SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 12.—(Special—After, holding the Senators to two hits for eight innings, Steen weakened in the eighth and allowed the tailenders to pile three hits and two runs, enough to win the game by a

The game was fast and snappy, having every indication of a victory for the Beavers. Four double plays were pulled off, each team making two. Baum heaved good ball, with the exception of the third inning, when it was to the liking of the visitors, but in the sighth, he was hauled out to make room for Briggs, who was believed to contain a pinch hit up his sleeve. The Portland run was made in the style in the third, after one was gone. Rapps hit to the far corner of left field for two bases and scored when Steen singled to center. Shim irred on Ryan's grounder, but Olson flew out and Krueger fanned before the score could be made any larger.

Things Look Bad for Baum.

Things were looking bad for Baum when Casey welcomed the fourth inning with a two-base hit to center, but the runner played far off on what looked like a hit traveling off Sheehan's Deacon Van Buren was right or the job with elever running catch and founded Casey out in short order.

Menser then flew out to center.

COBB IS NOT PINCH HITTER.

Portland opened the sixth and seventh with hifs, but Ryan was caught stealing in the sixth and Sheehan was forced on third on Rapps grounder which led into a double play.

Mystery to Villagers.

SAN FRANCISCO. Sept. 12.—Vernon unravelled the mystery of "mysterious" Mitchell's curves at Recreation Park today. Six of the southern batters registered their answers to the puzzle with timely lifts and the net result was three runs. Raleigh pitched a good game for the visitors, scattering the hits through the nine innings. Madden's triple to center brought the only tally for San Francisco. The score:

billiards are played, and gave exhibitions which excited a great deal of interest. One of his feats, and one which attracted the greatest amount of attention, was his seven-cushion shot. By grasping the "cue" ball firmly between thumb and middle finger, Jones shot the ball around the table so that it made seven cushion caroms before connecting with the object balls for the billiard. Similar difficult and seemingly impossible shots were accomplished by this expert, and to cap the climax he spun an ordinary billiard ball for seven minutes in a saucer. This latter feat was timed by responsible parties, and many who witnessed it marveled at the feat. Jones will return to Portat the feat. Jones will return to Port-land later in the Fall, when he says he will be glad to give more exhibitions.
