Assembly Wins Three Contested Places on State and Congressional Ticket—Antis Capture Five. One Office in Doubt.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES NOMINATED IN SATURDAY'S PRIMARIES. Governor, Jay Bowerman. Representative in Congress, First District, W. C. Hawley. Representative in Congress, Second District, A. W. Lafferty. Judges Supreme Court, four-year term, H. J. Dean and T. A. McBride. Judges Supreme Court, six-year term, G. H. Burnett, F. A. Moore. Secretary of State, F. W. Benson. State Treasurer, T. B. Kay. Attorney-General, A. M. Crawford. School Superintendent, L. R. Alderman. State Printer, W. S. Dunway. Commissioner of Labor, in doubt. Railroad Commissioner, Frank J. Miller. State Engineer, John H. Lewis. Water Superintendent, Division I, J. T. Chinnock.

Jay Bowerman, assembly candidate, on a count of approximately two-thirds of the vote cast in the primary election of Saturday, has won the nomination for Governor of Oregon by a plurality of 2500 to 4000 over Grant B. Dimick, of Oregon City, with Ernest Hefer, of Salem, third and Albert Abraham, of Roseburg, fourth.

More nearly complete returns from Multnomah County and the state at large received yesterday do not materially change the forecast given yesterday on the remainder of the ticket. These returns seem to indicate conclusively the defeat of Ralph W. Hoyt, the assembly candidate for State Treasurer, by Thomas B. Kay, by a majority of several thousand.

Outside Counties Defeat Hoyt. Mr. Hoyt in Multnomah County has received a majority over Kay of more than 1200, but the returns from other counties so far received show that Kay is leading throughout the remainder of the state and has overcome the Multnomah lead and has 1200 advantage over his opponent. The returns for Multnomah County are more nearly complete than from the other portions of the state, so that if the proportion of votes cast for the two is maintained in the smaller counties Kay will increase this lead materially.

On the vote so far as counted, F. W. Benson, assembly candidate for Secretary of State, has a lead of more than 8000 over G. Wingate, and his majority will probably roll up to more than 10,000.

Crawford's 10,000 Lead Growing. For Attorney-General, A. M. Crawford, on the latest returns, shows a majority over J. N. Hart, the assembly candidate, of about 10,000 which will be increased by the belated returns.

W. S. Dunway, the present State Printer, has also defeated W. J. Clarke, assembly candidate, by a wide margin. Dunway now shows a majority of more than 8000 over Clarke, and each later report increases Dunway's lead.

The closest contest is between G. P. Hoff, assembly candidate for Commissioner of Labor Statistics, and G. M. Orton. The total returns so far as compiled give Hoff 12,322 and Orton 12,307. While Orton is thus shown to have a slight lead, an analysis of the count indicates the election of Hoff. Mr. Hoff ran behind Orton about 1000 votes in Multnomah County, but on the returns so far received from the other counties is nearly up with his opponent.

Hoff Gains in Small Counties. If the counties of smaller population show on a complete count the same relative difference between the two men Hoff will have won the contest by about 70 votes. Orton has had his principal strength in the town and city precincts and from these the vote is more complete than from the country districts, where Hoff has shown the greater strength.

For Superintendent of Water Division No. 1, J. T. Chinnock has a strong lead over F. K. Gettin and is undoubtedly nominated. Mr. Gettin had the assembly endorsement.

Hawley's Lead Growing. For Representative in Congress from the First District the incomplete returns give W. C. Hawley a majority over B. F. Mulkey of 1446, but in these figures less than two-thirds of the vote cast is represented. On the final returns, estimating the vote on the way it is shown in the incomplete figures, Representative Hawley will be nominated.

500 WEST POINT CADETS ARRESTED

ENTIRE CORPS FACES GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL.

Disrespect to Tactics Officer and Insubordination Are Charges Made. Students Won't Tell.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The entire cadet corps is under arrest and facing a general court-martial for gross disrespect to Captain Rufus E. Longan, instructor in tactics, and insubordination. Major-General Richard H. Barry, superintendent of the Military Academy, sent the four classes of 500 young men to their quarters after mess on Sunday evening, and a board of officers is sitting at 1 o'clock this morning, endeavoring to find out why the cadets "silenced" Captain Longan. They won't tell. The whole corps has stood out against General Barry's orders; first-class men with almost perfect records in scholarship and conduct have remained as stubborn as tall cedars. All that General Barry and the board have got out of them in reply to questions as to why they refused to eat in Captain Longan's presence or refused to speak when he was among them is the statement: "We have formed a dislike for this officer." The penalty provided by law for this degree of insubordination is dismissal from the Military Academy.

