RESULTS GREAT SURPRISE

Early Returns From Washington Primaries Show That State Has Joined Insurgent Column by Big Pluralities.

(Continued From First Page.) candidate receiving the highest vote and there can be no hitch over the election of PoinDEXTER.

PoinDEXTER Gets Labor Vote.
In Seattle and King County, PoinDEXTER seems to have received the combined labor, insurgent and Democratic vote. Samuel Gompers had sent word to the labor organizations of the state urging the election of PoinDEXTER. The labor unions also opposed Humphrey, the Coast Seamen's Union leading the fight against him and in favor of Revell. Humphrey was attacked during the campaign because of his authorship of the ship subsidy bill, former friendliness for Speaker Cannon and alleged unkindness to labor bills.

KLIKITAT VOTE IS LIGHT

PoinDEXTER Leads in White Salmon, Biggen and Fruit Valley.

RRISTOL, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The preponderating vote in three precincts of Fruit Valley, Biggen and the town of White Salmon favors PoinDEXTER. The vote is light. Unanimous sentiment favors the division of $10,000 of county funds for maintenance of work on the state road from Lyle to Maryhill and Goldendale, to be supplemented by an equal amount by the state from the state and road fund until a new appropriation can be made by the next Legislature. Reports are that M. J. Van Vorst is running well throughout Washington Klickitat for Joint Senator for Klickitat and Skamania counties.

Washington Prohibitionists Meet at North Yakima.

CHICAGO EDITOR SPEAKS

Delegates to Convention Hear William P. F. Ferguson—Liquor and White Slave Traffic Are Denounced by Delegates.

SPOKANE, Sept. 12.—A special dispatch from North Yakima to the Spokesman-Review says the state convention of the Prohibition party opened in North Yakima this morning. The feature of the day's gathering was the appearance and addresses, both afternoon and evening, of William P. F. Ferguson, of Chicago, editor of the National Prohibitionist.

Ellensburg Man Is Chairman.

A. L. Crim, of Ellensburg, was made chairman of the convention. R. E. Dunlap, of Seattle, W. E. Haycox, of Olympia, and A. L. Crim, of Ellensburg, were recommended by the delegates and confirmed by the convention as the Congressional candidates from the first, second and third districts of the state, respectively. The platform of the party was adopted as against the liquor and white slave trade in any form. The state meeting also went on record as favoring a change in the name of the party.

THE DALLES HEARS ABRAHAM

Republicans Must Unite or Party Will Be Disrupted, He Says.

THE DALLES, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Speaking before an open-air audience on Second street last night, State Senator Albert Abraham, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, declared that the success of the Socialist party lay in its social ability and the mutual confidence within the party.

The speaker said that unless the Republican party united, its disruption was a certainty. In speaking upon the "Hughes-Taft-Roosevelt plan" upon which he is making his campaign, Senator Abraham said the duty of the voters was to nominate a candidate who could be elected at the general election, thus insuring a victory for the Republican party. He was particularly emphatic about the urgent need for efficient party organization.

Senator Abraham gave several informal talks at Hood River yesterday afternoon. This morning he left for Arlington. His other Eastern Oregon engagements are at Pendleton, Wednesday; Baker City, Thursday, and La Grande, Friday. He will then return to Portland on his way to Southern Oregon.

CANDIDATE WANTS HARMONY

C. N. Griswold Withdraws From Race for Clerk of Lane.

REGINE, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Charles N. Griswold, one of the anti-insurgent candidates for the Republican nomination for clerk of Lane County, has asked the clerk to withhold his name from the primary ballot. In his letter of explanation he says: "As there are two seeking the nomination for the office of County Clerk for Lane County, Mr. Russell and myself, one by the direct primary and one as the assembly choice, and believing that both Mr. Russell and myself remaining in the field will lessen the chances of either of us receiving the nomination, and placing principle above party and my own personal interests and the purpose and in the interest of harmony, I wish my name withdrawn from the record at this time."

