

BEAVERS CRUSHED IN RAGGED GAME

Portlands Play Like Palsied Old Women and Oaks Pile Up Eight Runs.

FIVE SECURED IN SECOND

With Two Out Wolverines Get Busy With Steen and Latter's Support Gives Way With Crash—Result Not in Doubt Then.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Oakland 3, Portland 2. Sacramento 4, San Francisco 0. Vernon 3, Los Angeles 1.

Exhausted with their good fortune of the previous day and the fact that they scored two runs right off the reel against Jack Lively yesterday, the Portland Beavers laid off playing good baseball and just kicked and booted the ball all over the enclosure through out the balance of the game, and their erratic conduct resulted in the Oakland bunch piling up eight runs to the puny trio registered by the home guard.

Baseball ethics were totally ignored by the home guard in the second inning, for they thought the two runs made off Lively in the first were sufficient to tally before the final man of the requisite three was retired. Bill Steen started to fling for the Beavers, but the best pitcher on earth could not have accomplished anything when afforded such miserable support as fell to the lot of "Big Six" in that second inning.

Oaks Get Busy. Happy Bill Hogan was the first Oak up and he flew to George Ort, and Wolverton was dispatched when at Raps. With two out, the situation looked fine for Portland, but Cutshaw singled to left, and Swander worked Steen for a pass, which put two men on the path with Mitze up.

The catcher hit a slow bouncer over second, which Olson kicked around long enough to allow Cutshaw to score and Swander to take third, both traveling two bases on the dinky hit, yet Ole gets no error. Lively singled to center, scoring Swander, and Slaggar, slammed the past Tommy Sheehan, which also went through Artie Kruger, and the batter as well as Mitze and Lively scored before the ball was retrieved.

It was a fine exhibition of how not to play baseball, and the younger generation present in large numbers yesterday ought to profit by the example. Many of the kid teams in Portland could have done better when at this glaring episode, McCredie caught Steen in his derick and substituted Garrett, though none of the damage done was directly due to the work of Steen, for a pitcher cannot cover the entire diamond and has to depend on the eight men behind him. Steen might as well have depended on the flock of wild old women as on the Portland team yesterday.

Beavers Score in First. Ryan's single, a fielder's choice on Olson's sacrifice, Lively's error and a single by Gus Helling, who played again yesterday, but without a protest from Wolverton, gave Portland two runs in the first inning, and it looked fine until the bad behavior of the Beavers in the second.

Portland's third run came in the fifth, when Olson's single, followed by a pass to Kruger and Sheehan's single was turned into a run, and Kruger, not satisfied with the first, when the second, tossed off a run by trying to score Olson, only to be thrown out on a clinch play from Swander to Mitze. Kruger lost considerable popularity by his poor judgment.

Ryan Takes Nap. In the eighth inning, Monte Pfyf hit a fair single to center, but Buddy Ryan took a nap and "Piffle" ambled to second. Buddy then tried to demonstrate how really bad he could be and misjudged Bill Hogan's fly, which went for a home run, scoring Pfyf also, before the ball could be recovered.

Fif good measures the Oaks landed another in the ninth, when Mitze singled to left and scored on "Midget" Ware's corking triple to the left field fence. Portland was helpless before Lively in the fifth inning, and the result was never in doubt.

Eugene Krapp or "Zeke" Zacker, the latter being McCredie's new importation from the Seattle Club, will pitch for Portland today, while the Oaks will depend upon either Harkins or "Slim" Nelson. The score of yesterday's game is as follows:

OAKLAND. AB R H PO A E. Messart, 1f, 5 1 1 1 0 0. Ware, 2f, 5 1 1 1 0 0. Pfyf, 3f, 5 1 1 1 0 0. Hogan, cf, 5 2 1 0 0 0. Wolverton, 4f, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Cutshaw, 2b, 4 1 1 4 4 0. Swander, 1b, 4 1 1 4 4 0. Lively, p, 3 1 1 0 0 0. Totals, 36 8 10 27 11 1.

PORTLAND. AB R H PO A E. Ryan, cf, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Olson, 1b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Kruger, 2b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Sheehan, 3b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Raps, 4f, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Fisher, c, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Ort, 1b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Garrett, p, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Murray, 2b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Menser, 3b, 5 0 0 0 0 0. Totals, 35 0 0 0 0 0.