RENO COLONY ENLARGED

Mrs. Weiss Keeps Husband Till Fortunes Fall, Then Seeks Divorce.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—One of the most accomplished and socially popular members of the local elite, Mrs. Jessie B. Weiss, who has just filed her divorce complaint against William H. Weiss, alleging failure to provide her necessities of life. Once living in affluence, a social leader for a number of years in aristocratic circles of San Antonio, Texas, then in a swirl of gay life of Paris, where her daughter now resides, she and her husband had lost much of his wealth by unwise investments since making their home in New York, she is seeking separation from him. She was formerly Miss Jessie, daughter of Augustus Belknap, who was formerly principal owner of the street railway company of San Antonio, Texas, and succeeded a few years ago by her husband, who was general manager. Before that, Weiss was manager of the wholesale dry goods house of A. B. Frank Company there.

BIRDS ARE FLYING SOUTH

Old Settlers Believe That Winter Will Come Early This Year.

DAYTON, Wash., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Myriads of summer birds flew over Southeastern Washington yesterday in a southerly direction. Occasionally a flock would alight in some inviting tree top and linger there for a few minutes or descend to some drinking place, but otherwise the movement southward was uninterrupted.

According to old settlers here this is a certain indication that colder weather is not far off. Usually these small birds precede the harder gales and ducks a few weeks the latter remaining north until shortly before the first snowfall. A cold, raw wind from the west is following in the wake of the feathered harbingers. It is believed by local weather prophets that Winter will come unusually early this year.

BOWERMAN LEAD REDUCED

Multnomah County Gives 2667 Plurality—Field's Lead Is Diminished and Sheriff Stevens Forges Ahead.

THE WINNING TICKET IN MULTNOMAH FOR LEGISLATIVE AND COUNTY OFFICES.

State Senator, Clackamas, Columbia and Multnomah—Dan J. Mackler, by 4616 votes. Representative, Clackamas and Multnomah—W. H. Clatten, by 2389 votes. State Senator, Multnomah County—George W. Joseph, by 2287 votes. State Senator, Multnomah County—James K. Locke, by 4228 votes. Representatives—James D. Abbott, C. A. Baglow, James M. Ambrose, J. C. Bryant, W. J. Clemens, James Cole, A. G. Bushlight, W. L. Costell, Stephen Collins, Ralph C. Clyde, Seneca Fouts, Edwin G. Amme, County Judge—T. J. Cleston. County Commissioner—L. V. Hart, by 745 votes. Sheriff—Robert L. Stevens, by 6547 votes. County Clerk—Frank R. Fields, by 1258 votes. County Treasurer—John M. Lewis, by 4700 votes. County Auditor—Samuel B. Martin, by 4700 votes. County Surveyor—Philo Holbrook. County Coroner—Ben L. Norden, by 2948 votes. Justice of Peace, Multnomah District—Fred L. Olson and J. W. Bell, by 1773 and 885 votes. Constable, Multnomah District—Andy Weinberger, by 333 votes.

With all but 12 precincts heard from in Multnomah County, the results are generally indicated by the figures now at hand. Few changes are necessitated by the later returns, although the defeat to the assembly has not been so far-reaching as at first believed.

Jay Bowerman, assembly candidate for Governor, has received a small plurality, and in addition a few other assembly candidates have survived the anti-assembly landslide. Circuit Judge Kavanaugh, assembly candidate for Circuit Judge to succeed himself, is nominated with a lead of 2834 votes over S. H. Gruber in 169 out of 182 precincts. J. W. Bell has a safe lead to succeed himself as Justice of the Peace, while Andy Weinberger, assembly candidate for Constable, is nominated, with Fred A. Frischhorn 298 votes behind him in second place. Dr. Ben L. Norden has defeated C. H. (Concluded on Page 10.)

CHINESE APPEAR IN EVENING DRESS

PEKIN BANQUET TO SECRETARY OF WAR IS NOTABLE.

Western Costumes and Customs Are Adopted by Mongolians—Visitors Are Given Costly Presents.

