Fitzgerald and Burns Blamed.

Fitzgerald and Burns were much to hlame for a portion of the Portland runs in the second inning. Casey pened with a pass. Sheehan hit to the infield and Rapps attempted to bunt his learnmates around another bag. Fitzgerald, after nearly stopping the Fitzgeraid, after nearly stopping the ball decided upon the scheme of making it go foul. He let it roil out of the foul line with all hands safe instead of picking off Casey at third, which he had plenty time to do.

Fisher drove a long one to left center which he negotiated for a triple on account of the poor relay by Burns. The latter naw Sheehan and Rapp pile up together at third and threw the ball on the ground instead of to Board-

GRUBER IS ANSWERED

WALLACE M'CAMANT CRITICISES ATTACK ON CATHOLICS.

Masonry and Church, Which Candidate Assails, Teach Same Doctrine, Is His Declaration.

PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—(To the Edi-or.)—S. H. Gruber, as anti-assembly ramildate for Circuit Judge, is sending broadcast a circular letter which reads in part as follows: "By way of introducing myself to you, capable of selecting their own candidates for office without the dictation of any political boss or machine. "The Roman Catholic Church is the well-known enemy of all Masonry, and e regarded by many as the greatest of all political machines."

If Mr. Gruber were better informed, he would know that in sending out this letter he is guilty of an un-Masonic act.

Masonry teaches the sovereignty of God; for nearly 2000 years this has been one of the tenets of the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church in common wit all Christian bodies teaches that all me are brothers; this also is a fundamenta doctrine of Masonry. Masonry stands for morality and clean living; the Catho-lic Church is one of the mightiest powers in the world at work for these ends.

Masonry enjoys benevolence and the relief of distress: Catholic hospitals and orphanages signally attest the practical performance of these duties by the church Mr. Gruber assails.

The time has gone by when institutions

The time has gone by when institutions working for common ends can afford to fritter away their strength in antagonism to each other. No principle is more out of harmony with Masonic teaching than religious persecution. I have the honor to preside in this jurisdiction over a branch of Scottish Rite Masonry which teaches the iniquity of persecution for opinion's sake and which enjoys the duty of rallying to the support of all who are so persecuted.

I am sure that I voice the general sentiment of Portland Masons when I emphatically condemn this circular letter. does no credit to its author, as a Mason, as a lawyer or as a man Judged by the standards of 200 years ago this act might go uncondemned, but it is Mr. Gruber's misfortune to be born too lat WALLACE M'CAMANT.
