HOLSTLAW TELLS OF SHARE-IN BRIBE
Lorimer Vote Said to Bring $2500 Gift From Senator John Broderick.

PROMISE OF MONEY TOLD

Democratic Inner Senator Says He Thought Money Was for Vote, but He Intended to Support Lorimer At Any Event.

"PORTLAND, Sept. 26—Senator Lorimer of Indiana, who was in Washington last week, had promised Senator John Broderick a $2500 gift if the former would vote for Henry Cabot Lodge's nomination for the vice presidency of the United States in the Republican campaign.

"Senator Leyton was for a moment abashed over the present of money.
"It was too sudden for me in the presence of a number of others," he said.

"The idea was to give a few gifts, which were purchased by a man who supported me, and the money was to be given in return for the vote, which was to be decided by the Senator at the time.

"But when I got the word from Lorimer last night, I was in a state of some distress at the prospect of the whole thing.

"The idea was that Senator Leyton should have a good deal of money for the campaign, and that Senator Broderick should be rewarded for his vote.

"But when I got the word from Lorimer last night, I was in a state of some distress at the prospect of the whole thing.

"The idea was that Senator Leyton
should have a good deal of money
for the campaign, and that Senator Broderick should be rewarded for his vote.

"I told Senator Leyton that I would not accept the money, and that the idea was not completely understood by me.

"I told Senator Leyton that I would not accept the money,
and that the idea was not
completely understood by me.

"Senator Leyton said that he would understand this, and that he would not accept the money.

"I told Senator Leyton that I would not accept the money,
and that the idea was not completely understood by me.