REPORT CALLED LAWLESS

(Continued From First Page.) Senator Flint was in Europe and Senator Root on the sea. Upon reassembling two days later eight gentlemen were present and two were reported on the way. The eighth member to appear happened to be a Democrat, and the members of that party found themselves in temporary control, and promptly proceeded to turn the circumstances to what seemed to them a party advantage. In advance of any consultation whatever, upon the evidence, which never had been weighed and discussed in committee, they demanded the passage of resolutions of the most sweeping character, formally charging Secretary Baileger guilty, not merely of charges that had been made, but of charges that had only been implied and of things which never had been charged, but which persons appearing at the hearing had alleged against him. Even recess refused. "Other members of the committee present voted against such proceedings which would dispose of the case in the absence of four of the 12 members, making it impossible for a minority of the committee to find the committee verdict, and this, too, without any consultation or discussion. "But the partisan political end to be gained by the Democratic minority became all the more urgent in proportion as the railway trains bearing off the members of the committee were approaching Minneapolis. The minority refused even to take a recess and the other members, protesting against the evident determination to take snap judgment by a minority in the absence of a third of the whole tribunal, and declining to bear any responsibility for the charges, the investigation into a travesty and for a violation of the fundamental principles which should govern the proceedings, withdrew from the meeting, and thus deprived the Democrats of their temporary control of the committee. "Minority Usurps Authority. "The meeting being left without a quorum, any attempted decision of the case would have no more validity than would have the action of a similar number of men collected at random in the streets, but the spectacle was presented of five gentlemen out of a tribunal of 12, created by the Congress of the United States, assuming to act as the tribunal itself. "These five gentlemen continued their proceedings to the end, according to the worst methods of ward politics, and after pretending to adopt a report of 83 pages which they brought to the meeting already prepared, and which was never the subject of consideration or discussion or even read in committee, they gave it to be rendered to Congress, and they completed their perversion of the purpose of the meeting by adjourning to December 2, so as to foreclose, if possible, any action or consideration or discussion of evidence by the committee before the meeting. In the meantime they graciously extended to the majority the leave to file a minority report. Action Wholly Lawless. "It does not need to be said that such action is both illegal and entirely unnecessary to ask what sort of justice any public servant could look for whose character was on trial in a proceeding in the excitement of a political campaign. If there is any reasonable doubt between lawless methods and the character of the results which they accomplish this so-called verdict condemns its authors, rather than the official under investigation. No Haste Necessary. "Every effort was made to induce the minority members to agree to a mass meeting on some early day at Minneapolis or Chicago, as might suit their convenience, but without avail. The chairman called the present meeting. The members whose names are hereto attached have spent the day reviewing the case, but being without a quorum, were powerless to act, and have adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. "The report of the committee cannot be made until December 2, when Congress meets, and the meeting called for September 5 was for the purpose of considering and discussing what the report to be made three months thereafter should be. There was therefore, no haste or pressure for time. The action of the Democratic minority in taking temporary advantage of the delay of some members in reaching the meeting was an effort to substitute a prearranged scheme for the orderly deliberations and discussions which the duty of the committee requires. Campaign Motive Seen. "The pretended adoption of a report by a political minority and its publication as if it were the report of a committee exhibited a willingness to sacrifice the rights and the reputation of the officers investigated in order to obtain a supposed party advantage in the pending political campaign. We cannot reconcile such a course with a sense of justice and of our duty. The report is signed by Knute Nelson, George Sutherland, Ethel Ross, Samuel W. McCall, Martin E. Olmstead and Edwin Denby. Canadian Wheat Crop Short. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 12.—Canada's total wheat crop this year is 122,785,000 bushels, according to the estimate of the Government statisticians, officially announced today. SURETY COMPANY LIABLE

Supreme Court Decision Protects Bank Guaranty Fund.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Sept. 12.—Three surety companies, banking the funds of the Oklahoma school land office on deposit in the wrecked Columbia Banking & Trust Company, of Oklahoma City, when the institution failed, were held liable for $100,000 today by a decision of the State Supreme Court. At the same time the bank guaranty fund was relieved of responsibility for the same amount.