PEKIN, Sept. 25.—The visit of Jacob M. Dickinson, the American Secretary of War, Brigadier-General Clarence H. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, and party to Peking will end tomorrow. It has been marked by a round of entertainments and a display of Western innovations never before known in China. The Prince Regent, on learning that neither Secretary Dickinson nor General Edwards was able to accept decorations, sent to Mrs. Dickinson a pair of cloisonne vases of the Chien Tung period. The Regent also sent a pair of red lacquer boxes, of similar antiquity, to Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Edwards. A banquet was given in honor of the Secretary and the other visitors last evening by Chinese students who have returned from America.

Many ladies were present and a considerable number of Chinese appeared without queues and in evening clothes, to which apparently they had been accustomed while residing in the United States. More than 100 of the guests had come from the various cities of North China. Representatives of those places declared that the Government, which originally persecuted them, was now giving them the highest offices. Toasts were given to their Alma Mater.

Atlantic Fleet Returns.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 25.—Admiral Schroeder's battleship fleet returned to Hampton Roads today, after more than two weeks on battle practice on the Southern drill grounds.

ROOSEVELT PUTS OLD GUARD AWAY

Convention to Be Led by Ex-President.

VETERANS PRACTICALLY QUIT

"What Would It Have Profited Us to Win?" They Say.

CONVENTION IS AWAITED

Presence of Majority for Colonel Admitted by Those Opposed to Him and Success Seems Certain at Saratoga.

NO COMPROMISE, SAYS T. R. OYSTER RAY, Sept. 25.—There will be no compromise in his fight for a direct nomination law, Colonel Roosevelt said today. He declared he believed enough delegates would support his stand to put into the platform a plank embodying his ideas. "The statement that I have considered a compromise on the primary plank is untrue," he said.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—They are about to get rid of that man Roosevelt again. It's going to happen this time through the rout of the "old guard" in New York politics, horse, foot and dragons, and the work of a convention that will be led if not dominated by the ex-President.

The "old guard" set out in the present instance to eliminate Roosevelt by electing a majority of delegates to the state convention opposed to him personally and to the Roosevelt policies. The reverse having resulted, it now declares it did not want to win at all this year, because Roosevelt will be in a worse predicament as a winner than he would be as a loser. Old Guard Surrenders. In other words, "the old guard," which "dies but never surrenders," has surrendered. Its chief mogul admitted tonight the presence of a Roosevelt majority in the convention which will meet on Tuesday, but not by the big margin claimed by Chairman Griscom, of the New York County committee, field marshal of the anti-"old guard" forces. Griscom holds to a minimum of 570 out of a total of 1015 delegates. The "old guard" says the Roosevelt lead will not amount to more than 30 votes, and Roosevelt would have been beaten, it declares, had it not been for one or two flukes within the last two weeks. No Use to Win. "What would it have profited us to win, anyway?" the "old guard" is inquiring blandly, to fit the emergency. "We would have faced a losing fight in the campaign for the election in November, and defeated at the polls, we would have been held disgraced. Now the shoe is on the other foot. Roosevelt is in the saddle temporarily; it will (Concluded on Page 2.)

VOLCANIC SHOCKS PUT 7 TO FLIGHT

SERIES OF 32 VIOLENT EARTHQUAKES ARE FELT BY GANG.

Eruptions in Extinct Crater Increase so Alarming That Workmen Break Camp in Night.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Sept. 25.—Seven members of a construction gang arrived here tonight with the story that they had been driven away from their work near the base of an extinct volcano in the Coconino forest, 45 miles north of here by a series of 32 violent earthquakes. Last Friday night, when slight quakes were felt here and in other northern Arizona towns, the shocks were so violent and the rumblings within the dead volcano so terrifying that the men broke camp and left in a panic. C. McNichols, foreman of the gang, told the story, which is corroborated by all of his men. He said the shocks began on the night of Saturday, September 19. The first were slight, but they became stronger each day and night until the final one Friday. The first shocks threw a lamp off a camp box in McNichols' tent and broke down his bed. He rolled off the mattress, but the next quake, more violent than the rest, threw him back on the bed. McNichols found all his men outside their tents wildly excited and being frightened himself, he ordered camp broken and at midnight the seven men began their march to this city. There is some apprehension here that the volcano, which apparently has been extinct for ages, is about to become active again.

