BOOSTERS WILL MEET TONIGHT.—The East Side Business Men's Club will open its Fall improvement campaign tonight at a general meeting in Logushall, third floor, northwest corner of Grand avenue and East Stark streets Cigars will be supplied, there will be music by an orchestra and addresses will be delivered. All business men and property owners on the East Side are invited to attend. Following is the programme of addresses: C. C. Chapman, new manager of the Commercial Club, who will tell how to boost the East Side; C. C. Colt, president Union Meat Company, who will tell about the Livestock Show; C. C. Craig, president of the "Live Wires," who will tell about the proposed auditorium and how badly Portland needs it; C. C. Hall, John S. Beal, J. Rousselet and R. W. Gill, president of the Gresham Grange Fair Association. The Rose Festival committee will make its final financial report.

Friends Quarrel Over Washing.—Inc.

will make its final financial report.

Friends Quarrel, Over Washing-Inez Davey and Mrs. Otto Gentrick were formerly good friends and bosom companions. They roomed in the same house, in adjoining rooms, but one day Mrs. Gestick's washing was not returned and when she met Miss Davey on the street the latter was wearing one of her shirtwaists. Mrs. Gestick charged her erstwhile friend with having taken her washing, and when the assertion was denied, she swore out a warrant for the woman's arrest. Miss Davey was taken into custody by Constable Wagner yesterday. Justice Olson will hear the case today.

Room-Mate and Money Go.-Peter.

Clison will hear the case today.

Room-Mate and Money Go.—Pete Nodene "scraped" an acquaintance with William Backlund in a North End saloon Saturday night, and the two took a room together in a cheap lodging-house. When Backlund awakened in the morning, his companion was gone, and so was one of his socks which contained $24 the coin and currency. Backlund yesterday swore out a warrant before District Attorney Cameron charging Nodene with larceny from the person, and Constable Wagner later arrested the man and lodged him at the County Jail.

MRS. THORPS ELECTED ART SUPERINGENDENT.—Mrs. Ida M. Thorpe, of Gresham, formerly of Portland and well known here, has been elected superintendent of the art department of the County Grange Fair to be held at Gresham beginning September 29. Mrs. Thorpe is known to be an arrist of ability and has herself exhibited some creditable paintings. To make her department a success this year. Mrs. Thorpe is asking the co-operation of all artists and lovers of art.

REALTY BOARD MIETS TODAY.—Realty outspokenly taken sides against it.

A jury impanelled by Coroner Norden last week censured the Council for its failure to provide a type of fender for the streetcars, and because of this it is believed that a special effort will be made today to pass upon some device, in order that the company may install it at once.

A date for the city's special election will also be fixed. It has been recommended by the committee on judiciary that a separate day be provided for this, as the state and county election November 8 will probably re-

Squash Resembles Ball Bat.—Prize pumpkins of enormous weight have been one of the standards of county fairs for generations, but it remained for Klamath County to exhibit an Italian squash that resembles a baseball bat in shape. The unique specimen reached the office of P. C. Lavey & Co. yesterday and measures 50 inches from point to point. Lying on top of an ordinary office desk the squash extends across and sticks out at either side. The specimen was raised on tule land on the border of Klamath Lake and is gaid to be the longest specimen of the variety ever produced.

Paralless Stemkes William Aber-Pupils Take Up Studies but It Is Expected That Several Thousand More Will Be Registered During Coming Week.

School attendance yesterday showed an increase of 845 over Monday, bringing the total enrollment up to 20,759. This is 2936 more than were enrolled on Tuesday of the first week last year. and is a falling off of the percentage of increase compared with Monday, when the opening day started off with when the opening day started off with 3150 more pupils than in 1209.

The school term actually began yesterday morning when pupils took up their studies. It is expected that several thousand more will join the student ranks during the week and the big increase noted on the first day probably will be maintained. On account of the large increase in attendance, largely due to families that have moved to Portland since last year, a weeding out process will be necessary for the first few days, to assign children to proper grades.

It is being urged that a continuation of the Democratic successes, as evidenced in Kansas and Maine, will mean that Congress will officially indorse New Orleans. The situation was also complicated by the announcement that Chicago commercial bodies had officially withdrawn their support of San Francisco in favor of New Orleans.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce directors were in session when the message from San Francisco arrived and immediately decided to join hands with California in the interests of the Pacific Coast.