SCORES BY INNINGS. Oakland, 1 0 0 0 0 2 1-8. Portland, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0. Totals, 1 0 0 0 0 2 1-8.

Struck out—By Steen, 1; by Garrett, 1; by Lively, 2. Bases on hits—Pfyf, Messer, three; Lively, 2. Two base hits—Pfyf, Messer. Three base hits—Ware, Home run—Menser, sacrifice.

ONE OF CLEVEREST BASEBALL PLAYERS IN PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE IS OAKLAND'S NIFTY YOUNG SHORTSTOP.

"RABBIT" WALES.

FIELDING WITH FEET COSTLY

Tennant Loses Game for San Francisco, Beaten 4 to 0.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—A ripping four sack drive off Sutor, which scored three runs, and contributory negligence by Tommy Tennant, whose efforts to field the ball with his feet resulted in four errors, gave Sacramento four runs today in the first round.

That was enough. Byram, the ex-Princeton star who pitched for Sacramento, allowed but four hits and the final score was Sacramento 4, San Francisco 0. Score: R. H. E. Sacramento 4 6 0. San Francisco 0 4 4. Batteries—Byram and Splemman; Sutor, Browning, Williams and Berry.

Vernon 3; Los Angeles 1. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—Vernon and Los Angeles opened the week's series at Chutes Park today, the villagers getting the long end of a 3 to 1 score. It was a pitchers' battle throughout with Carson elusive in pines when a hit would have meant a run for the Angels. The Angels' only run was made without a hit, Howland reaching third on Brashear's high throw to Carson, when the latter covered the bag and crossing the plate after Ross caught Murphy's sacrifice fly. Score: R. H. E. Vernon 3 1 0. Los Angeles 1 4 1. Batteries—Carson and Hogan; Castleton and Orendorf.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Won. Lost. P. C. Chicago 24 20 54.9. St. Louis 23 21 52.0. Cincinnati 22 22 50.0. Pittsburgh 22 22 50.0. Philadelphia 21 23 47.8. Boston 20 24 45.2. New York 19 25 43.5. Cleveland 18 26 40.8. St. Louis 17 27 38.7. Cincinnati 16 28 36.2.

MARVEL COVALESKI LOSES New York Giants Found Cincinnati Pitcher for 16 Runs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—New York today made 16 runs off Covaleski, the pitcher whose wonderful work prevented them from winning the National League pennant two years ago and vanquished Cincinnati 16 to 4. Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 4 11. New York 16 16 3. Batteries—Covaleski and Clark; Crandall and Schel, Wilson.

St. Louis 5; Philadelphia 4. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—St. Louis again defeated Philadelphia today, 5 to 4. The game was featured by a home run drive by Ellis. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 4 11. St. Louis 5 10 3. Batteries—Steele and Bresnahan; Girard, Brennan and Dooin. Umpires—Klem and Kane.

Boston 3-0; Chicago 2-11. BOSTON, Sept. 28.—Boston defeated Chicago, 3 to 0, in the first game today, but was shut out in the second, 11 to 0. Score: R. H. E. Boston 3 0 0. Chicago 0 0 0. Batteries—Ferguson and Haridan; Reulbach and Kling.

Second game—R. H. E. Boston 0 0 0. Chicago 11 0 1. Batteries—Mattern, Curtis, Burke and Raridan; Ellis, Brown and King. Needham. Umpires—O'Day and Brennan.

Brooklyn 2; Pittsburgh 0. BROOKLYN, Sept. 28.—Brooklyn made it four straight from Pittsburgh today, 2 to 0. Bell had great control and received brilliant support. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh 0 4 1. Brooklyn 2 0 0. Batteries—Steele and Gibson; Bell and O. Miller. Umpires—Rigler and Emalle.

WASHINGTON STUDENTS GLAD TO LEARN Big Fullback Can Play.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Mourful gridiron fans at the University of Washington were greatly cheered by the news that Tracy Baker, the big Pepperton full-back, had made up with the faculty and would turn out tonight. His case was the same as Sparker's, a disagreement with the powers that be, over the hateful military work required of all freshmen. Few believed that the big back would be allowed to don canvas, and last night's news brought Washington's stock with a swoop.

Fandom at Random. A NICE young curtain lecture, read to several members of the Portland squad after yesterday's game, would have been well merited. McCredie has a fond of resourful language for such occasions, and it is just possible that he made a short speech.