TWO CONFESS TO ROBBERY

Complicity in Theft of $14,345 From Sluice Boxes of Mines.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—J. F. Warren, special government agent for the Second Judicial district of Alaska, today received a cablegram saying that two men now in jail at Nome have confessed to complicity in the theft of $14,345 from the sluice boxes of the Pioneer Mining Company.

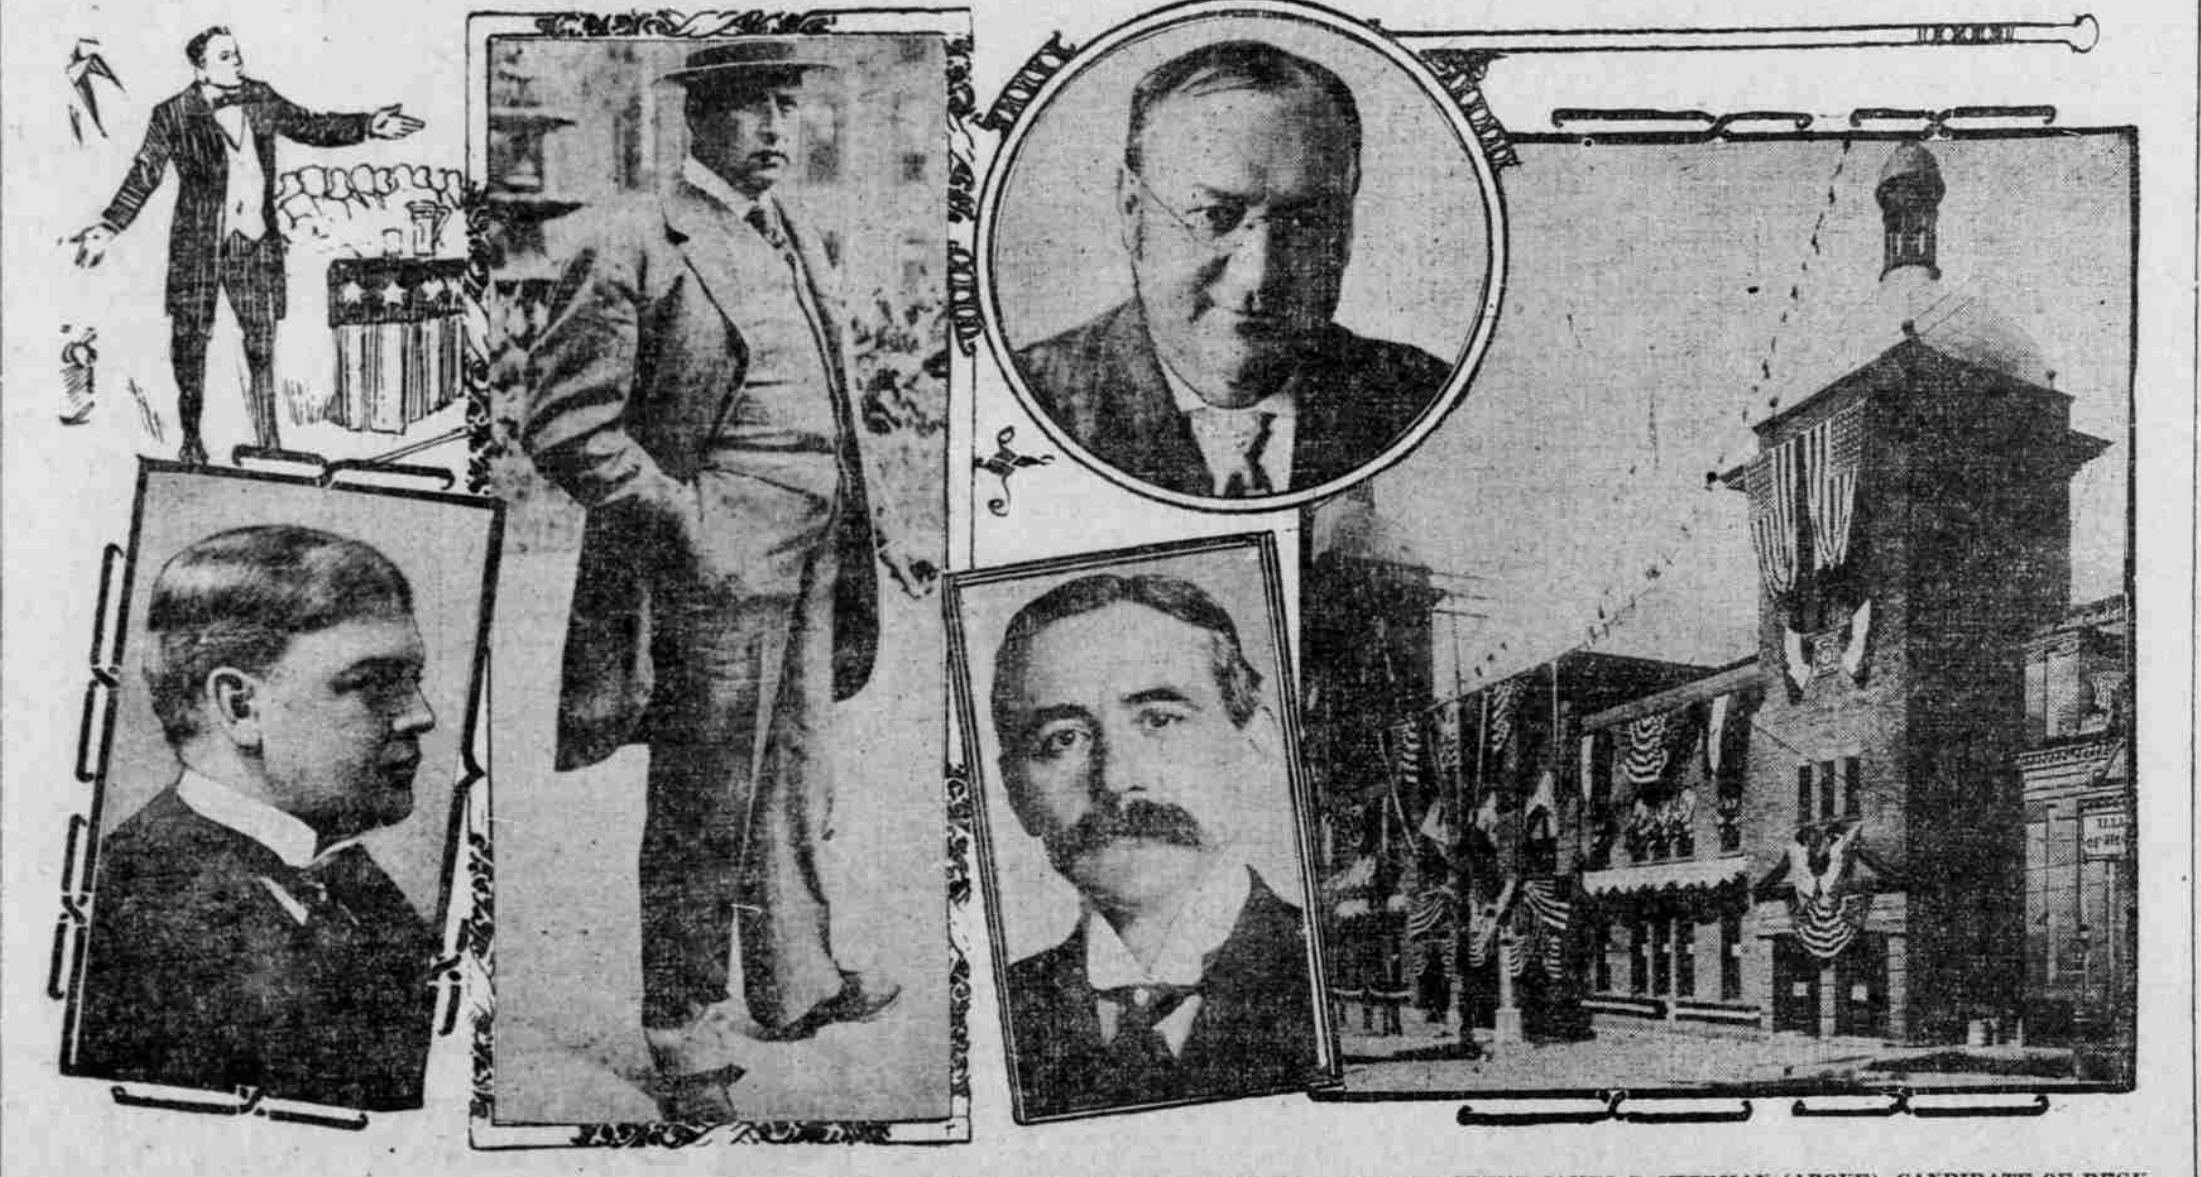

Mr. Warren has not yet learned whether the reported confession has implicated Marius Johansen, or John Tyberg, who were arrested recently in this city on a charge of being implicated in the robbery. Mr. Warren will leave for Nome on the steamer Victoria Monday morning with Johansen, who is 22 years old. Johansen, has agreed to not oppose extradition to Alaska, declaring that he is innocent and will be able to prove his assertion in the courts. Tyberg, says Mr. Warren, will be taken to Alaska in a few days. "He is penitent and discouraged and not anxious to recover, I judge, outside his drinking he is a model youth, bright, happy, intelligent and with an excellent career ahead of him." Out at the Stubbs home, 1850 East Eighty-first street, Mrs. Stubbs, a bride of only a few months, is prostrated. She was Miss Marguerite Wheeler, of New York City, and was married last June. She cannot see anyone, but Mrs. Annette Wheeler, of New York, her mother, who has been with her daughter for several weeks, says her daughter insists the shooting must have been accidental. "I think so, too," said Mrs. Wheeler today. "It was in a jolly humor when he left the house last evening to attend a business meeting. He and Marguerite have been happy and contented that there is no reason why he should commit suicide. Revolver Recent Purchase. "Donald was always contented and cheerful. He did not have a revolver until the last day of two. That