

It is cortain that Engineer Richen brugh could have jumped and saved him-self but he remained at his post and unhart

The dead and injured were taken to Norton, Kan. None of the injured is in serious condition. The washout was re-paired into this evening and traffic resumed. Passengers in the Paliman and other day coach, hurled from their berths and chairs by the shock, hurried out into the storm and rendered what aid they could to the injured and in extricating the mangied bodies of the dead. Others hurried to Clayton, where news of the accident was wired to division cluars by the shock, harried out hto the storm and rendered what aid they could to the injured and in extricating the mangled bodies of the dead. Others hurried to Clayton, where news of the accident was wired to division beadquarters and within half an hour physicians and nurses and a wreck train were being hurried to the scene from Norton, Colby, Goodland and Philips-It was not until late this afternoon, however, that the last body was recovered from the wreck.

Members of the Topeka baseball team of the Western League on their way to Denver were occupants of the Pullman, but ceraped injury.

KNOX MAY BE ARBITRATOR

Ex-Minister Thompson's Railroad Causes Dispute in Guatemala.

GUATEMALA CITY, Tuesday, Sept. 12.-It is possible that the American State Department will be asked to intervene in the controversy that has grown out of the extension of the Mexcan National Railroad line into Guatemalan territory. In 1968 the Guatemala Central Rail-an American corporation, obroad. total an exclusive concession to ex-tend its line to the frontier of Mexico, thus completing another link in the Pan-American railroad system. Pref-erential right was also granted to build a bridge to connect this line with the Maxicon Pan-American Ballroad.

Mexican Pan-American Rallroad. Late in 1909, a company, of which David E. Thompson, formerly American Ambassador to Mexico, became the president, and the son of President Diag, one of the directors, purchased the Mexican Pan-American Rallroad. In January last President Thompson Mexican Pan-American Railroad. secured from the government of Guate-mala a concession allowing him to build a bridge across the Buchiate fliver and establish a terminal for the Mexican line on Guatemalan soil. This brought forth a vigorous protest from American line in Guatemala, the owners of which assert their interests have been placed in jeopardy. The Mexican Pan-American Railroad has Mexican Fair-American Annotation and since passed into the hands of the Mex-ican Government, though Mr. Thomp-son has retained the ownership of the concession of the bridge which the gov-ernment line will use.

GIRL'S DEAD BODY FOUND

Continued From First Page.) and is said to have been the same man who called for the girl on the day she disappeared.

It was learned that before Craughton family moved into the Eurekn-street house two men had lived there for a short time. The removal addresses the men gave to the agent for the house proved false.

ritory stretching 3500 miles from one brugh could have jumped and saved him-self but he remained at his post and did everything possible to prevent the train running into the ditch. Pullmans Stay on Track. The three Pullmans remained on the track and the occupants of these cars were undurt.

wisdom and all power. "There was a period of uncertainty and a slackening of industry while we were considering the tariff. I dislike to see the business and production of the coun-try haited and held back for any reason.

Free List Enlarged.

"Under the Payne law, the free list "Under the Payne law, the free list is larger than it ever was under any tariff law from the foundation of the Government, and the average ad va-lorem on importation is less than under any tariff law for the last 60 years, not excepting the Walker tariff law. We reduced the rates here, there and yonder, but we kept the law a pro-tective measure.

vonder, but we kept the law a pro-tective measure. "Under that law the revenues have increased until the breeches and vest meet and there are $26,000,000 surplus for an appropriation. Before that, there were idle cars and many men-out of employment.

"Our friends, the enemy, and the "Our friends, the enemy, and the great metropolitan press, or a portion of it, do not print long editorials set-ting forth the facts that I am stat-ing. From pride of opinion or other-wise, they put off in a corner in fine type any statement that may be fa-vorable to the tariff law, and pile up the headlines, and the headlines in the main give the lies to the dispatch and the dispatches frequently only tell a the dispatches frequently only tell a half truth.

Press Has Its Place.