By the same court decision a Kansas county deposit approximately $70,000 of reported interviews with Secretary of State, which had been recovered from the bank guaranty fund, which is thus $26,000 better off by the Supreme Court decision.

CHILDREN DROWN IN POND

Little Ones Meet Death Driving Horses Out of Garden.

DEER ISLAND, Or., Sept. 12.—Charles and Etzel Ladd, aged 8 and 4 years, respectively, whose home is in the old Clay Gold place near this station, 12 miles west of St. Helens, were drowned Sunday in a pond on Tide Creek.

The children left the farm home late about 2 P. M. on the day to drive about a truck garden in front of the house, and failed to return. When the mother became alarmed at their prolonged absence a search began which continued until yesterday, the mother carrying a baby in arms while hunting for the lost children.

Fifty men from a logging camp nearby took up the search yesterday morning. The pond near the farm was drained, and at 2 o'clock yesterday

"NO FRILLS"

Just Sensible Food Cured Him

Sometimes a good, healthy commercial traveler suffers from poorly selected food and is lucky if he learns that Grape-Nuts food will put him right.

"A Cincinnati traveler says: 'About a year ago my stomach got in a bad way. I had a headache most of the time and suffered misery. For several months I ran down until I lost about 70 pounds in weight and finally had to give up a good position and go home. Any food that I might use seemed to nauseate me.'

"My wife, hardly knowing what to do, one day brought home a package of Grape-Nuts food and coaxing me to try I told her it was no use, but finally to humor her I tried a little and they just struck my taste. It was the first food that I had eaten in nearly a year that did not cause any suffering.

"Well, to make a long story short, I began to improve and stuck to Grape-Nuts. I went up from 135 pounds in December to 194 pounds the following October.

"My brain is clear, blood all right and appetite so much for any man's pocket-book. In fact, I am thoroughly made over and owe it all to Grape-Nuts. I talk so much about what Grape-Nuts will do that some of the men on the road have nicknamed me 'Grape-Nuts' but I stand today a healthy, rosy-checked man—a pretty good example of what the right kind of food will do. "You can publish this if you want to. It is a true statement without any frills." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. There's a Reason.

R. O. MARSH ORDERED HOME

Secretary May Have Been Victim of Deception at Panama.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—For reasons which are not divulged, the State Department has decided to make a change in the American legation at Panama, and R. O. Marsh has been relieved of the duties as Secretary of the Legation and ordered to report at the State Department for duty. Charles Campbell, Jr., of Missouri, at present third Secretary of the American Embassy at Tokio, will replace Mr. Marsh as secretary of Legation at Panama. Doubtless these changes are the outcome of the unpleasant situation which was created in Panama by the publication of reported interviews with Secretary of State declaring the purpose of the United States Government to intervene in the approaching elections for acting president in the event that certain candidates were chosen. Mr. Marsh was directed to repudiate these alleged statements, and the dispatches from the isthmus indicate that he explained that he had misunderstood his instructions. There is another side of the case, however. It is now reported, although the State Department declines to confirm it, that Mr. Marsh was the victim of misrepresentation and deception at the hands of one of the dominant party leaders, who was a candidate for office.

Pendleton Wants Fruit Pickers.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—What to do with this year's fruit crop in the immediate vicinity of Pendleton and along the Umatilla River is a problem that now confronts the growers of this section. While this is not considered a fruit section and while very few farmers devote their entire attention to the growing of apples and pears, there are a number of small orchards, and it is estimated that there are 100 carloads of apples alone which will soon be ready for market. With the real fruit centers calling in vain for assistance in picking, the local growers are left without either pickers or buyers so

Supreme Court Cases Decided.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Three important cases were decided by the Supreme Court this morning. Sharkey vs. Lunz, appealed from Douglas County, was reversed and a decree entered for the plaintiff. In the case of De Vol vs. De Vol, from Wallowa County, a motion to retax costs was denied. Judgment was reversed and a new trial ordered in the case of Simmons vs. Trummer, appealed from Multnomah County. The case of the Baker City Irrigation Company vs. Baker City was transferred from Pendleton and advanced on the docket to early in October.