explains why the police found a new box of cartridges. We were talking only Thursday of the Rice murder and other tragedies here lately and of the many hold-ups. Donald said we ought to have a gun in the house. I suppose he bought one after that talk and had brought it home yet. There was no reason why he should shoot himself. My daughter and I believe it to have been accidental." Stubbs staggered from his office at No. 305 Williamson building, just before midnight last night, crying to an elevator man: "I need help, I've shot myself accidentally." That was all the words he would say, even when taken to Lakeside Hospital, where it was found the bullet had entered above his heart and had taken a downward course, being lodged in his back. Surgeons today decided it too dangerous to probe for the bullet. They say Stubbs has only one chance to live—only a fighting chance. The police searched the office while Stubbs was being taken to the hospital. They found the desk ransacked and papers scattered about the floor. The policeman who made the search marked their report "attempted suicide." Donald Stubbs was appointed to the general agency of the Union Pacific here last July, after his marriage to Miss Wheeler.

FUNNY STORY KILLS MAN

Paroxysm of Laughter Causes Breaking of Blood Vessel in Brain.

FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 25.—N. C. Shapabian, a popular member of the Armenian colony here, lies dead at his home at 231 M Street as the result of a funny story told two days ago at a house-warming party that he attended. Shapabian, who was a tailor, had a reputation for his genial nature. A friend was narrating his experiences on a hunting trip several days before, when Shapabian was so pleased with the story that he began to laugh heartily. His friends were terrified when he broke a blood vessel at the base of his brain and tumbled over unresponsive. He layed two days without recovering consciousness.