FRENCH BARK IS READY

Effort to Begin Loading Ship Expected to Precipitate Difficulties. Union's Demand for Higher Scale Not Met.

Should an effort be made today to begin loading the French bark General de Boisdeffre, which was yesterday shifted

No Intimation of Trouble Heard.

Peter Kerr, of Kerr, Gifford & Com pany, chairman of the exporters com-mittee, said he had received no intima-tion that trouble would follow, although he admitted there had been no new con-tract signed with the union. Members of the union asked a few months ago for an advance of from 35 cents to 40 cents an advance of from 35 cents to 40 cents an hour, which was denied and since then negotiations have been reopened with the expectation of inducing the union to accept the former scale. The General de Boisdeffre is under charter to the Northwestern Warehouse Company. She will be an early October ship and the first to get away with new crop wheat, while the British bark An-dromeda will be a close second and may start taking cargo the last of the week. The silence of the grainhandlers is regarded as ominous by many, particularly among those inclined to the view that if the grainhandlers strike it will involve the longshoremen, who have not signed new contracts with the stevedores. The former agreements expired September 8.

Strike Would Hurt Port.

A prolonged strike would probably repult seriously for the port, as a large fleet of grain carriers is due before November 1. While a few days may be taken advantage of by exporters, the charter parties enforce denurrage for delays after the period of loading. On the other hand a cessation of exporting would sadly handicap Portland's prestige in this reserver. In this respect.

CHINOOK WILL HAVE WIRELESS

Installation Is Delayed Before Vessel Departs for Lower Harbor.

First of the Government vessels to be equipped with wireless will be the dredge Chinobk. Captain Dunbar says that he planned having the apparatus installed before he left port, but there were delays in obtaining authorization and arranging for its installation.

While the reseal will be in the river.

While the vessel will be in the river at night and spend most of the day on the bar, it is pointed out that at times she will be at sea dumping material dredged into her bins, and while the wireless would be a means of communicating with shore in the event of an accident, it is argued that she could serve also as another station near the mouth, through which messages could be relayed. Should the plants at North Head or on the pilot schooner Joseph Pulitzer be rendered useless, the Chiook's might furnish service. The vessel left down yesterday from the Government moorings, and will start work on the river entrance before the end of the week.

MORE REPAIRS WILL BE MADE

seides work authorized on the Columbia River lightship, for which bids were yesterday opened by Commander J. M. Ellicott, additional repairs may be ordered, which will make three sets of specifications since the craft was brought inside early in the Summer. The changes in prospect are not of such important as the first contract, which was for clean-ing and repainting her hull, or for that to be entered into under the latest hids. There were but two tenders filed yes-terday, and while they must be forwarded to Washington for approval, it is not doubted that the contract will be secured by the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, sby the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, which offered to renew certain deck plans, caulk seams in the boiler and retube it sthroughout for $1333. William Cornfoot filed a bid of $2973 for the same work. The former firm was given the job of changing the hawse pipes, which was completed several weeks ago, and since then the ship has been lying idle at the scampany's dock.

INONUNION MEN WORK ON DOCK

Sailors on Golden Gate May Be Replaced if Cargo Is Refused.

Al Chase, manager of the Central dock mod agent for the Tillamook Transporta-tion Company, proposes to place in vogue a new system today through which nonunion workers will truck cargo to and from the steamer Golden Gate. Long-shoremen have been employed in the past he has secured outsiders to work for 25 cents an hour, with no overtime charged. The question of replacing the union sallors on the vessel will be decided tocay. On the steamer Sue H. Elmore, also operating to Tillamook, nonunion sallors work in the hold and longshoremen do the trucking on the dook, so it is argued that union sallors on the Golden Gate can receive and discharge government. receive and discharge cargo with non-union dockmen. If a change is made with the sailers, nothing is to be gained finan-cially, for outsiders are to be paid the Vigilant Ready for Service.

Work of overhauling the launch Vig-liant, which Major McIndoe, of the Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., recently obtained from the Puget Sound disobtained from the Puget Sound district, has been completed at the Government moorings. The craft has been used about that plant for towing purposes, but it is expected that she will be sent shortly to Fort Stevens. She is decked over forward, and is of the cruising type so there are cruising type, so there are accommo-dations for several persons. The launch Mohawk, which has been added to the equipment of the dredge Chinook, in place of the steam launch formerly in service, is filling the requirements, and is being counted on for valuable work as a tender.

Helpful Hints on Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baidness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. WHY WE ADVERTISE

WHY WE ADVERTISE

Advertising is indulged in by enterprising men in all the various walks of life. It is resorted to by the manufacturers and merchants in order to inform the consumers where they can best supply their wants; by railroads and hotels, in order to let strangers and travelers know how to reach their destination and where to be taken care of after their arrival; by schools, colleges, church societies and other worthy institutions, in order to inform the public of their objects and sims. Then why should this same privilege be dehied the physician whose mission, most essential of all to man's earthly happiness, is to tell siek people where they can get well? To truthfully and honestly advertise is not only the legal privilege of the Specialist, but it is a moral duty. If he has studied and thoroughly mastered a single class of disease, thereby acquiring knowledge and skill that would benefit and bless mankind, he should say so through the medium of the press. Why should he be so modest as to keep from others that which would make their lives longer and happier? Is not such a course of conduct a sin of omission?

I treat for real and lasting cures. Every remedy I complete and lasting cures in the patient who notes improvement in his condition can feel assured that real benefit and not a temporary drug effect has been obtained, and can continue with confidence that a thorough cure is being accomplished.

Contracted Ailments

The serious results that may follow neglect of contracted ailments could scarcely be exaggerated. Safety demands an absolutely thorough cure in the least possible time. I have treated more cases of contracted aliments than any other physician upon the Pacific Coast. My cures are thorough and are accomplished in less time than other forms of treatment require in producing even doubtful results. The reason hundreds of men today are discouraged is because they have given no care to whom they entrusted their case, their precious health. They do not consider the ability, professional standing and reputation of the physician or specialist of whom they took treatment, but have considered far more the fact that by not going to a specialist of ability they could get cheaper treatment. Such is not the case, because it requires ability and skill to care any one of the aliments to which I devote my full time and attention, and the specialist who possesses the ability to cure, gets all the business he can attend to. If you are today discouraged because you have not been cured it is your own fault. You have no one else to blame but yourself.
