Crop Conditions in the Leading Western States-English Hop Market Is Strong and Advancing meason. Owing to the full crop in the West, the growers seem disposed to sell early and there is no danger of a rejection of last year's slump at the close because of a big carry-over of storage stock. White prices may not average as high as hast year, the greater volume of the trade will make the search a positiable one to the growers. The figures of the Agricultural Department of condition on August 1 compared with last year and the 10-year average in the leading apple-producing states have been compiled by the Los Angeles Cold Storage Company in a circular to the trade, as follows:

WAITING FOR THE ENGLISH DEMAND. Course of Hop Market Will Begend on Foreign Buying.

The first samples of Oregon hops will reach the London market about the last of this month, and by October 10 or 15 it will be known whether or not there is going to be an early demand from that quarter. If the Englishmen should buy early, a good healthy market is assured, but it has do not come in me expected, it is a good heariny market is assured, but it is a question whether even the present prices can be maintained. The Eastern trade is going to play a waiting game again without doubt, and unless they are drawn into the market for Oregons by a strong English buying movement, will do everything they can to force prices down at this end, by defaying their purchases until the last moment, as they did hant year. In the meantime, conditions are shaping themselves well on the other side. The English market is of a buoyant character. hull it is the English product that is now enjoying the boom. The following cable was received yesterday by Klaber, Wolf & Netter from their London office: Market extremely firm with upward ten-

Another decline of 10 cents a hundred in all grades of refined sugar was announced by the trade yesterday. The sugar market the East has been unsettled for some in the gast has been unsetted for some time past and this may, in part, be the cause of the decline on this coast, though it is more probable that the movement in Federal sugar is the real reason. Yes-terday's cut was initiated by the California refiners. The jobbers on the coust have been huring freely of the Pederal's offer-speculative Enterprise Halts, Pending the Settlement of Doubtful Conditions-Iron and Steel Price Prospects.

General Trade Situation Is a Waiting One.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s cekly review of trade tomorrow will say: With crops aggregating large in quantity and value, in spite of the reduced yield of Spring wheat, with politics becoming so intense and uncertain as to make enterprise ugaged in a dispute over rates, the business outlook is mixed trade reaction being very clain in some important directions, while at the same time there are streaks of progress and activity. It is, as a whole, a waiting situation, with little to encourage speculative enterprise until conditions, now doubtful or unsettled, become more clearly defined.

Interest in steel and iron has centered chiefly in indications of an early general reduction of prices on finished steel products, which have been freely discussed, and the effect his been disquieting notwithstanding denials from well-informed sources. sources. Business has diminished, but aside from railread material, a good production continues in finished lines. The Winter trade reflects considerable activity, but demand for rails is not brisk in the Pittsburg.

Buyers Show Conservatism—Stocks of Goods Light.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Bradstreets tomorrow will say:

Trade and industrial reports are still trregular and general characterization is difficult. Fair activity in some lines and at some centers is indicated, but repression and conservatism are widely in evidence and reflected in small but frequent rather than large and confidential buying.

One really favorable underlying feature, perhaps not theroughly appreciated at present is the apparent absence of large stocks of goods in primary or secondary hands, horn apparently of uncertainty as to future prices and the growth of the belief that far distant buying is neither advisable mor necessary.

Reports from leading industries are of repression in operation. Basic pig iron is weaker and there are reports of willingness to sell further ahead. Some finished lines show slightly larger volume of business booked, but railway buying is still conspicuous by lis comparative absence.

In the Eastern leather trade, some soje leather tanners are operating much below capacity and Eastern shot manufacturers report. conservatism marked in buying. In the West, some centers report shoe factories running to capacity.

In textile lines curtailment is still in evidence. Staple lines meet with fairly sizadly demand. Jobbers and manufacturers' stocks are reported lighter than usual. Some makes of gingham and cottops for next Spring, for which prices have been announced, have sold quite freely. In the woolen goods trade, political squataon is claimed to be holding back future demand.

WORLD'S SHIPMENTS LARGE

Northwestern Sellers Also Threatening to Press the Market-Winter Wheat Plowing Progresses Favorably.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The estimate of the world's shipment of wheat represented an increase of 2.385,800 bushels, compared with the appreciate at the corresponding time a year ago. India Australia and Argentina together sent more than 2.500,800 bushels this week, against only 216,800 bushels this week against only 216,800 bushels ill months previous. Northwestern sellers of wheat were also threatening a decided increase. It was shown too, by Millers' reports that Winter wheat plowing and seeding have been progressing favorably and that the acreage was being materially videued. Busyers were a little encouraged, however, on official announcement of the shortage of the French crop. December fluctuated between $1.00% and $1.01, closing %c net lower at $1.90%.

Heavy selling from infinential local sources offset in corp the effect of well weather. December sold from $1.50 to $2.50, with the latest sale at $1.50, the same as the previous close. The cash market was firm. No. 2 yellow finished at $1.95 to.

Outs followed corn more than wheat to-day. December varied from 12% to 13% c. and at the going was a shade under last hight, and the first-named price prevailing.

At the wind-up pork was off loc, lard a shade to 5c down and ribs 71% c cheaper to 10c advance.