"Big Six" Steen was working in fine style when his teammates sluffed off the game by allowing Oakland to tally five times after the first two men were out, and he simply the rotten playing of Portland, and the horseshoe luck of Oakland that accomplished the result.

Why Olson should be excused from an error on Mitze's bouncer has not been explained. The Oak catcher was probably entitled to a hit on the tap, but Cutshaw was not entitled to score from second, nor was Swander eligible to go to third.

"Tribby" Rankin did much better work in his official capacity yesterday, for he took more time before rendering his decisions. He ought to make good as an umpire, for he knows the game. His only fault is his hasty judgment, but he may overcome this.

Happy Bill Hogan's home run was a fluke, for Bill ought to have been sitting on the bench immediately after the hit. Buddy Ryan, seamed in a trance, for he pulled in the second inning, which latter counted for a homer.

Fisher hurt his ankle sliding yesterday and in the first inning yesterday, and while he caught the second inning, he gave way to Murray in the third. Tommy Baker was not entitled to score from first on a gingersy game and his passing of ball was one of Jesse Garrett's saliva shoots.

Jack Lively depended almost exclusively on the spit ball, and works quite successfully with it. His lips are chapped and cut from the contact of the ball, for he moistens the sphere by putting it to his mouth instead of spitting on his fingers.

Carl Mitze did some fancy clowning yesterday, for the Oak catcher got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

YALE WINS FIRST

Old Eli Shows Up Strong in New Football.

WESLEYAN GETS CIPHER

Style of 1910 Play With Frequent Forward Passing and Kicking Makes Game Interesting—Danger of Injury Eliminated.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 28.—In the opening game of the football season on Yale Field here today, Yale defeated Wesleyan by a score of 22 to 0.

Both teams showed good knowledge of the new football, while versatility at plays with frequent use of the forward pass and kicking made the contest exciting. Each side was frequently penalized and but very few line-plays were tried.

A failure on Wesleyan's part of the use of the forward pass gave Corey the ball and he ran 36 yards for Yale's third touchdown. The officials had few questions to decide.

The new game showed great opportunities for open play and chances for consistent ground gaining with the perfection of the forward pass. That a heavy line will be of as much importance this year as previously was shown by the frequent gains made by Yale through Wesleyan's center.

The game demonstrated that a fast, light team with the use of the forward pass and the punt will have a better chance of gaining ground against a heavier team than heretofore.

The danger of injury also seems to have been lessened, and the allowing of an injured player to return at the opening of a new quarter will allow a team to maintain its initial strength throughout the game.

HARVARD SCORES 22 POINTS

Bates Falls Down to Whitewash Defeat on New Football.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 28.—Harvard opened the football season today by defeating Bates, 22 to 0, in a fast, spectacular game.

Other Football Scores. At Carlisle, Pa.—Carlisle Indians 20, Muhlenberg College 0.

At South Bethlehem, Pa.—Lehigh 10, Western Maryland 0.

BAKER WILL RETURN TO TEAM Washington Students Glad to Learn Big Fullback Can Play.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Mourful gridiron fans at the University of Washington were greatly cheered by the news that Tracy Baker, the big Pepperton full-back, had made up with the faculty and would turn out tonight.

Fandom at Random. A NICE young curtain lecture, read to several members of the Portland squad after yesterday's game, would have been well merited. McCredie has a fond of resourful language for such occasions, and it is just possible that he made a short speech.

"Big Six" Steen was working in fine style when his teammates sluffed off the game by allowing Oakland to tally five times after the first two men were out, and he simply the rotten playing of Portland, and the horseshoe luck of Oakland that accomplished the result.

Why Olson should be excused from an error on Mitze's bouncer has not been explained. The Oak catcher was probably entitled to a hit on the tap, but Cutshaw was not entitled to score from second, nor was Swander eligible to go to third.

"Tribby" Rankin did much better work in his official capacity yesterday, for he took more time before rendering his decisions. He ought to make good as an umpire, for he knows the game. His only fault is his hasty judgment, but he may overcome this.

Happy Bill Hogan's home run was a fluke, for Bill ought to have been sitting on the bench immediately after the hit. Buddy Ryan, seamed in a trance, for he pulled in the second inning, which latter counted for a homer.

