, Clatsop Mill Company and Astoria counsel of the Standard Oil Company; also R. E. Jay, attorney for the Portland Hardware Company.

HEATING PLANT IS READY

Danger of Fire in Asylum for Insane Is Materially Reduced.

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The new heating plant at the State Asylum for the Insane, provided for as a portion of the $120,000 appropriated for new buildings at that institution, is completed and was partially put into operation today. It will be fully opened tomorrow.

For several years there has been constant fear that a disastrous fire might break out, as the old system was considered by the superintendent as exceedingly dangerous. With the new heating plant in operation chances of a fire are said to be reduced to a minimum.

FOOD SHOW READY FOR OPENING TODAY

Queens' Parade to Herald Formal Beginning of World's Fair in Miniature.

110 EXHIBITS IN PLACE

Entire Process of Preparation of Products to Be Shown by Demonstration Factories—Need of Auditorium Shown.

The Pure Food and Industrial Exposition, a miniature world's fair under the roof of the Armory, will be opened to the public tonight, with all the noise, display and extravaganza of a modern and more expensive exposition out of doors. Carpenters and electricians have nearly all of their work completed and the exhibitors will put on the finishing touches today, so that all will be ready for the reception of the public, following the queens' parade at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The queens' parade will start from the Portland Hotel promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Headed by a band it will move through the business streets. Officers of the Retail Merchants' Association and the Retail Grocers' Association, under whose joint auspices the Pure Food and Industrial Exposition will be held, will ride in automobiles at the head of the parade. The 10 queens, all beautiful young women, representing 10 districts of the city, will be next in line. A glimpse will also be had of "the mysterious woman with the red mask."

This mysterious woman, wearing a red mask, is a prominent Portland woman, whose identity will be concealed until the last night of the show. Each afternoon and night she will give a Spanish dance on the stage in the Armory, but her features will always be hidden by a red mask.

Queen to Wear Diamond Ring.

When the parade reaches the Armory the 10 queens will take their places in the queens' court for public view. For each paid admission a ballot will be issued, which may be cast for a favorite for real queen of the exposition. The selection will be left to the public and the young woman who has the most ballots on the night before the show closes will be officially declared queen and will be crowned and crowned on the last night. Besides being designated the official queen she will be presented with a $100 diamond ring.

The exposition will present all the features of a world's fair, stripped of the demands on the purse met at every turn. Once inside it will be a free show. A. A. Tremp, director-general of the exposition, has provided special entertainment features for each afternoon and night, in addition to the regular programme. Among these will be the public marriage of a Chinese merchant of Portland to a white girl of this city. It was with difficulty that Director-General Tremp obtained the consent of this bride and bridegroom to have the knot tied in public, but matters have progressed far enough to give reasonable assurance the event will occur as scheduled. The ceremony will be according to Chinese custom and a Chinese orchestra will furnish the music.

Aisles Named for Streets.

The interior of the Armory will be a show itself. The aisles between the booths and exhibits have been named for the business streets of Portland, and cluster lights of the most brilliant kind at each corner will illuminate the building.

The 110 exhibitors have made their displays so compact that ample room is left for the crowds in the aisles. Pyramids of canned goods, cartons of food stuffs, ham and bacon, dainties, staple and fancy groceries, are to be seen. The exhibits will be shown to the best advantage. Miniature factories have also been installed so that the spectators may see the entire process of preparation of the products of the exposition. The magnitude of the exposition may be grasped when it is known that 350 young women will be employed to demonstrate with the food products.

Tonight will be the grand opening. Mayor Simon will deliver an address and Postmaster McKelvey will respond. The 10 queens will be in the public and complete the ceremonies.

Babies to Win Prizes.

As a special feature for tomorrow afternoon, there will be a baby show, three silver cups to be awarded to the three prettiest babies and three silver cups to the three fattest babies.

Tomorrow night is grocery night, when all the grocers of Portland will take in the aisles as well as inspect the food products. "If we only had an auditorium for this show," said Director-General Tremp yesterday, "we could certainly make it a prize winner. We have been compelled to turn many away who wanted to see the exhibits before the public. Many of the 110 we have in the Armory wanted two and three times the amount of space allotted to them. By economizing on the food of space and making the exhibits compact, we have managed to accommodate these 110 and still leave room for a parade, a baby show, and a grocery show to come over and the people see what can be done in the Armory they will realize the necessity of an auditorium, where the next exposition may be more elaborate."