"Do not let any man think I am abusing the press. It has its legiti-mate place. If I were to abuse It, even though I should live to be as old as Methuselah, God knows I never would get even with it. If there is any connect that is necessary to be taken counsel that is necessary to be taken in this time of history, with the many false prophets abroad, with denuncia-tion and with hot fire all over the country, with our Democratic oppon-ents attacking us and seeking to tear down when they never have in my lifetime demonstrated any capacity to build up-if there ever was a time in peace when the command that was given to the children of Israel to move forward should be heeded, it is now. Dencen Urges New Laws.

Governor Densen was cheered when as temporary chairman he opened the con-vention with a tariff speech. He re-viewed the accomplishments of the last session of Congress. session of Congress. "In my judgment," said Governor Deneen in closing, "the party should de-clare for certain amendments to the primary law, to the election law, the civil service law, the passage of a cor-rupt practice and of an anti-pass and anti-frank law, the abolition of the minority concentration system, the mast-anti-frank law, the abolition of the minority representation system, the pass-age of employers liability and workmen's compensation acts, the enlargement of the control of the railroad and ware-house commission over the rates and service of railroads, express companies, telegraph and telephone companies, for the amendment of the companies, for compensation acts, the enlargement of the control of the railroad and ware-house commission over the rates and service of railroads, express companies, telegraph and telephone companies, for the amendment of the commission form of government ast, for the conserving of the water power of the state created an interloper. Very well, maybe I am but as long as I hold the office of Mayor of Seattle, although it may only be an accident. I shall carry out these policies. "Yes, I have encountered the interest felt by certain friends of Mayor Gill, who are disturbed about my actions, but that feeling among the Mayor's friends shall not deter me. Moreover, wherever I find an official who does not carry out my instructions in these matters. I shall remove him." The acting Mayor declared that his wn opinion of himself precludes the possibility of a modification of his programme. "I would lose my self respect and counid not loog at myself in the glass if I did not act in this manner." said Wardall, his eyes gleaming and his mouth set in a determined way. "I found that the uptown lodging-houses are infested with immoral women and that liquor is being sold in many of them. The drugstores are selling dope and liquor as well, and they will be forced to desist and obey the law. Graft must stop wherever it is found. "The restricted district of Seattle is the worst I ever saw, and I have been in Suez, in the Orient and in places on the Continent of Europe. But Seattle is the worst. The health department has done nobly in trying to improve sanitary conditions in the restricted district, but has not had the co-operation of the police department." Wardell is a Councilman from the Wardell is a Councilman from the Fourth Ward. Murphy is President of the Council, but is away on a hunt-ing trip, as is Gill. The Council chose Wardall as acting President, and Se-attle's city charter says the acting President of the Council shall be the acting Mayor when both Mayor and Description are away.

President are away. President are away. The Superior Court today, on com-plaint of a property-owner, issued a temporary injunction restraining the city from granting privileges for main-taining a nulsance on Tenth avenue. South, between Hanford and Stevens South, between Hanford and Stevens streets and from leasing Tenth avenus. South for 15 years to owners of build-ings alleged to have been erected for infamous purposes. A hearing on the motion to make the injunction permanent will be held September 30. Huge wooden barracks with hundreds of rooms have been erected near a large brewery in the south part of town by wealthy poli-ticians, and here, Mayor Gaynor an-nounced, outcast women would be per-mitted to live.

mitted to live. Mrs. James Mace, Corvallis, Dies.

CORVALLIS, Or., Sept. 33 .- (Special.)-Mrs. James Mace died here yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Gard-ner. Mrs. Mace was born in Corvaille in 1872 and is well known here. For the last 15 years she has resided in Port-land. She is survived by a husband, but had no children. had no children.

condemn in unmeasured terms any per-son or persons, Democratic or Republi-can, who may have been guilty of any participation therein and declare in This connection that we favor the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people." A plank maintaining that the people are entitled to as low prices on school books as prevail in other states, and urging that efforts be made to secure a reduction was made in the committee

The platform came out squarely for home rule for cities and villages after the resolutions committee reached an agreement. The plank opposing the cumulative system of voting for legis-lators was eliminated. The initiative and referendum are favored. Representative Champ Clark, of Mis-sourt, was the principal speaker.