Fisher hurt his ankle sliding yesterday and in the first inning yesterday, and while he caught the second inning, he gave way to Murray in the third. Tommy Baker was not entitled to score from first on a gingersy game and his passing of ball was one of Jesse Garrett's saliva shoots.

Jack Lively depended almost exclusively on the spit ball, and works quite successfully with it. His lips are chapped and cut from the contact of the ball, for he moistens the sphere by putting it to his mouth instead of spitting on his fingers.

Carl Mitze did some fancy clowning yesterday, for the Oak catcher got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

Danny Long must be thoroughly enjoying life these days, for the Oaks slammed his bunch all over the lot last week, and now the unlucky Sacramento Senators are proceeding to wipe the earth with the Seas—and to think that Long had a vision of another pennant only a few days ago.

As Oakland won yesterday's game the protesting kid, Harry Wolverton, neglected to refer to the playing of Gus Helling by the Portland team. Ever since his success in robbing Portland of a game through the incapacity of Van Halren last Spring, Wolverton never overlooks a chance to protest, no matter on what grounds.

Casey's injury in Tuesday's game gave Helling, by the Oak catcher, got three "blows" out of four trips to the plate. He also caught a nice game behind the bat, and was like a flash on bunts.

MICHELIN Anti-Skids. Prevent skidding, insuring car and passengers against accidents and possible serious injury. Tough, Flexible, Non-Puncturing Leather Tread. Firmly Imbedded Hardened Steel Anti-Skid Rivets. Look for this Sign. For Sale at Leading Garages.

BLATZ THE FINEST BEER EVER BREWED. VAL BLATZ BREWING CO. MILWAUKEE. Rothchild Bros., Distributors, 20-22-24-26 N. First Street, Portland, Oregon. Phones Main 153-A 1886.

MERGER IN HIGH FAVOR

NORTHWEST LEAGUE WANTS CLUBS IN COAS TGROUP. Committee to Confer With Representatives of Larger Organization at Portland is Named.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the Northwest League tonight, it was decided to consolidate with the Coast League, on the basis of four clubs in the North and four in the South. Any other proposition will not be considered.

The committee appointed to confer with a committee from the Coast League in Portland next Wednesday consists of D. E. Dugdale, Seattle; Joseph Cohn, Spokane; R. P. Brown, Vancouver, and Eddie Quinn, Tacoma.

The league instructed the committee to say that it was ready to combine on equal geographical representation, but not otherwise. Counter propositions will not be entertained.

Representative McCredie, owner of the Portland team, was present part of the time.

Owing to the effect the joint conference might have on the Northwest League, the annual election of officers, and consideration of applications from several cities, including Victoria and Everett, for franchises, was postponed until next month.

O'CONNELL RETURNS TO TOWN Wrestler Says Sam Langford is Only Man Who Can Beat Johnson.

Eddie O'Connell, boxing and wrestling instructor of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, arrived in Portland Tuesday after spending the Summer months in the East. He immediately took charge of his classes at the club.

"Sam Langford is the one man who can beat Jack Johnson," said O'Connell. "If he ever gets the big fellow into the ring the championship will change hands."

O'Connell helped to train Langford for his go with Jeannette. Notwithstanding his long journey O'Connell had a strenuous workout last night with the boxers and wrestlers at Multnomah Club. From all appearances he is trained to the minute and capable of going on the mat soon. He expects to put in a active year in Portland.

STARTLE DEFEATS GENERAL H. Michigan-Owned Gelding Springs Surprise on Columbus Track.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—Startle, a

The tactful hostess considers Blatz an essential part of her supplies. Just common-sense hospitality. She reasons that what is good for her is good for her friends. Splendid prophesy. Generations ago Blatz proved its great worth as a household beverage—and tonic. Today, as in the past, it is pre-eminently the finest malt beverage brewed. Have you a case of Blatz in your home?

BLATZ THE FINEST BEER EVER BREWED. VAL BLATZ BREWING CO. MILWAUKEE. Rothchild Bros., Distributors, 20-22-24-26 N. First Street, Portland, Oregon. Phones Main 153-A 1886.

MERGER IN HIGH FAVOR

NORTHWEST LEAGUE WANTS CLUBS IN COAS TGROUP. Committee to Confer With Representatives of Larger Organization at Portland is Named.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the Northwest League tonight, it was decided to consolidate with the Coast League, on the basis of four clubs in the North and four in the South. Any other proposition will not be considered.