WOMEN'S CLUBS ORGANIZE

Union Will Seek to Better Working Conditions for Members.

As a result of the temporary organization of the Portland local of the Retail Clerks' International Association, which was effected last Thursday evening, a mass meeting held yesterday afternoon in Labor Temple at Fourth and Alder resulted in a permanent organization. A charter will be sent for at once.

Mrs. Frank W. Cotterill, who is the state organizer, presided at yesterday's meeting and lent it the benefit of her experience along this line gained in other Northwestern cities. The committee representing the Central Labor Council was present and signified the willingness of the latter body to lend any assistance needed in perfecting the organization of the Retail Clerks' Association. "Until the arrival of the charter, which is expected in 10 days, no officers will be elected. Pending this, Mrs. Cotterill is acting as general manager of the movement. She plans to remain in Portland for one year in the furtherance of her work among the girl clerks, and has mapped out an extensive campaign for bettering their working conditions, including an 8-hour day, and a raise over the $17.50 average monthly salary allowed women clerks.

CONVENTION IS OPPOSED

PLAN TO AMEND CONSTITUTION CONDEMNED BY SPEAKER.

Members of Woodlawn Grange Told That It Is Unnecessary, Expensive and Dangerous.

That the proposed constitutional convention, to be voted on at the November election, is unnecessary as well as expensive and dangerous, was the keynote of the address made Saturday night by W. H. H. Dufur at the meeting of the Woodlawn Grange. Several initiatives measures were also discussed. Mr. Dufur opposed the constitutional convention from every point of view. He said in part: "With our initiative and referendum law a constitutional convention is not necessary for the people of this state have it in their power to change any part of the constitution they see fit. If we hold a constitutional convention we must admit that our initiative and referendum law is ineffective. Such a convention would be a heavy and useless expense to the state, and besides, it might be dangerous. Necessarily it would be made up principally of lawyers, who are more or less connected with the constitutional convention and their judgment would be warped in the direction of the corporations."

Boy Narrowly Escapes Flames.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—During the night the residence of J. M. Thorne on Polson street was destroyed by fire while the family was away from home. A son, Charles Thorne, was in the house at the time and had a narrow escape. None of the contents was saved. The loss approximates $2000.

NEW STRENGTH FOR BAD BACKS

Thousands of men and women who work every day have lame, weak, aching backs. They do not know that bad backs are caused by sick kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills have given strong, sound backs and well kidneys to a multitude of suffering men and women.

Backache is usually kidney-ache. The kidneys are in the small of the back, and when they get congested, inflamed and swollen (a cold, fever, strain or hurt will often start the trouble) there is a dull, heavy, dragging pain right in the small of the back, that changes at times to sharp, shooting pains, or stab-like twinges when stooping or lifting.

It is torture to bend or straighten, hard to sit down or get up, or even to turn over in bed. You rise in the morning tired, sore and lame. And when the urine is dark-colored, cloudy, or contains sediment like grains of sand, when passages are too frequent or scanty, or scalding hot, you have double proof that your kidneys need attention. Neglect may bring on gravel, dropsy or a bad case of Bright's disease or diabetes.

FIRE FIGHTERS FEAST

MEDFORD MAKES MERRY FOR MAJOR MARTIN'S MEN.

350 Soldiers Who Were on Duty Near Butte Falls Are Entertained and Start for Portland.

MEDFORD, Ore., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The soldiers of the First Infantry in command of Major Martin, who have been fighting forest fires around Butte Falls were guests of the Medford Commercial Club today. They arrived from Eagle Point 250 strong this morning at 11 o'clock, and left for Portland at 8 o'clock this evening.

Medford's large swimming pool at the natatorium was given over to the soldiers, who splashed, dove, swam and soiled much to the delight of several hundred spectators.

The 13 commissioned officers of the troop were given a luncheon at which many thanks were tendered the Army officers by the citizens for the excellent service that they had rendered Southern Oregon in quelling the forest fires. After the luncheon the officers were taken through the principal orchards of the Valley in automobiles.

Grows Hair on Bald Heads

A Remedy That Costs Nothing if It Fails to Do as Claimed.

Research is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, also a powerful anti-septic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, and thus creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new growth.

Pilocarpine is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease. Yet it is not a coloring matter or dye. It is a tonic which nourishes the roots, supplies hair nutriment and stimulates a new growth.

We want you to try a few bottles of Rexall "33" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "33" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except of course where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "33" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for hundreds of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Portland only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Cor. 7th and Washington Sts.