PRINCE'S NAME IS SHUM

Official Correction Asked in Behalf of Chinese Visitor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Lost. Prince Tsai Hsun; found, Prince Slium. The distinguished Chinese visitor, the naval head of the Oriental country and uncle of the Emperor, has at has come into his own name. And Slium is the Prince's real name, for Yung Kwai have so Prince's real name, for Yung Kwai says so. Yung Kwai is secretary of the Chi-nese Legation at Washington, and a member of the imperial potentate party that is now crossing the American con-tinent. Yung Kwai telegraphed to the State Department from Ogden. Utah, that the Prince's name should be spelled Silum, and indicated there were numerous reasons why corrections were necessary on the published nomencla-ture of the imperial party's personnel. Besides the Prince, according to Yung Kwai's dispatch, his royal high-ness party consists of Vice-Admiral Sah Desah Chenping, his excellency Chow Tachsi, Captain Tsao Yung, Captain Pang, Captain Teeng Chuyi. Captain Lin Paolun, Charles Hohling, Fang Shu, Mr, Liking, Ho Chang Puching, Kung Pahtheng King, five anonimis-sioned officers of the Bigu guard and five servants.

five servants.

WEAPON SCATTERS CROWD

Revolver Drawn on Roseburg Streets After Show Dismisses.

ROSEBURG. Or., Sept. 23. - (Spe-cial.)-Consternation prevailed among a thousand persons as they were re-turning from the show grounds late this afternoon after seeing Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, when Ike Matthews, a well-known Douglas Coun-ty farmer, whipped a revolver from his picket and threatened to kill Claud Tai-cott, of Roseburg, with whom he is alleged to have quarreled previously. Taicott was walking down the street with a woman when he met Matthewa, who knocked him from the sidewalk, witnesses said. Taicott is said to have resented Matthews' act. The drawing of the revolver followed. The street was ordwided, and, on sight of the weapon, scattered in all directions.

directions.

A warrant will be issued for Mat-thews charging him with assault with a dangerous weapon.

ST. LOUIS. Mo., Sept. 23. Clark, minority leader in the House of Representatives, addressed the Democratic Editorial Association of Misocratic Editorial Association of a souri tonight. He said in part: "The circumstances which surround us presage a Democratic victory. For more than a year the Democratic pros-pects have grown brighter, until we seem to be on the eve of a sweeping

"It is said if we carry the House we "It is said if we carry the House we must should's responsibilities." Of course we must, and where is the Democrat craven enough to fear or shift responsibility?

shirk responsibility? "I will not weary you with quoting tariff rates. Suffice it to say that in my judgment so long as a tariff law compounded of specific and ad valorem rates stands on the statute-books, levying an average of 102 per cent on blankets-cheap blankets, which every-body must use-and an average of 100

Style No. 58 Crossett

The new Crossetts cer-tainly have "snap." Look at this one-Every line graceful; New "Whirlwind" toe Heel extra high;

Decorative trim.

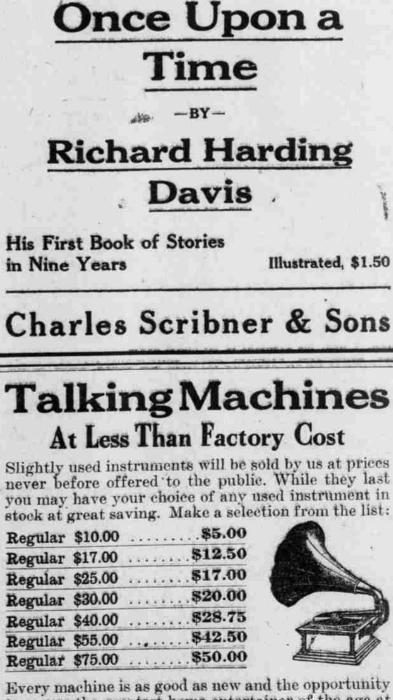

A remarkable shoeand one of the most popular this season.

Many Crossett styles to choose from.

Select yours.

$4 to $6 everywhere.

Lowis A. Crossett, Inc., Maker,

Just Published

to secure the greatest home entertainer of the age at so great a saving will be welcomed by many, so come early and secure an outfit-cash or easy payments.

Graves Music Co.

111 Fourth Street, Portland, Oregon