The committee appointed to confer with a committee from the Coast League in Portland next Wednesday consists of D. E. Dugdale, Seattle; Joseph Cohn, Spokane; R. P. Brown, Vancouver, and Eddie Quinn, Tacoma.

The league instructed the committee to say that it was ready to combine on equal geographical representation, but not otherwise. Counter propositions will not be entertained.

Representative McCredie, owner of the Portland team, was present part of the time.

Owing to the effect the joint conference might have on the Northwest League, the annual election of officers, and consideration of applications from several cities, including Victoria and Everett, for franchises, was postponed until next month.

O'CONNELL RETURNS TO TOWN Wrestler Says Sam Langford is Only Man Who Can Beat Johnson.

Eddie O'Connell, boxing and wrestling instructor of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, arrived in Portland Tuesday after spending the Summer months in the East. He immediately took charge of his classes at the club.

"Sam Langford is the one man who can beat Jack Johnson," said O'Connell. "If he ever gets the big fellow into the ring the championship will change hands."

O'Connell helped to train Langford for his go with Jeannette. Notwithstanding his long journey O'Connell had a strenuous workout last night with the boxers and wrestlers at Multnomah Club. From all appearances he is trained to the minute and capable of going on the mat soon. He expects to put in a active year in Portland.

STARTLE DEFEATS GENERAL H. Michigan-Owned Gelding Springs Surprise on Columbus Track.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—Startle, a

GORDON Hats are the utmost in Hat Values today. Style, quality and comfort—of the finest sort—have created the present widespread demand for these hats. Not a cent is charged for the Gordon name. Gordon Hats, $3.00. The Gordon DeLuxe, $4.00. A. B. Steinbach & Co., Agents.

Michigan-owned gelding, raced by Joe Gahagan, of Toledo, astonished an overflow crowd at the Grand Circuit races by capturing the first two heats of the 2:09 trot away from a high-grade field, in which General H. was considered to have the best chances. Startle's time in the first heat was 2:05 1/2.

Startle's victory was the last one of the day. General H. was favorite at $100 in a pool of $185. Willy was second choice, with Startle, Demarest and Lady Stately having a slight following.

Joan, winner over Dudge Archdale last week in two of three heats, made it three straight today, when they met for the Buckeye stake of $5000. The Archdale mare started as first choice $100 to $50 over the field, in which there was nothing up to her standard except Joan.

Tomorrow the Harvester will start in an attempt to cover the world's stallion record of 2:01.

PENNSYLVANIA WINS GAME, 18 TO 0.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football team today defeated Dickinson College by the score of 18 to 0. The Pennsylvanians played 69 per cent better football than against Ursinus. The end runs and forward passes were very effective. Paul Ward passed very effectively. Earl Brown, left guard of Dickinson's team, was injured in the first half. After an examination at the university hospital, it was found that his left shoulderblade was fractured and that he would have to remain in the hospital for several days.

Hunting Season Opens Saturday.

MONTEANO, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Extensive preparations are being made by sportsmen for the opening of the hunting season, which begins next Saturday. The season is one month late. There are thousands of ducks in the lower harbor.

Judge McMaster Refuses Nomination

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—That Judge Donald McMaster, of the Superior Court of this district, was urged to become a candidate for the Supreme Court of Washington by delegates

ASTHMADOR A GUARANTEED REMEDY FOR ASTHMA

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS ON THE MONEY-BACK PLAN. Dr. R. Schiffmann's "ASTHMADOR" never fails to give INSTANT RELIEF in the worst cases of ASTHMA. No WAITING for RESULTS. Its action is immediate, direct and CERTAIN, and a CURE is the result in all curable cases. WE ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEE "ASTHMADOR" to give IMMEDIATE RELIEF in the most violent attacks of ASTHMA. So positively certain are we that it will do exactly as claimed for it, that we have authorized all Druggists in the U. S. to Refund Your Money without question if it fails to benefit you. (1) R. Schiffmann Co., Proprietors, St. Paul, Minn. FAMA NACIONAL CIGARS. Are Made of the Best Havana Tobacco. HAVE YOU TRIED ONE? CAMPBELL-LAKIN SEGAR CO. DISTRIBUTORS.