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Drink is my son's only fault. In all other respects he is a model lad," said John C. Stubbs, traffic director of the Harriman railroads, who reached here at 8 o'clock from his Chicago home on receipt of word that his son, Donald Patterson Stubbs, had shot himself and was near death in Lakeside Hospital.

"Drink was his only fault, and I can't see that when he says that his shooting was an accident, it can be otherwise than true. My son, in the few talks I have been able to have with him while he was out from under the influence of opiates, has impressed on me time and again today the fact that he shot himself by accident. BELGIAN CONSUL ANGERED

Rear-Admiral Has Good Explanation of Seeming Insult.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Consul-General of Belgium in San Francisco, F. Drion, recently complained to the Belgian Minister at Washington that the commandant of the Naval Training Station at Yerba Buena Island, in San Francisco harbor, had refused ordinary courtesies to cadets of the Belgian naval training-ship L'Avenir, when that vessel was recently in the harbor. The Consul said he had written no less than two letters to the commandant of the training station, asking that a date be set for receiving the Belgian cadets, but his letters had been ignored. The State Department wired to Rear-Admiral Milton, present commandant, and he promptly furnished good explanation, which shows the Belgian Consul-General does not keep an up-to-date navy register in his office. The Rear-Admiral said the Consul-General had directed letters to Captain Cathcart, his predecessor in office, who has been gone two years. These letters had been sent to Washington. They only reached the Rear-Admiral yesterday.
