The victorious march of Walter Mc-Credie's Portland Beavers hesitated be-fore the gilt-edged flinging of Jack Brackenridge, a peculiarly formed twiri-er of the Vernon crew, yesterday and "Happicus" Hogan stuck one game away in his grip, the score of which was 5

The Beavers were simply helpless against the slants and curves of Brack-enridge, who closed the home team out in one, two, three order for five frames in one, two, three order for five frames, and was not dented for a hit until Eddie Mensor, the young San Jose recruit batting for Jesse Garrett in the sixth, punctured the clean slate of the Vernonite by bouncing one off Artie Ross' shins which scored Gus Fisher, who occupied second through Carlisle's muff of his corking long fly. Mensor's hit was the first legitimate clout scored off the Vernon twirler and it evidently made such non twirler, and it evidently made such a hit with Manager McCredle that he sent George Ort to think matters over in the clubhouse and substituted the 'Rid' in right garden. All told, Port-land corralled four bingles off Brackenand Mensor was responsible for Carlisie Gets Home Run.

By way of introducing himself to the fans present yesterday. Walter Carlisle, the first batter up for Vernon in the first inning, clouted the ball out of the lot via the right field fence, and it is just possible that some school boys might have found some of the pieces, so hard was the sphere hit. This gave the "Hoo-ligans" a one-run lead and injected a lot more ginger into the visiting bunch than was shown by them on the opening

Vernon also added another are to the score sheet in the third. This time, there were two in pickle when Mr. Carlisis came to bat amid the applause of the galleries, or to be exact, the bleachers. This time Garrett lost control and Carlisie walked, and immediately stole sec

From this point of vantage it was an easy matter for him to score when Bur-rell biffed a single to the middle patch which Buddy Ryan made a nice heave to the plate, though Finney decided that Carifale had tailied despite Fisher's pro-test to the contrary. This made it two runs for the Villagers, and still nothing doing for Portland.

Gus Fisher in Luck.

The successive order in which the and then back to the bench was most monotonous and when Gus Fisher profited by Carlisle's failure to hold his long fly in the sixth, the crowd saw a chance to root and yelped considerable. George Ort tried to kill the ball and flew to

McCredle then sent Eddie Mensor in as a pinch hitter, for Portland wanted that run. Mac's judgment was correct, for Mensor, batting for Garrett, un-corked a drive to left field which Artie Ross tried to trap but the ball hit the grass first and paromed off his shins, and Fisher scored while Mensor brought Neither Ryan nor Olson, the two heavy gunners of the opening day, were able to deliver the necessary clout to bring the youngster home.

Bloomfield Succeeds Garrett.

Billy Bleomfield was then sent to the hilitop after Garrett's elimination, and he had bad luck right off the reel. Lind-say walked, but after having disposed of Brown and Brackenridge, Bloomfeld allowed hits by Caritale and Burrelt which netted two more runs for the Hoo-ligan squad, the latter's hit being a two-In the eighth, a speedy double play by Olson and Rapps pulled Bloom-field out of another tight hole, while in the ninth, the bunching of three more hits gave the Villagers their fifth run. Carisle's great catch of Buddy Ryan's hard drive in the fourth fining, and fielding stunts by Olson and Krueger were the features. Eugene Krapp or Tom Seaton will pitch for Portland today, while Hogan will depend upon Al Carson or Schaefer. The score of yesterday's game is as Wonder if "Mysterious" Mitchell burst into tears after being defeated by Oakland yesterday. The Vernon bunch slammed him all over the lot one day last week and he cried like a kid when taken out. He must think he cannot lose at all.

One of the niftiest plays seen on the Portland lot in weeks was Olson's stop of Coy's grounder and his resulting double play in the eighth. Roy Brashear was on first when Coy smashed one through the box. Olson pounced on the ball and touching Brashear running into second, he turned com-pletely around and threw to first ahead of Coy. One thing has been demonstrated in Olson's work and that is that he is not playing for an average. The short-stop goes after everything whether easy or not, and he is more likely to boot the easy ones than he is the hard drives. Olson handled a number of chances yesterday and enlivened the game considerably.

Three star plays retired the Vernon squad in the second inning. Artic way interfere with their opponents until the ball has been touched by a player of either side," except, etc.
