Draspreasing. Draspreasing Witness Finen.-Dis-sharged on an accusation of compound-ing a felony, G. J. Cole was fixed $10 in Municipal Court yesterday for con-tempt, in that he had left town to avoid giving testimony sgainst T. J. Pierce, a physician who advertises medicines that can be used for im-proper purposes. Pierce was recently prosecuted for practicing medicine without a license and Cole was a material witness in the case. Just be-fore the trial he disappeared and it was charged by the prosecution that he had been induced to leave the juris-siction. He was later arrested at Kayesterday. had been induced to leave the juris-fiction. He was later arrested at Ka-iama and his friends gave bond for his appearance in court. In the meantime Pierce was convicted and fined $50. Judge Bennett read a lecture to Cole, warning him that he bad placed him-self in danger of the penitentiary.

RESOLUTIONS PERPLEX AUDITOR.-Two resolutions passed by the Sellwood Commercial Club were received by City Auditor Barbur yesterday, but as they were not addressed to any special de-partment of the city, the Auditor is at a loss to know what to do with them. One of the resolutions condemn the contractors of the Madison-street bridge for the slow work being done on it, and the city is asked to impose a fine on the contractors, as permitted by law, for each day after April 25, the date for the completion of the bridge, until it is finally finished. The other resolution expressed thanks for the swimming tank and other improve-ments placed by the city in Sellwood Park afternoon, when drunk and broke a leg. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in the patrol wagon. FATHER WARNS AGAINST SON.-In a let-er to Chief of Police Cox, C. M. Bon-on, a hardware dealer of Lewiston, Idaho, reports that he has received a letter from his 15-year-old son, dated at Riparia, saying that he is on his way to Portland. The father warms the police that the boy is incorrigible and has circulated bad checks in Lewiston and Ciarkston. He also says that the boy's fare was furnished by saloon-keepers who were liable to prosecution for selling him liquor and caused him to depart. The star
